HAD LOTS OF MONEY.—A ragged old tramp arrested as a vagabond at the Paris Halles, on being searched at the police station, was found to have 200,000 francs in bank notes and 850,000 francs in securities on his person. He was sent to the Insane hospital while the police try to find out who he is.

NOVA SCOTIAN'S LUCK.—On the steamer Discovery, which recently arrived at Seattle from Alaska, was C F Downey, of Seattle, who had about $15,000 in dust. C Ward who has $125,000, is the owner of a claim on Bonanza Creek. He was formerly a member of the mounted police. His home is in Nova Scotia.

AFTER THE CANADA CUP.—Chicago yachtsmen have decided to challenge for the Canada Cup. Ever since the cup was lost by an American boat in the races off Toledo a couple of years ago, it has been the dream of the local yachtsmen to bring the trophy where they feel it belongs—to Chicago. And they propose to go after it and bring it back—if money and skill can produce a racing machine swift enough to accomplish it.—Chicago Journal.

Herdman of Georgetown, writing to the Sackville Post under date of the 27th ult says:—"I saw mention made in the Post recently of the names and ages of a number of old residents of Amherst and also of Summerside. I think we have six old men in Georgetown that will beat the record. Their names and ages are as follows:—T. Henry, 83; P. Braghton, 97; H. Griffin, 87; P. Stewart, 82; J. Cogswell, 83; H. McFadden, 90, making an average of about 87 years and an aggregate of 608 years. Nearly all these people are enjoying good health.

DR. TROTTER'S AFFLICTION.—A Wolfville correspondent writes: Dr. Trotter has returned from his visit through the Eastern Counties and Cape Breton; here nearly $5,000 were pledged to the Forward Movement Fund. The friends of Dr. Trotter will be sorry to learn that his trip was curtailed, by a somewhat serious affection of his eyes. An oculist being consulted in Halifax, with the result that entire rest was insisted upon, in order to prevent dangerous complications in the future.

MITCHELL RIVER NOTES.

The crops in this vicinity are flourishing and there is every indication of a bountiful harvest. Haying is the order of the day, and judging by appearances the straw cow of Mitchell River is a thing of the past.

Mrs Malcolm D. Campbell has returned home from an extended visit to relatives residing in various parts of the United States. She speaks in glowing terms of her trip, and was evidently impressed by the grandeur of Uncle Sam's domains.

Mr John Mahar, formerly of Sturgeon has purchased the farm owned by the late John Campbell of this place, and is erecting an elegant and commodious house thereon.

Mr Mahar has also planted a very fine young orchard, which greatly improves the appearance of his new home.

Mr James Fay, of East Point, is visiting friends in Mitchell River.

We learn with pleasure that Messrs George Crawford and Alex McRae, who intended trying their fortunes in the far West have completely abandoned the idea, wisely preferring the reality of a good and comfortable existence to the uncertainty of a foreign land.

An eagle that ventured to our shores was shot and killed by one of our noted marks-men, Mr. John Wood. We learn that Mr. Wood intends getting his eagleship stuffed. Truly a stuffed eagle is a trophy many of our gunners would be proud to possess.

Rumors of matrimonial intentions are at present unusually current in Mitchell River.

Dewey.

Mitchell River, Aug. 3rd, 1898.
