

THE ELECTIONS.

Instructions to Candidates and Agents.

BRIBERY.—Consists in the giving, or agreeing to give or lend, or the offering or promising money or valuable consideration or procuring for or promising to procure any office, place or employment for any voter, or any one on behalf of a voter, in order to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting at an election.

TREATING.—Every candidate who corruptly by himself, or by or with any person or by any other means or means on his behalf at any time either upon or during any election, directly or indirectly, gives or provides or causes to be given, or is accessory to the giving and providing, or pays wholly or in part any expenses incurred for any meat, drink, refreshment or provision to or for any person in order to be elected, or for being elected, or for the purpose of corruptly influencing such person or any other person to give or refrain from giving his vote at such election, shall be deemed guilty of the offence of treating.

UNLAWFUL INFLUENCE.—Is defined as being the making use of or threatening to make use of any force, violence or restraint, or threatening the infliction of any injury, damage, harm or loss, or in any manner practising intimidation upon any person to induce him to vote or refrain from voting or on account of his having voted, or the preventing or interfering with the free exercise of the franchise by abduction, distress, or any fraudulent device or contrivance.

HIRING VEHICLES.—The hiring or promising to pay for any horse, team, carriage, etc., by any candidate, or by any person on his behalf to convey voters to or from the poll, or the payment of the travelling and other expenses of any voter in going to or returning from any election, are declared to be unlawful acts.

PERSONATION.—This is also a corrupt practice, and is defined as follows:—“Every candidate who corruptly by himself or by or with any other person on his behalf compels or induces or endeavours to induce any person to personate any voter, or take any false oath in any matter wherein an oath is required under the Election Act,” and also “any person who at any election applies for a ballot paper in the name of some other person whether such name be that of a person living or dead or of a fictitious person, or who having voted once at a fictitious election, applies at the same election for a ballot paper in his own name.”

CONSEQUENCES.—If it is found that any of the above acts has been committed by any candidate at an election or by his agent, whether with or without the actual knowledge and consent of the candidate the election of the candidate shall be void.

If the candidate himself is found guilty, or if any corrupt act is committed with his knowledge and consent, he is prohibited from sitting in the House of Commons or holding any office under the Crown for seven years.

Besides the voiding of the election, a penalty also attaches upon the conviction of either the candidate or his agent for any corrupt practice.

AGENCY.—No writing is essential to the establishment of agency. If a candidate is aware of the fact that any one is canvassing or working for him, and avails himself of that person's work, agency is created, and it is not necessary that the candidate should know that the person is working for him, for knowledge of that fact will be implied, from various circumstances, as, for instance, if the person in whom it is sought to establish agency has attended committee or other meetings when the candidate was present, or if he were a delegate at the Convention when the candidate was nominated. Indeed, the doctrine of agency has been so far extended in England as to include every member of an association when the candidate was the nominee of that Association. It is very hard for a man to work for another at an election and not constitute himself an agent.

No party colors or flags are to be used or carried on the day of election or within eight days before the election and no ribbons, badges, or favours are to be supplied or worn within the electoral District on the day of polling or within eight days before such a day.

No liquor is to be sold or given at any hotel, tavern, or shop during the polling day.

No candidate shall at any election, nor shall any other person either provide or furnish drink or other refreshment at the expense of such candidate to any elector during such election, or pay for, procure, or engage to pay for any such drink or other refreshment. Under this section a candidate had better abstain from entertaining visitors in his own house subsequent to the issue of the writs. That such should be necessary appears almost absurd, but the section would seem to cover a case of that sort.

All payments (except the personal expenses of the candidate) made, during, or after the election must be made through an agent or agents whose name and address are to be declared in writing to the Returning Officer on or before the nomination day; and any person making any payment otherwise than through such agent shall be guilty of misdemeanour. The agent is to make out and sign a detailed statement of all expenses within two months after the election, and to deliver it to the Returning Officer.

IN THE ABSTRACT, SIR JOHN MACDONALD IS AS MUCH A FREE TRADER AS I AM.—Hon. Alexander McKenzie.

Working-men's Resolution.

“WE, the workingmen, having had an opportunity of watching the career of the present Government, and having heard both sides of the question discussed during the campaign, do unhesitatingly cast in our lot with the Conservative Party, believing that the National Policy will re-adjust the tariff in such a manner as to aid the industries of the country, and secure to the working classes a fair day's pay for a fair day's labor. And we call upon every workingman in the Dominion to aid us in defeating the present Government.”

Howatt and Hackett's Candidature Endorsed by an Overwhelming Majority.

Special Dispatch to Examiner. WELLINGTON, Sept. 14. At the meeting at Egmont Bay, last night, over four hundred were present. Mr. Trudelle was Chairman. There was an overwhelming majority for Howatt and Hackett. A vote of thanks was unanimously given to Messrs. Hodgson and Kelly amid great cheering. A cheer proposed for McKenzie met with no response whatever.

LONDON, Sept. 12.

At a meeting in Belfast, last night, where F. H. O'Donnell, Home Rule member of Parliament, Hume Garvan, was to lecture on “Home Rule and Tenant Right,” there was a scene of wild confusion as he appeared on the platform; furniture was smashed, with fierce fighting in all parts of the hall, even on the platform, resulting in many broken heads. The cause of the riot was the displeasure of the Home Rulers at O'Donnell supporting the Government on the Eastern Question.

Consistency!

THOUGH McKenzie and his party declared that the Pacific Railway was almost too huge an undertaking for Canada, yet as soon as he got into power, instead of using our resources to build the railway proper, he subsidized the Canada Central $1,440,000, and proposed to add the unnecessary Georgian Bay Branch and 65 miles of railway on Vancouver Island, at a cost of several millions more! The latter was opposed by Blake, and thrown out by the Senate.

The Minister of Militia on Active Service.

To the Editor of the Daily Reporter and Times:

SIR.—The Minister of Militia went to the meeting at South East Passage last night, under the protection of a body guard of two volunteers in uniform and with rifles in their hands. These gentlemen as long as they behaved themselves were tolerated; but when Jones attempted to usurp the largest part of the time the people hissed and hooted and would not hear him, whereupon Mr. Jones' soldiers prepared to use their rifles in his behalf, but they were soon disarmed and put out of the building, and Jones in a short time was glad to follow suit. This was not the only mischief to the Minister. On arriving in Dartmouth, he found that he was too late for the boat and went to the Post Office. The Postmaster, taking him for a burglar, hid a bottle at his head; but after hearing him address the Recorder recognized the familiar baritone, and went down and took him in. Jones apologized and the Postmaster apologized openly, but inwardly wished him at Jericho.

Jones for some time has imagined that he was growing like Bismarck, and has got Baker of the “Mayflower” to take his portrait in the last “Mayflower.” But that wily dog in doing so was cute enough to put the picture of the beautiful P. C. Hill's alongside of it. Jones is distributing Hill's cartoon and his own picture personally through the rural districts.

SYDNEY COAL.

REDUCTION IN PRICE!

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

THE GENERAL MINING ASSOCIATION (Limited) beg to intimate to the Public that the price of SYDNEY COAL has been Reduced to $2 per ton of 2240 lbs., a price which it is hoped will place it within the reach of all consumers.

The opening of the new winning at “THE SYDNEY MINES” and the fact that the SYDNEY COAL now being shipped is all from the DEEP taken in connection with recent improvements in the process of screening, affords purchasers a positive guarantee of the very superior quality and condition of the SYDNEY COAL now offered for sale.

It is a well-known fact that for many years past the prices of other Cape Breton coals have been regulated by the rates fixed for SYDNEY COAL; but while it is true that other coals, to get a sale at all, have been pressed on the market at various prices under the current rate of SYDNEY COAL, it is no less true that, taking into account the superior lasting qualities of SYDNEY COAL when compared with other Cape Breton coals, the advantage, both as to economy and convenience, is in favor of SYDNEY COAL, even at a much higher price.

The General Mining Association (Limited) regret that they should again have to caution the Public against the attempts being made from time to time to induce them to buy inferior coals purporting to be “EQUAL TO SYDNEY,” “SUPERIOR TO SYDNEY,” etc., etc., while some yet more unscrupulous vendors have not hesitated to advertise their coal as SYDNEY COAL (from some designated locality). All these efforts to sell coal by such means are only so many admissions on the part of those who make them of the STANDARD character of SYDNEY COAL.

It has come to the knowledge of the Association that in frequent instances parties giving orders to truckmen and others for SYDNEY COAL have been furnished with other and inferior coal. The Public are cautioned against permitting themselves to be imposed upon in this way.

Every vessel loaded at THE SYDNEY MINES is furnished with a certificate of the cargo being Sydney Coal. Parties purchasing should satisfy themselves by DEMANDING the production of this certificate.

The “Sydney Coal” is registered under the laws of the Dominion, and unauthorized parties using the Trade Mark “SYDNEY COAL” are liable to prosecution.
