

Bookies Groan Race Today Will Be A Nightmare

By JOHN FARROW
NEWMARKET, England (AP) — The bookies groaned Tuesday, as usual, that today's running of the Cambridge horse race will be a nightmare.
Success for favorite Aggressor or second favorite Babur in the nine-furlong race over a turf course would mean a heavy payoff by the bookies.
Both colts have been bracketed in doubles worth thousands of pounds with Morecombe, winner of the Cesarewitch Oct. 16.
"The Cesarewitch victory of Morecombe has involved bookmakers in such heavy liabilities over the autumn double that they have been unloading money to Aggressor and Babur to restrict their losses," Captain Joe said in the London Star. "Consequently these horses are at false odds." The autumn double is based on the Cesarewitch and Cambridge shires. Bettors try to couple the winners of both races.

LAST FLING
The Cambridge horse provides British bettors with their last big fling of the season. The last Irish sweepstakes of the year also are based on the race.
Thirty-five horses are still entered, but only 33 are expected to start at 10:40 a.m. A.D. French-trained Daffodil and Nemenin are unlikely to race.
Aggressor was 11-to-2 favorite at Tuesday night's betting call-over by London's top bookies. Babur was 7-to-1 and Midlander, 100-to-9 at Monday night's callover, shortened to 9-to-1.
Probable runners are London Cry, Babur, Guernsey, Epaulette, Empire Way, Cash and Courage.

Faith Healer, Legal Tie, Aggressor, Carbon Copy, Amos, Falls of Shin, Old King Cole, Loppylugs, Cool Debate, Royal Chief, Cheviot Hills, Radiopye, Midlander, Judicature, Allwood, Tford, Colours, Brancusi, Well Spoke, Master of Bouyden, Marshal Pils, Hedonist, Pouchinello, Toddhurst, Nero's Love, Liza Gobbin, and Fulminate.
The Cambridge horse is notorious for gambles that misfire. It's 30 years since a favorite won the race.

EVERY GAME IS KEY ONE

Gale Kerwin To Hang Up Gloves For A While

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian welterweight boxing champion Gale Kerwin says he is hanging up his gloves for a while to fight an anemic condition.
The 23-year-old veteran of 37 professional fights said in an interview with The Citizen he is retiring on doctor's advice.
The Ottawa native, who has been fighting out of Valley Stream, N.Y., said: "I'm staying off six months. Then we'll see how I feel."
Kerwin, who became known to fans for cartwheels he made around the ring after winning a bout, lost his last fight by a wide margin to Frankie Ryff in Washington Oct. 3. That was his first Friday night television appearance.
In his pro career he won 30 bouts, lost six and drew one.

Ortiz Outpoints Dave Charnley

LONDON (AP) — Lightweight contender Carlos Ortiz of New York ended a long streak of American boxing defeats abroad by outpointing British champion Dave Charnley in a 10-round bout at Harringway Arena Tuesday night.
The 22-year-old Puerto Rican-born fighter opened cuts over both of Charnley's eyes in the fifth and sixth rounds and won handily. Ortiz weighed 135½, Charnley, 134½.
Ortiz is ranked fourth contender by both the American National Boxing Association and Ring magazine. Charnley, 23, is ranked third by the Ring and seventh by the NBA.
A sellout crowd of 11,000, including many boxing celebrities, saw the final boxing program at Harringway Arena. The 22-year-old sports palace becomes a warehouse today.
RICHARDSON WINS
In other featured 10-round bouts, Welsh heavyweight Dick Richardson, 207, outpointed Garvin Sawyer, 194, of Cincinnati, and Pat Supplee, 118½, Canada, outpointed Dal Dower, 119½, Wales.
Ortiz' victory helped restore some of the fading U.S. boxing prestige on this side of the Atlantic. In the last six weeks, three Yank heavyweight contenders—Eddie Machen, Willie Partrano and Zora Foley—were upset by European fighters.
A group of former ring stars who fought in Harringway were introduced. They included former heavyweight champion Max Baer and Welshman Tommy Farr, who met in the first fight at Harringway in 1937; Henry Armstrong, the onetime triple champion; and former light heavyweight champion Gus Lesnevich of the U.S. and Tommy Mills of England.

Attend Meeting Of Auto Racers

LONDON (AP) — World champion driver Mike Hawthorn and runnerup Stirling Moss Tuesday attended a meeting of auto racing officials to discuss the controversial problem of a new formula for grand prix racing. The meeting will last two days.
Germany, Italy, Britain, the United States, Holland, Belgium and Monaco had representatives at the session.
The current grand prix formula limits cars to an engine capacity of 2½ litres unsupercharged. It is due to expire at the end of 1960. If the meeting fails to reach a decision on a new formula, the 2½-litre limit will be continued for another year.
Britain, whose Vanwall won six grand prix this season, wants the current formula to be continued. Italy and France reportedly want a limit of 1½ litres. The United States, preparing for a move into European racing, wants the formula limit increased.

Top IFU Ground Gainer Property Of Rough Riders

TORONTO (CP) — Pete Joyce, the top ground gainer in the Senior Intercollegiate football Union this year, is already the property of Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four and won't be eligible for the college draft.
Joyce, 21-year-old fullback with University of Toronto's Varsity Blues, signed his Canadian Rugby Union card with Ottawa last fall. The 210-pound player who has averaged 6.2 yards in 84 carries in Varsity's five victories this season would probably have been one of the top choices in the annual draft of college players.
"I'm not sure I want to play pro football," Joyce said Monday night, "but if I do it will be at Ottawa."

INDICATIONS ARE that a five-team Island Hockey League will operate this coming winter.
At least that was the conclusion after nearly three hours of wrangling the other night at the Sports Arena. All the business that was done could have been accomplished in five minutes but the boys preferred the long, drawn-out style of meeting and just talked and talked.

SUMMERSIDE and Saint Dunstan's are still in the loop. They both agreed at the first meeting that they would go along with an Island League. However, the western boys were nearly shelved when a few Charlottetown spokesmen played up what they termed advantages of a City League. The suggestion gained support from some quarters but finally the meeting got back to the idea of an Island League, with Summerside a participant.
It was felt that a four-team league was not big enough for the successful operation of the loop. So the boys got down to work figuring the possibilities of three teams from the Charlottetown area, excluding Saint Dunstan's. Finally it was decided to have all interested players in this area register with George Gregory, Bill Ledwell or this columnist and from that list draw up the three local outfits.

THE STEERING COMMITTEE, appointed a week earlier, said that they had made a list of available players in and around Charlottetown and they were certain that no trouble would be encountered forming three evenly-balanced teams. Promoters or prospective promoters of teams in this area were agreed that the pooling of Charlottetown players was the best method to insure the proper balancing of teams.
All interested players should get their names into one of the three persons mentioned above before next Sunday when team representatives and steering committee members meet.
There still can be a lot of fun this coming winter if everybody tries to co-operate. But if there isn't a little bit of give-and-take the league could fall into evil ways.
One thing is certain. All players who were present expressed a willingness to play hockey this season. Perhaps willingness is not the word; it probably should be desire. They'll get their desire if everyone tries his level best to make this loop a success. If they don't pitch in, it could be a short season for local hockey.
Let's see players and promoters put this league over in a big way.

IT'S HARDLY the time to be talking baseball but we thought these few facts we ran into would be interesting to our readers.
It has been taken more or less for granted that big league pitchers can't hit. That's true in many cases but in many more, nothing could be farther from being right.
Big Don Newcombe, who started the season with Los Angeles Dodgers and wound up with the Cincinnati Redlegs, paced the mound-men as far as batting was concerned. Big Newk hit .361.
Milwaukee's Warren Spahn collected the most hits, 36, and tied teammate Lew Burdette for the runs-batted-in lead with 15 apiece. Lew also was the only hurler to hit a grand-slam home run. Lew also socked two circuit blows in one game for the second time in his career. That tied a National League record that had been set by Newcombe.
Don Perfect Game Larsen was the only moundman to hit a pinch-hit round tripper. Don was also tops as far as batting average was concerned among American League pitchers. He hit .306.

DON DRYSDALE of the Los Angeles Dodgers slammed out seven home runs to tie a National League record set by Don Newcombe of Brooklyn Dodgers in 1955. Wes Ferrell holds the big league record of nine for one season.
In the junior circuit, Baltimore's Jack Harshman was the home run leader with six. He had 14 runs batted in.
This Newcombe has some fine hitting statistics to go along with his pitching feats. He boasts a .270 lifetime batting average a eight seasons. His home run output is 12 and he has driven in 85 runs.
Spahn ranked second to Newcombe this past season in the hitting lists with a .333 average. He accumulated six doubles, one triple and two homers.
No, these pitchers are not all soft touches. Not by any means.

DETROIT RED WINGS, who had a really bad weekend, are endeavouring to do something which they hope will prevent repetitions of what happened last Saturday and Sunday nights.
They've sent out calls to their farm system and as a result two new players will be reporting to the Red Wings' camp. They are Tom McCarthy, 24, a leftwinger from Hershey Bears in the American Hockey League and Charlie Holmes, 24, rightwinger for Edmonton Oil Kings in the Western Hockey League.
That meant that two lefts in the Detroit club, Dunc Fisher and Gerry Elman, all-star wingers in the American Hockey League last season, went to Hershey. Don Poile of the Bears went to the Oil Kings to replace Holmes.

TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS and Montreal Canadiens play tonight at Toronto. This will be the first meeting at the Gardens between the two clubs and no doubt seats will be at a premium for this big clash.
The Leafs lost to the Stanley Cup champions in Montreal on October 16 but they put on a good show before bowing 4-3. They'll give it everything tonight to make it three home victories in a row. On Saturday, October 18 they edged Boston Bruins in a last Saturday they blanked the Detroit Red Wings. That third win couldn't come at a better time for the Toronto club than this evening. It's always nice to win hockey games but when wins come at the expense of the powerful Montrealers they are even sweeter.
Leafs need the win in the worst way. They have only two victories in seven starts. They must get moving before they find themselves with too much to make up.
We'll call it for the Leafs tonight.

Cardinals Blast Japan All Stars
SAPPORO, Jaan (AP) — St. Louis Cardinals bombarded four Japanese pitchers for 10 hits, including a three-run homer by first baseman Joe Cunningham, and defeated the Japan all-stars 9-1 Tuesday.
Redbird starter Bob Blaylock gave up only two hits, one of them an inside the park circuit clout, in seven innings. Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell finished up, allowing one hit.
The National Leagueers came back with a vengeance to make up for their 6-3 defeat Monday—the only one thus far in the four games played in their 16-game tour of Japan.

VANCOUVER (CP) — The British Columbia Federation of Labor has endorsed the strike action against International Nickel Co. in Ontario, although the union involved has been expelled from organized labor in Canada. An emergency resolution at the windup session of the federation Saturday told the federation "profoundly regrets that the Inco workers are not members of the family of organized labor in Canada."

Packers Help From Dutchmen

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — Kelowna Packers, who leave for Europe in 10 days to play a series of exhibition hockey games in Sweden and Russia, "ave asked Kitchener Waterloo Dutchmen for player help. It was learned Tuesday.
Dr. Mel Butler, executive member of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association arranging the Kelowna trip, telephoned Dutchmen manager Ernie Goman Monday night. Dutchmen play in the Ontario Hockey Association—Northern Ontario Hockey Association Senior A Series.
Goman said Tuesday Butler asked for the loan of centre Ken Lauffman and Bill Wylie for the three-week tour.
"We are only allowed to carry 15 men this year. Already we have one man injured. How can we carry out our commitments to our own fans and the league if we let anyone else leave?"
Jack MacKenzie, Dutchmen forward who flew to Kelowna last weekend to study the team's strength for the CAHA, said Tuesday the Packers need about six players.
The club is weak down the centre and "unless they strengthen they are going to have a lot of trouble."
The wingers and netminder looked good and the team is well-conditioned, he said.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Great interest is being taken by horsemen in the Harrisburg Sale, which opens next Monday. Claims are made that this will be one of the best since it was instituted. Quite a number of Marimars are planned to attend, and no doubt we will see a number of new trotters and pacers brought in to make our races of 1959 more interesting.
For those who would care to buy a yearling, there are some magnificent specimens in the catalogue, with probably the best being those consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms. One of them is the Blaze Hanover, a chestnut colt by Hot Mon, dam Beverly Hanover, half brother to winners of $165,000 and among those mentioned is Blake Hanover, p. 2, 09, 1, 2, 09 4-5, both records taken on a half-mile track; Blake Hanover is now owned by Stanley Mayhew, Kinkora, P.E.I. and he had a good winning streak this season. Harvey worked out Monday with Montreal Royals of the Quebec Hockey League and skated alone Tuesday.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Los Angeles was chosen Tuesday as the site for Virgil Akins' first defence of his world welterweight boxing title against Don Jordan Dec. 5. It was announced.
No financial terms were disclosed but it is expected the television and radio rights will add $50,000 to a hoped-for gate of $75,000.

CANE FUTURITY

In the latest Harness horse issue, Leonard Levin gives an excellent description of what happened in the W.H. Cane Futurity three-year-old pace, purse $60,457.50, raced at Yonkers the night of October 13. A very unexpected happening occurred, as he describes:
"An unwanted driver and an overlooked horse tonight combined for a world's record in the third jewel of pacing's Triple Crown—the Cane Futurity. Hughie Bell and Raider Frost formed the perfect team as Toppid's 2:09 1-5 mile and a sixteenth clocking for three-year-old pacers on a (Continued on page 8)

Saint Dunstan's Juniors Beat City Collegians 21-6

Father Frank Ledwell's Saint Dunstan's Junior Varsity football squad is one game up in the hunt for the Prince Edward Island intermediate championship.
Yesterday afternoon in a downpour of rain, the Red and White Juniors hung a 21-6 defeat on the Prince of Wales College squad. It was the first game between the teams in a best of three series. Saint Dunstan's had won an exhibition tilt last week 13-0.

For the first half yesterday, it looked as though the Welshmen were about to break into the White column. They led 6-2 at the game's mid-way mark after picking up their first touchdown since going over to the Canadian game. But they weren't able to score back a determined S.D.U. gang in the final half and victory once more eluded them.

Saint Dunstan's roared to the attack in the last frame and came up with three touchdowns, one of which was converted. White Saints were accomplishing this, the City Collegians had to be content with the six points they mustered in the first stanza.

The boys from 'out the road' went in front 2-0, the result of safety touch by Dick Tingley early in the first quarter. But 'Mac' MacDonald's last hour-of-back, took possession of the ball on S.D.U.'s five-yard line from where Ralph Russell ploughed over the game's first touchdown. That ended the scoring for the first half and sent the Red and White crew off for the rest period determined to make amends in the pretty fair job of carrying out their plans as they controlled play most of the session. Ray Hache put the Saints in front 8-6 after a 10-yard end run. Ray was back for another touchdown a short time later, plunging over from the one-yard line. Neither convert was good.

Fullback John O'Keefe pulled off the game's outstanding play racing all the way from his own 35 to notch the afternoon's final major. Ray Hache's boot for the extra point was good.

Saint Dunstan's picked up three first downs during the afternoon. Welshmen eight. The winners recovered on four occasions and fumbled two of them. P.C. were guilty on two occasions and recovered both times.

Bad playing conditions made both teams stick strictly to the ground. Each tried only one pass, and on both occasions they were incomplete. Yardage penalties were 30 to 10, with the Saints the greater offender.

Officials were: Gil Collins, Paul Arsenault and Pete Lavasseur
