Imaginations

Welcome to the newest addition to this publication, the world of Imaginations. In this section I hope to fill your mind with creative works such as original prose (maximum approximately 1000 words), poetry and fictional inspirations. However this world of imaginations is artificial until we are able to give it a life. Therefore I need your help to bestow this world the life it deserves by sending me your creative works. For legal reasons it is necessary for you to sign your name on your work. If you have no wish to print your name, please tell me. You can send me your work through the VAX computer at account GEM, or else you can put your work in the slot in our office door at the basement of Main Building. I look forward to your help and reading your submissions.

Students Urged to Enter Poetry Contest

The deadline for the American Poetry Association's contest is September 30.

The contest is open to everyone, and entry is free. The Grand Prize is $1,000, and the First Prize $500. There are 152 prizes worth $11,000 in all.

"Every student who writes poetry should enter this contest. The judges look for new and unknown poets, and students often win," said Robert Nelson, publisher for the association. "You don't have to be a professional poet. Your sincerity, originality and feeling are what the judges look for."

Poets should send one original poem, no more than 20 lines, name and address on the top of the page, to American Poetry Association, Dept. CO-84, 250-A Potrero St., P.O. Box 1803, Santa Cruz, CA 95061. Entries must be postmarked by September 30. A new contest opens October 1.
