PEAK'S NO. 3 WHARF.

JANUARY 7th. THE DAILY EXAMINER.

This Evening.

We are offering this evening astonishing bargains in Hosiery. Call and see them. The yarn alone would cost you more money than we offer good black cashmere hose for.

Weldon's Dressmaker.—This season, as last, cloth dresses decidedly take the lead, and are combined with silk in the Binescoire style for day-wear, whilst for evening Directoire coats of fancy flowered or striped silks are worn over lace skirts.

This Evening.

Having secured a genuine bargain in Ladies' Cashmere Gloves, we will offer the same this evening at a price never before heard of in the city.

Want to Wear.—Feathers are more used in Millinery than for a long time past, long feathers encircle the crown and indeed almost cover some of the large hat, whilst feather borderings are to be bought ready for edging the brims of hats.

Stock-Taking.

The price we are offering the balance of our Ladies' Ulsters, Jackets and Dolmans at is less than ordinary cost of material. Care Jackets for $2.75, heavy Ulsters for $2.50 and all other lines proportionately cheap. In fact the prices are ridiculously low.

Weldon's Dressmaker.—Short seal and seal-ette jackets are to be much worn this winter with either tight fitting or loose fronts, the basque rather deep in front, but sloping up considerably towards the back, which always has a stylish appearance.

Stock-Taking.

Remember our offering of Children's Ulsters, Dresses and Wraps at a jiffy usual price. We are determined to make a complete clearance before taking stock.

Weldon's Dressmaker.—The Empire and Directoire styles are steadily increasing in popularity and will, without doubt, gain still greater favor as the season advances, especially the latter which is so well suited to the heavy and handsome goods now shown, while the Empire style is so pretty for delicate and soft fabrics intended for party and theatre wear.

We have still a small quantity of the new and handsome tinsel trimmings for dresses in stock. Ladies returning this—the latest and leading trimming—will do well to secure it at once.

Ordered Dress Goods promise to be the leading thing for next spring. Ladies who secured this line from last fall will be one season ahead of their friends. No effort will be spared to secure for our customers the most correct and becoming styles in fashionable Dress Goods, Spring 1889.

JANUARY 7, 1889.

The Mails—A Nineteenth Century Triumph.

HER Majesty's mails arrived in Charlottetown this forenoon in about forty-six hours from Pictou. The United States and New Brunswick mails had previously lain at Pictou eighteen or nineteen hours. So that from their arrival in Pictou until their arrival in Charlottetown there elapsed about sixty-five hours, or only a little less than three days. Truly, this may be regarded as a nineteenth century triumph! Pictou is thirty-five miles from Georgetown, and Georgetown forty-six miles (by rail) from Charlottetown. Eighty miles in three days! This is rapid transit!

We have a Clyde-built steamer, costing $150,000, and a well-equipped railway. But even these would not be equal to such a magnificent triumph, if it were not for the management!

The "Patriot" to the Rescue.

The Patriot tries to defend the Postmaster General against the indignation of the Liberal-Conservatives of this Province. It declares that "the idea of John Haggart playing into Grit hands is intensely amusing," etc. Amusing it may be to the Grits. They usually laugh who win; and the inaction of John Haggart is just what is calculated to make the Grits of this Province win. Mr. Welch may not have mesmerised him—though his presence in Ottawa while the Province is being illustrated in respect to its mails,—taken in connection with his frequent boast that he is Mr. Haggart's "chum"—is a very suspicious circumstance.

Some Light.

THE Patriot affords some light regarding the mystery of the mails. It has announced that "Mr. L. H. Davies telegraphed his colleague, Mr. Welsh, in the strongest possible terms, etc. Now it is well known in Ottawa (as it is here) that when Mr. L. H. Davies uses the "strongest possible language," there is usually very little ground for it. It is, therefore, not improbable that the Post Office authorities inferred, on receipt of Mr. Davies' "vigorous telegram," that he "didn't mean it," and so delayed to order the special train which the Post Office Inspector and the Board of Trade and the whole community required for the prompt transmission of the mails. If this be the fact it is to be regretted, and Mr. L. H. Davies had better have restrained his strong language or refrained from sending his telegram. The simple statement of the plain facts, as made by THE EXAMINER, ought to have been sufficient to move the postal authorities to provide a special train at once; it would, no doubt, have been so but for Mr. Davies' interference.

Mr. Sanderson's Will.

THE last will and testament of William Sanderson, Esquire, late Deputy Prothonotary for King's County, was filed in the Probate Court to-day. The document bears date the sixth of March, 1881, and is witnessed by G. A. Aitken, William Allen and John Haggart, all of Georgetown. It consists of thirteen paragraphs and contains the following devises and bequests:—

1st—The Testator gives to his grandson, William Sanderson Easton, all his real estate in Georgetown.

2nd—A bequest of $2,800 to his son-in-law, James Easton, and his wife, Ellen Easton.

3rd—A bequest to Ellen Easton, his granddaughter, of a life interest in $2,000 in the Savings Bank, and at her death the principal to go to the Society for the propagation of the Gospel in foreign parts.

4th—A bequest of a life interest in $2,000 to testator's granddaughter, Mary Easton; at her death, $1,000 thereof to go to the Church Missionary Society, and the remaining $1,000 to the Diocesan Church Society of this Island.

5th—A bequest of $1,000 to the British and Foreign Bible Society.

6th—A bequest of $2,000 towards an endowment fund for Trinity Church, Georgetown; two-thirds of the annual interest to go towards the clergyman's salary, and the balance of the annual interest to the Lay Reader.

7th—To the Public Hospital in Charlottetown, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

8th—Two hundred dollars towards the promotion of Christianity among the Jews.

9th—Three hundred dollars to testator's housekeeper, Sarah Campbell.

10th—Fifty dollars to late servant, Matilda Campbell; twenty-five dollars to late servant, Alice Hughes, and the same to Susan Evans, also a late servant.

11th—$200 towards the erection of a temperance hall in Charlottetown.

12th—To the Drummond Tract Society of Stirling, Scotland, G. B., $50.

13th—A bequest of $100 to Miss Hannah E. Aitken, of Georgetown, for her valuable services in the choir of Trinity Church, Georgetown.

The testator finally makes his grandson, William Sanderson Easton, sole residuary legatee of the estate, and appoints four gentlemen his executors.

Probate of the will has, however, been granted to but one of them, namely, James Easton, of Georgetown.

JAMES PATON & Co. offer a fine assortment of overcoats, referees and suits. Their prices for quality cannot be beaten.

Local and Other Items.

HAPPY CHRISTMAS.—St. Louis gave $10,000 to her poor on Xmas Day.

THE STANLEY is plying as usual between Georgetown and Pictou to-day.

HOSPITAL WORK.—The work on a $10,000 foundation for the Stratford, Ont., hospital will be commenced shortly.

A RIGHT MOVE.—The Trenton, Ont., property owners have voted $28,267 to improve the water power within the limits of the town.

COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON.—The Lord Mayor of London and the Mayor of New York exchanged New Year greetings by phonograph.

OWING to the good value James Paton & Co. are giving in referees and overcoats their stock is selling fast. If you want to get a good bargain try them.

As soon as you discover any falling of the hair or grayness always use Hall's Hair Renewer to tone up the secretions and prevent baldness or grayness.

LAST VESSEL FROM SOULIS.—The schooner Katie, 131 tons, sailed on Saturday morning, 5th January, with 5,577 bush. oats, 2,550 bush. potatoes, and 21 carcasses pork; value, $2,800. Shipped by J. G. Sterns.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Harlow called at Souris yesterday (Sunday) on her way to the Magdalen Islands with mails, etc. She returns to-day, and, after taking in cargo at Souris, will leave for Halifax and Boston.

HILLSBOROUGH RINK.—There was a large attendance of skaters at the rink on Saturday afternoon. The ice was in good condition. The music furnished by the Band of the 82nd Battalion was excellent.

The weakness and debility which result from illness may be speedily overcome by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is a safe but powerful tonic, assists digestion, regulates the liver and kidneys, and cleanses the blood of all germs of disease.

COMMENDED.—A Snakin despatch says that at parade recently the Egyptian officers and men were especially commended by the Khedive for bravery in the recent battle. Gen. Grenfell made an address and presented the men with gratuities.

The best astringent and expectorant for the cure of colds and coughs and all throat, lung, and bronchial troubles, is, undoubtedly, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your druggist for it, and, at the same time, for Ayer's Almanac, which is free to all.

RAPID TRANSIT.—The mails which arrived in Georgetown, in the Stanley, on Saturday afternoon, were brought to Charlottetown by regular train this (Monday) forenoon. Yet there are some people who say that this is not an age of progress!

HEROISM REWARDED.—The Hull life-saving crew, who did such noble work in the November storm, were presented with nearly $5,000 in money and the Humane Society's medals, recently. The Boston chamber of commerce was crowded during the presentation.

FAILURES OF THREE YEARS.—Bradstreet's summary of failures in the United States shows the following comparisons:—Failures in 1888, 10,587, against 9,740 in 1887 and 10,568 in 1886. Total actual assets in 1888, $61,999,911; in 1887, $64,651,000; in 1886, $55,819,173. General liabilities in 1888, $120,242,402; in 1887, $130,605,000; in 1886, $113,648,291. Per cent. of assets to liabilities in 1888, 52; in 1887, 49; in 1886, 49.

WITH NEATNESS AND DESPATCH.—A jeweller at Searle, W. T., locked his shop door and went home to lunch. On returning he was surprised to find that during the forty minutes of absence thieves had gone under the house, bored a hole through the floor, and carried off everything in sight. The building was situated on piles, and the thieves had built a platform on which to stand.

MOTHERS who have delicate children can see them daily improve and gain in flesh and strength by giving them that perfect food and medicine, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Dr. W. A. Hulbert, of Salisbury, Ill., says: "I have used Scott's Emulsion in cases of scrofula and debility. Results most gratifying. My little patients take it with pleasure." Sold by all Druggists; 50c. and $1.00.

BRINGING IN WATER.—Liverpool, Eng., needed an additional water supply, and the Government went into Wales, seventy miles away, and bought a large valley, including the village of Llanwyddyn. This valley is now being filled with a body of water five miles long and eighty-four feet deep. It is understood that all the houses, the church, two chapels, tavern, and post office remain as they were, and are gradually being submerged under the collecting water that pours into the valley. A new village has been built near by, and all the Llanwyddyns have been moved to it.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April 1888)

Those requiring mourning goods will find a large stock at Stanley Bros. See their ad. in another column.

Spring Delivery.—Hamburg Embroideries, Swiss Embroideries, just opened, Harris & Stewart.
