Kensington and Vicinity

—Mr. Will Fraser of Toronto, who is visiting friends and relatives in Millvale and Hope River was a visitor to Summerside and the races last week. Mr. Fraser has been many years absent from his island home.

—Mr. J. Edward Turner of Hope River, was an interested spectator at the Summerside races. Mr. Turner is one of the many breeders of Island racing stock. He shipped a valuable Kalmuck colt to a Bangor, Me., buyer last year.

—Mr. Russell Rogers, Coleman, and two granddaughters were interested spectators at the races on Saturday night.

—Mr. Henry Doyle, proprietor of the Bernard House, Tignish, was a visitor to Summerside on Saturday. Mr. Doyle has quite a flair for poetry and can quote Burns fluently. He is particularly interested in the resuscitation of old time songs and ballads, inaugurated by Lord Beaverbrook (Max. Aitken of Newcastle). Mr. Doyle says that a complete volume of Larry Gorman's (the Island Songster's) poems may be obtained by writing the Bangor, Me., library. Greater interest has been aroused in the old-time "chanty" songs, since some famous maestro has elected to incorporate the beautiful lament, "Peter Emberly", into grand opera.

—The many friends of Rev. Patrick Walsh, pastor of Palmer Road parish, will be pleased to learn that he has returned from Victoria General Hospital in Montreal much improved in health, and is able to attend to daily duties.

—Mrs. Wesley Foster, Kensington, was a visitor to the western part of the Province on Wednesday (last) and attended the lobster festival at Lot 7.

—Dr. William L. MacLellan and Mrs. MacLellan, William Jr. and daughter Mary, are visiting at Indian River, where they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hickey. Miss Mary is a teacher in one of the Boston schools.

—Miss Geraldine Fisher of West Roxbury is visiting friends and relatives in Kensington and King's County. While in Kensington she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Saunders.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wesley MacLean and children Jimmie and Barbara are at present on a short visit to P. E. Island. While in Kensington they are guests of Mr. MacLean's uncle, Mr. J. L. Saunders. Mr. MacLean is a grandson of the former proprietor of the MacLean House in Alberton. He is now an employee of the Mahady Drug and Chemical Company of Boston.

—Mr. Alfred Hennessey of Charlottetown, who is a student at the University of Manitoba, accompanied by the Misses Kay and Betty Smith of Charlottetown, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Saunders, Kensington, on Sunday evening.

—Mr. Willie Peery of Palmer Road and family were visitors to Lot 7 on Wednesday.

—Mr. Art Rodgers of Charlottetown was a business visitor to Alberton on Tuesday.

—The many friends of John Duggan, popular mail courier on the Kensington-Malpeque route, are glad to see him around and about again after getting a heavy fall from his mail wagon. The accident was caused by a bird flying out of a mail box, which terrified his horse, which jumped so violently that Mr. Duggan was thrown heavily to the ground and rendered "hors du combat" for over a week.
