ON 25TH VISIT—Mr. S. N. MacWilliams of Anesbury, Mass., was a visitor in town last Thursday. He has been visiting relatives in Port Elgin en route to his old home in Charlottetown, P. E. I. Mr. MacWilliams left for United States 51 years ago, and this is his 25th trip back to the home town. —Sackville Tribune.

SUDDEN DEATH — Relatives and friends were shocked to hear of the sudden death yesterday of Mr. Patrick Lamb of Springfield. Apparently in his usual health when retiring on Monday night, Mr. Lamb was suddenly stricken and had passed away, when his son went to call him yesterday morning. Besides his son, Mr. Herman Lamb with whom he resided he leaves one daughter, Sister Mary Almada of St. Paul's Minnesota, to whom sympathy is extended.

Presentation And Address

On Friday evening, August 11th, a large number of friends and well-wishers gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Matheson, Clyde River, in honor of their recent marriage.

Mr. Edward MacPhail very capably acted as chairman, and after a few introductory remarks called upon Miss Joyce Darrah and Mr. Robert D. Matheson, who were married in the presence of their friends.

After singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" the remainder of the evening was spent in music, singing and social intercourse. During the evening delicious cake and ice cream was served by the ladies present. With the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "The King" a most enjoyable evening was brought to a close. The following is the address:

To Robert and Mrs. Matheson:— We, the people of Clyde River are gathered here this evening to extend best wishes to you because of your recent marriage. Some one has said "to be born and to die" are the greatest events in one's life but to marry is surely equally important. We are grateful that this great occasion affords us an opportunity to come and endeavor to tell you how much we appreciate you and how very necessary and important you are and will be to the community life of Clyde River. Serving, as you do, a critical and often impatient center of the paved roads others will visit the house of the law. Drivers are driving too fast, especially at night.

A visitor to the Exhibition last week reported that all the air was let out of his tires while he attended the night show and on leaving the City he was obliged to call at the service station. When cars are locked there is nothing left to steal but the air.

Mr. Justin McCarthy was a visitor here last week.

Friends of Mrs. Lester McEwen are pleased to see her out again after her long illness.
