Vacation Bible School Held At North Tryon

The sixteenth Daily Vacation Bible School was held in the North Tryon Presbyterian Church with an enrollment of 87 under the leadership of Miss Mary A. MacKenzie, deaconess, assisted by the following teachers, Mrs. Harry Patterson, Mrs. Clifton MacDougall, Mrs. Billus Cairns, Mrs. Sydney Dawson, Mrs. Lloyd Howatt, Mrs. John Nicholson, Patricia Patterson, Judy Thomas and Elmer MacDonald. Mrs. Arthur Thomson had charge of the music.

During the week, morning sessions were held, when worship Bible study, memory work and singing were eagerly participated in by the members of the school, varying in age from 4 to 16.

On Friday afternoon the school picnic was held at Hampton Beach and was enjoyed not only by the students but by a number of parents as well. Swimming was enjoyed and a delicious lunch served by the ladies followed by a generous treat of ice cream.

On Saturday evening a number of the Bible school teachers gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson. Mrs. Clifton MacDougall, expressed appreciation to Miss MacKenzie for her valuable leadership of the school and on behalf of the teachers, presented her with a beautiful gift.

The school concluded with a service on Sunday morning, conducted by Miss MacKenzie, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Thomson, organist. A large choir of vacation Bible School students led in the service of praise, and also rendered an Anthem, and choruses learned through the week.

Certificates were presented to a large number of students.

HAZE DISTORTS TARGETS

With a foggy haze distorting the targets at the 200-yard firing mound, three of the fifty marksmen are seen settling down to compete in the DeBlois Bros. match. This was the opening competition yesterday morning in the three-day annual prize shoot being run-off at Squaw Point Range.

Room For Improvements Says Carnival Committee

SUMMERSIDE - Summerside's fourth annual Lobster Carnival and exhibition was reported to be a "tremendous success" at last evening's initial post-carnival meeting of the central committee, presided over by Roy Johnston.

Carnival director Charles Hogan reported the four-day event as being highly successful and added that the show was dependent on two things, the weather and the co-operation of all those in responsible positions.

Mr. Hogan presented his criticisms as well as his numerous bouquets for the many who took part in the carnival and also enumerated several suggestions for improving the show next year.

One of these was the construction of a new building in which the lobster suppers would be held away from the exhibits and other functions that take place in the Stadium.

Mr. Hogan stressed the need for early formation of committees and organization for next year's event.

Amos Hubley, board of trade president congratulated Mr. Hogan on his report.

More car by far per dollar

You can buy an Edsel for less money than you'd pay for many models of the "low-priced three". And look at the extras you get at no extra cost: distinctive styling • big-car ride and performance • big, safe, self-adjusting brakes • thick luxurious wall-to-wall carpeting • safety-padded instrument panel • self-regulating electric clock • foam rubber front seat • full-flow oil filter • and there are many many others. Now's the time to make the smartest buy—EDEL 6 or V-8.
