Missing—so many are missing. The old as well as the young. The poor and the rich together. The weak alike with the strong. Missing—our loved ones wander. We never know how or where. And pass from our sight as surely As smoke fades into the air.

Do—Addressed to Mothers.

Do remember that other people have children as well as yourself. Do believe in a child's statements until you are sure they are incorrect; mistrust breeds estrangement. Do reflect that a pert child is an abomination; train your children to be respectful and to hold their tongues in the presence of their superiors. Do, if a baby cries, warm its feet before you dose it. Do sing to the little ones; the memory of a nursery song will cling to them through life. Do attend to them yourself; a go-between between mother and child is like a middle man in business, who gets the largest share of the profits. Do dress the children sensibly; cover up their limbs in winter, and study health diet and appearance. Do show the children that you love them, do not expect them to take it on trust. Do, as they grow older, win their confidence; if you do not, someday else will. Do maintain a respectful tone to their father before them; if he is not all you wish, still make them respect him; he is always their father, and disrespect to him is a reflection upon yourself. Do, as the boys grow up, make companions of them; then they will not seek companionship elsewhere. Do let the children make a noise sometimes; their happiness is as important as your nerves. Do respect their little secrets; if they have confidences, worrying them will never make them tell, and time and patience will probably do their work. Do allow them, as they grow older, to have opinions of their own; make them individuals and not mere echoes. Do remember that without physical health mental attainment is worthless; let them lead free, happy lives, which will strengthen both mind and body. Do bear in mind that you are largely responsible for your child's inherited character, and have patience with faults and failings. Do talk hopefully to your children of life and its possibilities; you have no right to depress them because you have suffered. Do teach both boys and girls the actual facts of life as soon as they are old enough to understand them, and give them a sense of responsibility without saddening them. Do find out what their special tastes are, and develop them, instead of spending time, money, and patience in forcing them into studies that are repugnant to them. Do teach them courtesy by example; be courteous to them. Do, as long as it is possible, kiss them good-night after they are in bed; they do like it so, and it keeps them very close. Do, if you have lost a child, remember that for the one that is gone there is no more to do; for those remaining, everything; hide your grief for their sakes. Do make your boys and girls study physiology; when they are old they will thank you for it, and how the complaint arose, and the remedy as far as you know it. Do impress upon them from early infancy that actions have results, and that they cannot escape consequences, even by being sorry, when they have acted wrongly. Do, as your daughters grow up, teach at least, the true merits of housekeeping and cooking; they will thank you for it in later life, a great deal more than for accomplishments. Do try and sympathize with girlish flights of fancy, even if they seem absurd to you; by so doing you will retain your influence over your daughters and not teach them to seek sympathy elsewhere. Do remember that, although they are all your children, each one has an individual character, and that tastes and qualities vary indefinitely. Do cultivate them separately, and not as if you were turning them out by machinery. Do encourage them to take good walking exercise. Young ladies in this country are rarely good walkers. They can dance all night, but are tired out if they walk a mile. Girls ought to be able to walk as easily as boys. Half the nervous diseases which afflict young ladies would disappear if the habit of regular exercise was encouraged. Do cultivate a little imagination in your children; when they are small, encourage them to enjoy fairy tales; as they grow older, lead their tastes in the direction of imaginative literature. Life in our country is too prosaic; give them a taste for romance while they are young. Do take them yourself, if you can, to places of amusements; let them associate you with their enjoyments; when they are parents themselves the memory of it will influence them in their treatment of their children. For their sakes, enjoy life with them if possible, clouds will come soon enough. Do, if you say no, mean no. Unless you have a good reason for changing a given command, hold to it. Do take an interest in your children's pleasure; mother's participation is a great delight. Do remember that if you are mountains to them; respect their feelings. Do keep up a high standard of principles; your children will be your keenest judges in the future. Do be honest with them in small things as well as in great. If you cannot tell them what they wish to know, say so rather than deceive them. Do reprove your children for tale bearing; a child taught to carry reports from the kitchen to the parlour is detestable. Do send the youngsters to bed early; decide upon the proper time, and adhere to it. Do remember that visitors praise the children as much to please you as because they deserve it, and that their presence is often more than an infliction.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have never suffered from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels, and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882. "I have used AYER'S PILLS in numerous instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."

Mexico, Texas, June 17, 1882. The Hon. J. T. HAYES, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "I have never past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience. About some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the constipation, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical organism.

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been deceived upon by others, but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power. All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.
