PERPETUAL MOTION RESPONSIBLE—A man named Charles Heinz committed suicide in New York on Tuesday last. He was a machinist, but was out of employment. He took all of his time to perfect perpetual motion, but it would not perfect, and the result turned his brain. He placed a rope on the highest frame of his incomplete machine, wound it round himself and then jumped from a stool, hanging himself.

A HOTEL BURNED—The Park Hotel a Somerset, Pa., was destroyed by fire at an early hour on Tuesday morning. It was one of the largest hotels in that section. The flames spread so rapidly that the occupants had to leave the building in their night clothes, and many women and children were taken from the windows with the aid of ladders. One servant girl, Ella Harmon, was badly burned, and may die. The guest-suffered from the cold and had to walk through the snow on a path of safety. The loss is $30,000.

MEETING OF UNEMPLOYED—A meeting of the unemployed in Boston was held on the common on Tuesday afternoon. About 10,000 people were present. A letter from Gov. Greenhalge said the condition and prospects of the unemployed were placed before the Legislature by him. He expressed his belief that relief work would be so administered as to do as little as possible as possible the condition of the labor market. Sarcastic comments were made upon the letter and several addresses were made, most of them being temperate in tone. A parade took place after the meeting.

ME. McLEAN'S CANVASS—An adjourned meeting of the supporters of Mr. McLean will be held in the McKay Woolen Company's old store, North side Queen Square this evening at eight o'clock. Notwithstanding the bad weather the meeting of last evening was attended by a number of those who desire to see the public spirit of the younger men who have served the city well encouraged and rewarded. Though late in the field and under the disadvantage of his partner's candidature for the Water Commissionership, Mr. McLean reported a successful canvass so far.
