Y. M. C. A. PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT.

To the Members Y. M. C. Association:
In presenting a report for the past year, I feel that our gratitude is due to Almighty God, for the success which has attended us.

RELIGIOUS WORK.
The Sunday afternoon prayer meeting has been sustained without interruption. The attendance during the fine summer weather was smaller than in any preceding season; for the rest of the year it was about the same as usual. Large numbers of young men attend these meetings, and we cannot but believe that good results follow. The behaviour, with few exceptions, has been good. The Sunday morning and Friday evening meetings have been pleasing features of our last year's work,—admirably conducted and sustained as they are by our young men. No part of our work is more encouraging,—showing as it does that there are young men in our ranks able and willing to take up the burden of the Master's work, and aid those who, for some time past, stood almost alone. During the Week of Prayer, at the beginning of the year, a daily prayer meeting was held at our rooms. These meetings were well sustained and fairly attended. The Week of Prayer for young men, was more generally observed among us this year than ever before. The pastors of the different evangelical churches complied with the request of the Association and preached sermons specially to young men. A prayer meeting was held in our rooms every evening of the week. These meetings were largely attended and the services throughout were interesting and impressive.

OUT-DOOR WORK.
With regard to out-door work, the Jail and Poor House are regularly visited by some of the brothers and other Christian men of the city—the Word of Life being thus carried to those who are prevented from attending regular services. During the summer the Tract Committee visited the vessels lying at our wharves and distributed tracts among the seamen. Some efforts at Cottage Prayer Meetings have been made, but these so far have not been regularly organized, chiefly owing to the want of suitable places for meeting. It is cheering to think that we have a number of workers ready to engage in this department of service, and as the season is now upon us in which such meetings can be more successfully held, their organization should have the early attention of the incoming committee.

TEMPERANCE WORK.
The Ladies Temperance Union and Benevolent Society and the Y. M. C. A. Division Sons of Temperance, meet regularly in the Lower Parlor.

THE READING ROOM.
Our Reading Room continues to be well attended, and seems to supply a want in our community. The supply of papers and periodicals is quite equal to that of any Reading Room in the Lower Provinces, if not in the Dominion. While I think the Association can be fairly congratulated on supplying the public of Charlottetown with such a varied and wholesome literature at the low price of $2 per annum for gentlemen and $1 for ladies, and thus doing much to justify its existence and continuance, at the same time I do not think the public avail themselves of this privilege as fully as they might. Taking into consideration the fact that the same privileges cannot be secured elsewhere for such a small amount, I think our subscription list should be largely increased.

A DEBATING CLUB PROMISED.
A Debating Club, in connection with the Association, will probably be organized this winter. Should this be so, I would urge upon our young men the desirability of attending and taking part in its work, as it cannot fail to be of advantage to them. A free entertainment, intended to be the first of a series, was very kindly given by Mr. Geo. Bremner, who, at no small sacrifice of time and trouble, exhibited a series of dissolving views. (Either from a defective system of ticket distribution or from the transfer of tickets from one person to another, we failed to secure such an audience as we wished to have, the Hall being largely filled with children.) Since that time, although the matter has not been dropped by the Executive Committee, no further entertainments have been given. It is hoped, however, that a few lectures may be arranged for during the present winter.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.
The Treasurer's Report, to be submitted, shows the receipts from all sources to have been $951.70; the expenditure, $979.89. In this connection, and especially with reference to free entertainments, or anything likely to increase our expenditure, I would strongly advise the appointment of a Financial Committee to consider the question of Ways and Means.

ANNUAL CONVENTION.
I feel that any report of the past year would be incomplete, without a reference to the meeting here of the Annual Convention of the Associations of the Maritime Provinces, in August last. Through the hospitality of the citizens of Charlottetown, and the kindness of the pastors of the different churches, the arrangements were completely successful. The various meetings were well attended by the public and greatly enjoyed by those who were present.

I think we can hardly fail to trace the deepening interest, among our young men, in the work of the Association, under God, to the influence exercised by the Convention. The brothers, who met with us, returned to their homes gratified with the successful gathering in which they had participated, and in more than one instance earnest and successful work has been ascribed to God's blessing on the Charlottetown Convention.

In this connection it may not be out of place to refer to the valuable counsel and assistance which we received from Brother Weidensall, of Chicago, an Agent of the International Executive Committee, and to express our thanks to the Executive for their kindness in sending him to us.

A TRIBUTE TO MR. MORROW.
I cannot close without referring to the gloom cast over our Associations by the sudden death of Brother Morrow. It seemed difficult, to those who knew him well, and who had so lately seen him actively engaged in the work of the Convention, to realize that we should never again see his face or hear his voice in our earthly gatherings. But we know that it is well with him, and we trust that other laborers will be raised up to fill his place, and carry on the work he loved so well.

In vacating the office to which you have so kindly appointed me for two terms, permit me to thank the Executive, and the members generally, for their kind sympathy and support and to ask them to extend the same in still larger measure to my successor, and while thankful for past favors to invoke a still larger blessing from our Divine Master upon the future of the Charlottetown Young Men's Christian Association.

T. C. JAMES, President.

Mr. Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, for Ireland, has issued a memorandum to the magistrates, pointing out that, under certain acts of Parliament, persons assembling armed, or disguised, or assuming the name of any society, to the terror of Her Majesty's subjects, are guilty of high misdemeanor rendering them liable to imprisonment, as are also those who, by threats, endeavor to compel any person to quit employment, or publish or write anything calculated to incite a riot or unlawful assembly. All magistrates and constables are bound to apprehend, oppose and disperse persons engaging in these practices and they can command all persons to assist them. Any two magistrates can bind over persons whom they have reason to suspect of even an intention to participate in unlawful proceedings or assembly, or in case of refusal to be bound over they can commit them to jail. They can bind over any persons whom they believe can give evidence relative to such proceedings, and if they refuse to be bound over or to give evidence they can commit them to jail.

Miss Harriet Gardiner, of Farmhill, Killala, who was almost mobbed recently in Ballina, and who intimidated the crowd by drawing a revolver, is considerably over fifty years of age and is an old maid of unprepossessing appearance and attire. She is a very masculine woman, rides and drives about like a man, hitching and unhitching her horses. She always goes armed and is a regular dare-devil. She goes out shooting with her dogs and jumps over bog holes like a boy. She inherited Farmhill from her mother, and drove her father, Major J. Gardiner, out of the place. She scarcely ever recognizes him or any of his children by his second wife. She lives a solitary life, surrounded by a queer household. She is a relentless woman with her tenants, and her pluck has hitherto enabled her to carry everything with a high hand.

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own household work for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."
