Canadian Girls in Training Participate In Worship And Recreation At Autumn Rally

The annual fall rally for Senior Canadian Girls In Training sponsored by the Charlottetown CGIT Fellowship was held at Park Royal United Church on Saturday, November 7. The rally for Charlottetown and district had approximately 70 girls and leaders in attendance.

Following a get - acquainted game, the girls and their leaders were welcomed by the director, Mrs. Gerald Wyrwas of Charlottetown. The opening ceremony was conducted by Elaine MacKay of Park Royal United Church.

The morning worship was conducted by Joan Coffin and Sandra Shaw, of Montague United Group, and the afternoon worship was conducted by Edna MacNeill and Lana Lewis of First Baptist CGIT, with Mrs. W. G. Cowley as pianist.

STUDY TIME

The Bible study on the four-fold CGIT purpose was conducted by Revs. Frank Lacey, Hugh Lowrey, T. Goudge, I. Walls and E. Grant.

Craft leaders were Ilene Norrie, Mrs. E. M. Pound, Mrs. Peggy MacKay, Joan Mallett, Mrs. Malcolm Hicks, Daphne Taylor, and Mrs. W. G. Cowley.

Mrs. Gerald Wyrwas introduced Rev. Bryer R. Jones, minister of Hampton Pastoral Charge who showed interesting slides of a recent trip to Trinidad. He was thanked by Barbara MacNevin of Charlottetown.

Highlights of the Maritime Camp Council were given by Anne Johnston of Trinity United

TIME OUT

Mrs. Reginald Gay was pianist and Mrs. W. G. Cowley was director for the sing-song. The morning and afternoon recreation was conducted by Mrs. J. H. Tye, and Joan Mallett was in charge of the book display.

Other leaders assisting were Mrs. Graeme Fraser, Mrs. Russell Burns, Mrs. Roger Gillis, Joan Mallett and Daphne Tayor.

A banquet celebrating the 50th anniversary of CGIT was served by the Park Royal UCW with Rev. Frank Lacey asking the blessing. Special anniversary serviettes and place mats were used. The UCW members were thanked by Joan Gass of Spring Park.

The evening worship was held in the sanctuary and conducted by Mr. Lacey.

AT ZION CHURCH

Approximately 200 girls attended the intermediate CGIT rally held at Zion Presbyterian Church on Saturday, November 7. Registration was carried out by girls of Zion: Jane Campbell, Glenda MacLeod, Donna Downe, Kathy Abbott, Karen Lloyd, Vicky Robinson, and Judy Billings. Get acquainted games were carried out by Mrs. Mildred MacDonald and Mrs. Richard Vessey. A welcome was extended by the director of the rally, Miss Doris Ferguson, assisted by Jane Campbell of Zion. The girls of Spring Park United led in worship with Kathy Lewis in the chair, assisted by Colleen Roach, Lynda Dunsford and Gail Robinson as pianist. Rev. Donald A. Campbell, on behalf of Zion Congregation expressed words of welcome to all present.

The girls were divided into bible study groups to discuss the CGIT purpose based on Luke 2: 52. Ministers conducting those groups were: Revs. D.A. Campbell, Basil Lowrey, Bryer Jones, John Ball, Gerald Wyrwas, Donald Nicholson, L.R. Files, R.H. Baxter, Ross Howard, Clayton Lewis, Malcolm Harlow, Peter Ruddell.

An interesting form of recreation led by Mrs. Mildred MacDonald took the form of singing advertisements. Each group sang the ad they had composed, and then broke up for lunch hour.

HANDICRAFTS

The opening worship in the afternoon was conducted by Mrs. Miles Foster, Montague Baptist, assisted by Marilyn Seaman. A sing song was led by Mrs Allison MacDonald with Mrs. Lloyd Fraser at the piano. Handicrafts for the group were many and varied with an interesting and colorful display later in the afternoon. These groups were conducted by numerous leaders and ladies: Vaunda Todd, Margaret Tomilson, Roberta Shaw, Judy Arbing, Sandra MacKay, Marilyn Seaman, Kitty Brehaut, Mrs. R. Vessey, Mrs. T. Humphreys, Mrs. E. Stewart, Mrs. C. Lockhart, Mrs. C. Lewis, Mrs. D. Matheson, Mrs. R. Woodgate, Mrs. J. Williams, Mrs. B. Ball, Mrs. Georgie Redd, Mrs. W. Auld, Mrs. B. MacDonald, Mrs. E. Lowther.

Judith Billings of the Zion group, introduced guest speaker Wilson Ross, supervisor of Regional Schools, Charlottetown. Mr. Ross was one of a group of teachers and students who were part of the "Crossroads Africa" tour. While in Liberia, they had opportunity to observe the habits and customs of the people and their way of life.

African people as well as be informed of the education offered there. He showed slides to illustrate the people, their homes, the vegetation of which bananas and oranges are plentiful, and the main industry of rubber. Only six out of 100 Africans get an education.

CAMP LIFE

Brenda Murl, Park Royal, gave a daily account of camp life at Augustine Cove, which she attended last summer.

Excitement ran high as the scavenger hunt was organized by Mrs. George Hayden and Mrs. Clayton Lewis with the girls rushing off to find such unusual things as a polka dot ribbon or horse hair, and ordinary articles like an empty cigarette package or oil can.

Girls and leaders enjoyed a banquet prepared by the women of Zion, who were thanked by Susan Feigel, Park Royal.

Other leaders attending: Mrs. J. Matheson, Mrs. S. MacLeod, Mrs. H. Mowery, Mrs. M. Marshall, Mrs. R. Gillis, Mrs. W. Kennedy., Mrs. D. Johnston, Mrs. P. Ruddell.

Usherettes Barbara MacLeod, Joyce Stewart and Joanne Ferguson assisted the girls and leaders in being seated for an impressive closing worship conducted by Rev. D.A. Campbell, who based his remarks on Acts 12:13. He told the girls that even as Rhoda hearkened to Peter at the gate, they should be ready and willing to do any task required of them.

MRS. JOSEPH CHARLES MEGHAN

Puerto Rican Honeymoon Follows Marriage Vows

There were vases of white gladioli on the altar of St. Bridget's Church, Framingham, Mass., for the recent Oct. 20 wedding of Fredda Gertrude Callaghan, daughter of Mrs. Frederick J. Callaghan of 570 Worcester Rd., Framingham and the late Mr Callaghan of Summerside, and Joseph Charles Megan, son of Mr and Mrs. Joseph C. Megan of 120 Broadway, Taunton. Rev. Joseph V. McCarthy was the celebrant of the nuptial mass.

Kathleen McKenna of Edgewood, Md., formerly of Framingham was maid of honor, and Lucille Demers of Taunton and Irene Megan of Taunton (sister of the bridegroom) were bridesmaids. James J. Coogan of Millis was best man, Peter Brady of Walpole and Daniel Doherty of Holliston ushered.

Chalk beads, pearls, and bugle beads embellished the contoured wide midriff of the faille satin gown worn by the bride. It had a high bateau neckline, long sleeves and a bell shaped skirt controlled to the back in unpressed pleats forming a chapel length train. Her fingertip illusion veil was attached to a pillbox encrusted with beads matching those on the dress. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and ivy centered with Phalaenopsis orchids. Austin P. Callaghan presented his niece in marriage.

The attendants were gowned in rust velveteen with scoop neckline, elbow sleeves, and controlled skirt of instep length. Their pouff veiled Chanel velvet bows matched and carried cascades of pompom chrysanthemums with natural wheat.

Mrs. Callaghan donned a French blue dress with lace bodice and crepe skirt. Her ensemble had combined shades of French and Royal Blue. Her corsage was of Autumn flowers.

Mrs. Megan wore a tow piece royal blue ribbon knit dress with feathered hat in varied shades of blue. She also had an Autumn corsage.

Following a reception at the Monticello Restaurant, the couple left on a wedding trip to Puerto Rico. On their return they will reside in Foxboro.

The bride is a graduate of Marian High School and Regis College, Weston. She travelled in a pink tweed suit with black velvet off the face cuffed hat and black alligator accessories.

Mr. Megan was graduated from Holy Cross College, Worcester and received his master from Bridgewater. He is a teacher in the Foxboro school system.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. L. G. Ramsay, Indian River, P.E.I.
