IN MEMORIAM

KNOX — In fond and loving memory of our dear husband and father, John Bertram Knox, killed in an aircraft accident July 16th, 1954. We are thinking of you today dear. But then that's nothing new. We thought about you yesterday. And the day before that, too.

We'll think of you tomorrow. And each day throughout the year. We'll think of you forever. For to us, you were so dear. Lovingly remembered by wife and daughter Lillian and Cheryl Ann.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Auld, Dr. Beer, special nurses and staff of the Prince County Hospital for their kindness to me while a patient there. To Rev. L.M. Murray and all kind neighbours, relatives and friends who visited me; and to those who sent letters, cards, flowers and treats a grateful thank you. Mrs. William H. Cousins, Kensington, R.R. 2.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbours for their kindness shown us during the illness and death of our Father the late Samuel MacNeill. To all those who visited Dad, both during his stay in the P.E. Island Hospital and later during his continuing illness at home; to those who brought him treats, and flowers, and also for the many messages of sympathy received by us, a very sincere thank you to one and all. Mrs. Thomas Lowther, New Dominion; Mrs. Milton MacNeill, Canoe Cove.

IN MEMORIAM

There passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital on June 29, 1957 Mr. Pendergast Sigsworth of Cardigan, P.E.I., in his 78th year. Mr. Sigsworth, who has resided in Cardigan throughout his entire life, had been in failing health for over seven years. Previous to his sickness he had been a successful farmer and stock breeder, enjoying particular success in breeding and developing race horses for prominent horsemen in Maine and Eastern Canada.

Following his illness he was forced to curtail his farming operations, and finally two years ago, to retire completely from farming. He continued to live at his home in Cardigan until his death. The late Mr. Sigsworth was a son of the late Donald Sigsworth and the former Mary Pendergast, and was one of a family of 12 children. His father was an outstanding citizen in Cardigan for many years, having successfully managed several business enterprises before his death and was at one time a member of the local Legislature. Mr. Sigsworth inherited his father's interest in the political affairs of the community, and although less active than the latter, he was equally as strong in his convictions on such matters.

Mrs. Sigsworth was highly regarded by the people of Cardigan as a good neighbor who was prompt to respond to requests for assistance of any sort. The large numbers who attended his funeral services bore testimony to that fact.

Prior to his death, Mr. Sigsworth was fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he had been a member from birth. His funeral took place from All Saints Church in Cardigan, with funeral services being conducted by Rev. J.P.E. O'Hanley, parish priest.

Surviving members of the family are two brothers, Mr. Daniel Sigsworth, Cardigan, and Mr. Frank Sigsworth, Charlottetown.
