It is stated in Montreal on ecclesiastical authority that official documents from the Vatican are on the way for the elevation of Mgr. Fabre to be Archbishop of Montreal. His Lordship's suffragans will be the Bishops of Three Rivers, St. Hyacinthe and Nicolet.

A FEW days ago there died in St. Eustache, Two Mountains county, Quebec, a veteran of 1812, named Jean B. Demers. He had attained the ripe old age of 95, and left behind him 10 children, 87 grandchildren, 50 great grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

A POWERFUL PAIR.—Vancouver in her chief and sergeant of police will have a herculean duo seldom equalled. The chief is Mr. J. M. Stewart, a Prince Edward Islander, 6 feet 4 inches in his socks, who tips the scale somewhere near 270 pounds avoirdupois when he feels good. The sergeant, Mr. John McLaren, the well known policeman of this city, who is an Ontario by birth, stands about 6 feet 2 inches high, and weighs 230 pounds, which, all will admit, are the measurements of a creditable specimen of the genus homo.

Both are well proportioned and would be called good looking men anywhere. It is said when Mr. Stewart landed here some two or three years ago, a small gentleman, who felt insignificant in the presence of the comparative giant, enquired, "are there any more men like you where you came from?" Mr. S. replied, "any more men? why I am only one of the boys." The little man went away exceedingly sorrowful that he had not been planted in the Garden of the Gulf.—Colonist, Vancouver, B. C.

THE funeral of Curran, the young man who lost his life by drowning during the recent Orange-Catholic riot, at Belfast, Ire., took place on Sunday, the body being followed to the cemetery by a procession of twenty thousand Catholics. A body of Orangemen pelted stones at the procession and the Catholics in retaliation made an assault on the Orangemen and drove them away. A number of shots were fired. One man was stabbed and several persons were cut on the head. Finally the police succeeded in restoring order. The Catholics smashed the windows of the Broadway linen factory. There was some further disturbance in the evening. Philip Rice, a driller, and John Beattie and Alex. Stewart, fitters, have been arrested on a charge of rioting on Friday and murdering young Curran. James MacMurray, a Catholic, has been arrested on a charge of firing a revolver from the funeral procession.
