"On behalf of our directors and supporters I wish to extend a most hearty welcome to the residents of Prince Edward Island and visitors from outside the Province to visit our Provincial Plowing Match at Dundas on Wednesday and Thursday of this week," stated Mr. Leslie Hunter, President of the Provincial Plowing Match in a brief telephone interview with the Guardian last night.

LESLIE HUNTER

"This will be 16th Annual Provincial Plowing Match at Dundas and we plan that it will be the greatest one yet staged. Our prize list is the greatest in history with prizes amounting to more than $5,000 and we have made several innovations this year which should add to the success of the show," he stated.

"We are making every effort to have a night program this year. We have had lights installed for this purpose and we hope it will add to your entertainment and enjoyment."

"The recently constructed hand-craft building will be well stocked with exhibits of Island products and our livestock classes will be well filled with outstanding cattle, sheep, poultry, horses etc."

"The plowing competitions of course will dominate the show. We are extremely proud of the manner in which the plowmen have performed and continually improved in the past and we feel fully confident that the plowing this year will be the best on record."

"I must express the appreciation of the directors and myself on the manner in which the public and business men have supported us in the past."

"Over the years this has been a most gratifying experience. The interest and enthusiasm shown by the people has certainly exceeded our fondest expectations. For that we express our most sincere thanks."

"In thanking the business people who have helped us so much through their kind donations of prizes and the assistance they have given us in publicity I must say their help has been invaluable and deeply appreciated."

"Finally I wish to thank my directors who have worked so hard with me during the years of the Plowing Match."

1955 PLOWING CHAMPION

The defending Prince Edward Island Plowing Champion is Malcolm MacRae of Cherry Valley who is pictured above. Malcolm entered the class of reigning Prince Edward Island plowmen with an outstanding plowing performance at Dundas a year ago.
