Political Meeting at Fort Augustus

According to general announcement a large, influential and enthusiastic meeting of the Electors of Fort Augustus and adjoining settlements, was held at Macdonald's Corner, Lot 36, on Saturday evening, 3rd instant.

The meeting was duly organized by electing Philip Corley, Esq., Chairman, and the undersigned Secretary.

The Chairman then briefly stated the object for which the meeting was called, namely for the purpose of nominating a Candidate to fill the political vacancy caused by the death of the late Honorable Francis Kelly.

HENRY BEER, Esq., embraced the opportunity, and thanked the Electors for the support they gave him at the late General Election, and for the courteous and gentlemanly manner in which they always treated him. He said it has been always looked upon by the Electors of the District that one Catholic representative was necessary. He would, therefore, decline taking any part in the coming contest.

JAMES E. LAVERTY came forward and said that yielding to the solicitations of a number of the Electors from various parts of the District, he had been induced to enter the political arena, and try his fortunes as a politician. He intended to hold public meetings in different parts of the district, in order to ascertain the general sentiment, and see who would likely be the peoples' choice, and then if he had the honor of being the person on whom they would repose their trust, he would contest the approaching Election, and if elected, he would advocate such measures of retrenchment and political reform as are consistent with the requirements and good Government of the country, and may redound to the prosperity of the Province, and the peace and contentment of the people.

Mr. Laverty got a good attentive hearing, and was frequently applauded for his eloquent vitticisms.

Mr. JAMES H. CUMMISKY being next called upon, came to the front and said that previous to the late general election he had been proposed as a candidate to contest the District, but, yielding to the counsel of his political supporters, he was induced to wait for a more propitious opportunity. He believed, from the number of solicitations and the various assurances of success he received from all parts of the District, that that time has now arrived, and he was now a candidate before them, seeking their support. He would advocate, by every constitutional means, the opening and final completion of the new road from Glenfinnan to Southport. The Legislative Council, which costs the ratepayers of this Province upwards of seven thousand dollars, he deemed totally unnecessary. The Assessment Act requires an immediate and thorough revision, as it is at present iniquitous and obnoxious to the people. The Roads and Bridges Act needed amendment. Our claims to a just and equitable share of the Fishery Award should be boldly asserted; and measures of economy and retrenchment in every branch of the public service are absolutely necessary, in order to relieve the taxpayers as much as possible. If elected, these measures would receive his active and hearty attention.

Mr. Cummsky was well received, attentively listened to, and considerably admired.

FRANCIS McQUAID, Esq., Pisquid, was the next speaker, and expressed his views on some of the leading political questions at issue. He thought he was justly entitled to fill the vacancy caused by the decease of Hon. Mr. Kelly, as he had always been a consistent and ardent supporter of the Liberal Party since the palmy days of Messrs. Coles and Whelan.

RICHARD REDDIN, Esq., Charlottetown, was next called upon. He said he believed that they were assembled this evening for the purpose of selecting a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Francis Kelly—a gentleman who had faith fully and ably represented the district in Parliament for the last number of years. He heartily endorsed the sentiments of Mr. H. Beer, that the district was entitled to one Catholic representative in Parliament, and he hoped the electors would select a good conscientious politician.

Mr. LUCIUS O. KELLY, Fort Augustus, was then called upon, and in a short, pithy, and appropriate speech, thanked the electors for the kind and noble manner in which they treated his deceased father. He felt he would be always under a debt of never-ending gratitude to them for the hearty and generous manner in which they elected him, although he was stretched on his dying bed. Having since his decease been requested by a very large number of electors from every part of the District to allow himself to be put in nomination, he begged leave to inform them that he had acceded to their request, and was now a candidate for the coming election. Judging from the many and encouraging assurances of support received, he believed his success would be certain. If elected, he would support the present Government in all reasonable and honest endeavors to lessen the burthen of taxation and tend to the well-being and happiness of the people. Mr. Kelly's first speech was spirited and to the point. He has a very pleasing appearance, a nice voice, and is a general favorite among his neighbors.

PATRICK DUFFY, Esq., Lot 48, being called upon, offered a few remarks.

The following candidates were then severally nominated:—

John A. McDonald, Esq., Johnston's

River, proposed James H. Cummsky as a fit and proper person to represent this District in the Local House of Assembly, seconded by Mr. John Stewart, Glenfinnan, and William G. Brazil, Donagh.

Lucius O. Kelly, proposed by Patrick J. Trainor, Donagh, as a fit and proper person to represent the district in the House of Assembly, seconded by Edward Kelly, Esq., Lake Verd.

Mr. Angus Gillis, Pisquid, proposed and John Lund, Johnston's River, seconded, that Francis McQuaid, Esq., be a fit and proper person to represent this District in the House of Assembly. John Trainor, Monaghan, proposed James E. Laverty as a fit and proper person to represent this district in the House of Assembly, seconded by James Garland, Glenfinnan. A division being taken on the above motions the chairman declared an equal number for Messrs. Cummsky, Kelly, and Laverty, none appearing for Mr. McQuaid.

A vote of thanks was then tendered Mr. Corley for his able and becoming conduct in the chair, to which he responded in a suitable manner. It was also proposed and carried unanimously, that the proceedings of this meeting be forwarded to the Herald and EXAMINER for publication. The electors then dispersed in that quiet and orderly manner which characterizes the meetings at Fort Augustus.

MICHAEL LAVERTY, Sec'y.

Death of Dr. Butt, M. P.

DESPATCHES from Dublin announce the death of Isaac Butt, M. P., which took place on Monday last. He was the leader of the "Irish Home Rule Party," and a statesman of the highest character and ability. His death will be a severe blow to his party and the Nation at large. Dr. Butt was the only son of Rev. Robert Butt, incumbent of Stranorlar county Donegal, where he was born in 1813. He was descended from the O'Donnells, the ancient Irish Chiefs of Tyrconnell, and from an early age evinced the strong National Irish feeling which afterwards became his leading political characteristic. He was educated at Trinity College, Dublin, graduating with high honors in 1835. In 1836 he was appointed to the Whately Professorship of Political Economy in his College, and in 1838 he was called to the Irish Bar, of which he soon became a leader and an ornament, being made a Q. C. in 1844. In 1848 he took the leading part as counsel in the defence of Smith O'Brien and other prisoners, tried for high treason at Dublin, and was also retained in the defence of the Fenians in 1865. He was first elected to Parliament in 1862, and represented Younghal as a Liberal-Conservative till 1865. In 1871 he was returned without opposition for the City of Limerick as a Home Ruler, was re-elected for the same seat at the General Election in 1874, and has continued to represent it ever since.

Success to Enterprise.

The following, referring to the cattle trade is interesting:—

"English statistics show that during 1878 there were landed at British ports from Canada 105 cargoes of live animals, consisting of 17,089 cattle, 40,132 sheep, 1,614 swine; and from the United States 381 cargoes, consisting of 68,450 cattle, 43,940 sheep and 16,321 swine. Some idea of the precariousness of the trade may be gleaned from the fact that the enormous number of 12,595 animals were thrown overboard in this one year because of casualties arising from stress of weather and hardships necessarily attendant upon the voyage. Of these casualties there were of Canadian animals 551 cattle, 2,000 sheep and swine sacrificed; and of the American animals 2,034 cattle, 3,266 sheep, and 2,398 swine thrown overboard. This is a rate of loss that is well nigh appalling, and there is no difficulty in understanding that it requires high profits and a steady business to make such a trade remunerative."

Canadian Eggs for Paris.

A French buyer was in the Toronto egg market on the 2nd inst., purchasing rather extensively. He bought about 4,000 dozen at 10½ cents, and bid the same figure for about as many more, in different lots, but holders want 11 cents. He is buying ostensibly for shipment to Paris, but some think a better market may turn up in another direction. It matters not, however, where they go to, as long as an outlet is found for stocks on the market.—Gazette.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles, when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.
