

Is any part of your estate invested to yield 12%
until the youngest child is grown up?

The IMPERIAL FAMILY INCOME policy more than doubles the PROTECTION

● If protection for a young and growing family is your great need, here is a plan designed for you especially.

The Imperial Family Income Policy provides in case of your death for 12% of the face value of the policy to be paid to your family every year until your youngest child is grown up.

For example a $10,000 policy on this plan would provide $100 a month ($1,200 a year) continuously until the youngest child is grown up. At that time it would also pay its full face value, $10,000 to your widow, or other beneficiary.

Note the extra service this policy offers—more than twice as much income is guaranteed as the money could earn in these days of low interest rates. Yet the principal sum is left intact. Further—should you live—the policy could provide YOU with a welcome income for your own years of retirement.

Providing Mirth For Coming Eras

(By The Canadian Press) LONDON, May 5—In the days of prehistoric man there were doubtless young cave-dwellers to whom the family life of their immediate predecessors seemed a fit subject for, alternatively, mirth and indignation, writes the distinguished English novelist E. M. Delafield in the London Times.

"Some years hence the family life of today will excite exactly similar emotions in yet another generation. Which precise aspect of our well-meant activities will call forth their criticism is as yet mercifully hidden from us. We can only hope that justice may be tempered with that indefinable, very English, tenderness towards the things and persons associated with the days of childhood—a tendemess somewhere concealed even in the hearts of a generation that has elected to label itself "hard-boiled."

"After all, it is almost a platitude to say that the wax flowers, the beadwork and the sentimental songs of yesterday will seem no funnier tomorrow than will the painted cocktail-sets, the legless tables, and the American jazz of today. Like the tunes and the furniture, the present-day convention of family life will be judged by such successive standards. From being sacred, it will be seen as matter-of-course, then as hopelessly out-of-date, and eventually it will end up as good joke."

"Actually, family life is nothing like as unpopolar or as unscientific as psychologists and novelists so frequently represent it to be. The very fact that it is much easier to get away from home than it used to be has made home more popular; even wives and mothers—the last to profit by the new freedom—may now sometimes think of home as the place to which one flees back, rather than as the place from which one never goes away.

"Youth is almost always generous. There is a desire to co-operate, to render the burden lighter, once its existence has been recognized. The recognition, however, must take its own form. Fine speeches have no part in family life, least of all in the present age."

IN MEMORIAM

MR. TIMOTHY YOUNG

On Tuesday, April 7th Mr. Timothy Young, a very highly respected resident of Upper Belle River, passed peacefully away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown at the comparatively early age of 55 years.

The deceased had been in a poor condition of health for over four years. It will no doubt be remembered by many that some four years and three months ago Mr. Young was badly injured while working in the woods by having a tree fall upon him. Since then he has been confined to his bed a greater part of the time because of a fractured spine. Of the whole period of his suffering more than one half of it has been spent in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. All that medical skill and kind friends could do to try to bring back his health and to give him comfort throughout his long hours of pain, was done. At times it seemed as though his health might be restored but later as time went by, it became more and more evident that this was impossible. Although the suffering was at times intense it was all borne in a spirit of Christian fortitude. His strength gradually waned until on the above mentioned date his gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Besides a sorrowing widow Mr. Young leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, four sons and four daughters. The sons are Lester Young, Vancouver, B.C., Clarence Young, Truro, N.S., and Harry and Louis at home and the daughters are Mrs. Foster McKee, Boston; Mrs. Willard Crossman, Upper Belle River and Miss Annie Young, Charlottetown and Miss Norma Young, Central Royalty.

Besides those who survive their father two children passed away in infancy.

The deceased was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young and was one of a family of eight members. His father, Mr. John Young passed away some eight years ago but his mother is now beyond the fourth score milestone, survives her son. She in her advanced years is feeling her loss very keenly.

Of these eight members of their family only three are now living. These are Murray Young, Fort-Townsend, Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Hugh McLean Young, town, Alberta and George Young, Belle River.

Two other brothers passed away over thirty years ago, Ernest Young was drowned at the Wood Islands Breakwater on August 18th, 1902 and Francis Young died on December 27th, 1904 from the effects of a blow received from a falling tree when he was working in the woods. The accident was somewhat similar to the one in which his brother now deceased received his death blow.

The other two members of the family passed away in infancy.

Mr. Young was a man who was quite widely and favorably known. The most of his life was spent in Upper Belle River. He took a deep interest in all that pertained to the welfare of the school and church and the community. He was a loyal supporter of our Presbyterian Church in Canada. When quite young he became a member of the Wood Islands congregation and through the stormy days of the disruption he remained true to the church of his fathers. In the days of his health his place in the sanctuary was very seldom vacant. He will be much missed in the different spheres of activity. But it is in the home that his loss will be felt most keenly. Here the widowed wife and mother and the two young boys will often long for his genial presence and his wise counsel. But never again shall he return to them a source of comfort and of good cheer. He has gone on into that land where suffering and pain are unknown. As the end drew near he remained calm and unmoved. His passing was one of deep peace. The funeral which was a large one was held on the afternoon of Thursday, April 8th. The service was conducted by Rev. R. Hensley Stewart. After a short service at the house the regular service was held in the Wood Islands Presbyterian Church. Besides the three hymns sung by the congregation a special selection the "Sweet Bye and Bye" was very feelingly rendered as a duet by Mr. Harold Young and Mrs. Norman Bell. The service throughout was a very impressive one.

The floral tributes were: Wreath, The family; Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wood, Central Royalty.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Ralph McKenzie, Chester Hancock, Alexander Campbell, Edgar Munn, Daniel Munn and Roderick McRae. Interment was in the Presbyterian

Cemetery at Wood Islands.

MRS. ELIZABETH COCHRANE

Mrs. Elizabeth Cochrane passed away on Saturday, April 25th, at the home of her brother Mr. Charles Ives of North Tryon, P. E. I. Deceased who had reached the advanced age of eighty-one years had for some time been a semi-invalid. But despite her handicap she was always interested in public affairs and in the work about the home, she was ever helpful until within a few days of her death. Early in life she went to the Canadian West where she married and lived at Elkhorn, Man, but finally settled in Minneapolis, U. S. A. where she became a very active member of Broadway Methodist Church of that city. It is interesting to recall that her name is inscribed in one of the memorial windows of Broadway church.

Mrs. Cochrane leaves to mourn beside one son Fred of Arkansas, U. S. A. a sister Mrs. Georgina Bacon, of North Tryon, and three brothers Isaac Ives of Montague, P. E. I., Edward of British Columbia and Charles of North Tryon.

The funeral held on Monday April 27 at 2:30 p. m. was conducted by Rev. J. L. Lund of Tryon United Church assisted by Rev. Dr. M. E. Genge of North Tryon Presbyterian Church. Music was furnished by the United Church Choir led by Mrs. C. D. Wright the hymns being "Rock of Ages" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Also a duet "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mrs. Frank Dixon and Rev. Dr. Genge.

The pall bearers were Messrs—Alfred Cairns; Leslie MacDonald; Sterling Lord; Percy Delaney; Frank Dawson and Reginald Dixon. Interment was made in the people's cemetery at Tryon. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family.

J. J. SEITZ, PRESIDENT

To the Typists, Stenographers, and Secretaries of Canada.

Through forty years of endeavour I can look back to that distant time when it was given to me to found the organization now known, from coast to coast, as Underwood-Elliott-Fisher Limited. The intervening years have brought days of difficulty and doubt, days of fulfilment and reassurance.

I have seen many dreams of mine come true, for in 1896, with the enthusiasm of youth, I dreamed of three things that I might be able to accomplish. I visioned the day when I could produce, in Canada, the most perfect writing-machine that science and experiment and patience could devise. I dreamed of helping the young men and young women of Canada to prepare themselves for their introduction into the field of business. I hoped to create some channel or agency which would place them, duly trained, in the secretarial and other positions that the growth of Canadian business would increasingly provide.

Now, these early dreams of mine have been transformed into reality. I have seen the machine I hoped to build in Canada, accepted and established throughout the Dominion, so that today the vast majority of typewriters used in this country are UNDERWOODS. I have seen half a million young men and young women entering into business life with the confidence that training alone can give, finding opportunities through the organization I have been able to construct for that purpose. Many of these young men and women have attained to places of importance in industry and commerce.

I appreciate the opportunity which has been mine to serve successive generations of Canadian youth and I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not record my own appreciation of the loyalty and support which these young men and women have given to the organization which I founded forty years ago. To all of you, I want to express my personal gratitude for the support you have given me and my associates in the building of this business.

Sincerely yours,

J. J. Seitz
