SALLY DOWS, An After-War Romance OF THE SOUTH.

BY BRET HARTE. COPYRIGHT, 1892, BY THE AUTHOR.

For an impulsive moment courtland felt like telling her then and there the story of his romantic quest...

"You expect to return to England?" asked Courtland.

"Oh, no! But I shall go out of the company's service and try my own hand."

"But how will Miss Dows be able to support you?" asked Courtland, uneasily conscious that he was assuming an indifference.

"Oh, I'm not much use to her, don't you know—at least not here. But I might if I had my own land and if we were neighbors."

"I presume you are speaking now of young Miss Dows?" said Courtland, dryly.

"Were there not some French investments—relations of Miss Dows? Does anybody represent them?" asked Courtland, pointedly.

Yet he was not quite prepared for the naive change in his companion's face.

"No. There was a sort of French cousin who used to be a good deal to the fore, don't you know—but I rather fancy he didn't come here to look after the property."

"Hello, Rivers! You seem to have a new cold."

"Worst I ever had, Banks."

"I'm sorry for you, old fellow. Wish I knew of something that would cure you, but I don't."

"With tears in his eyes—"Give me your hand, Banks! You're the only man I've seen for three days that hadn't a sure cure!"

Dr. J. Wier, Dorchester, says: "Have prescribed Putner's Emulsion with good results in pulmonary, scrofulous and wasting diseases."

King William is having a row with his cooks. That is, he doesn't like the German diet.

In reply to oft repeated questions, it may be well to state, Scott's Emulsion acts as a food as well as a medicine, building up the wasted tissues and restoring perfect health after wasting fever.

Kitty—Isn't it wonderful how well Jack gets along on a small salary?

Tom (guardedly)—Ah, well, you see he owes a great deal to his friends.

"Well, how's the paper doing now?" "First-class,—got 15 subscribers, one fire in the stove, one side of mast and a stumpions to work the road."

USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and nerve remedy.

A Sunday school teacher asked her class of boys what a boy should do to go to heaven. No one answered until a little Irish boy at the bottom of the class held up his hand.

"Well, sir, what must a boy do to go to heaven?" said the teacher.

"He must die," answered Patsy.

AWFUL HEADACHES. 2 YEARS OF SUFFERING.

LIFE A TORTURE. Kendrick Outhouse, of Tipton, N. S., says: "For several years I suffered from severe attacks of biliousness, which came on periodically about every ten days. I had several attacks and the smell of ammonia cooking turned me sick. I became weak and nervous, and had no ambition or strength to work. I passed uneasy sleepless nights, and for days could not retain food on my stomach. I suffered from constipation, and my life was a constant torture. I became so weak that my friends gave up all hopes of my recovery. My brother brought me a bottle of HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC, and a box of HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS.

I had not taken them long before I commenced to improve and in a short time I was completely cured. I grew strong and vigorous, my appetite returned, I ate well and gained weight. I have not suffered from biliousness since, nor 2 years, and for an hour and a half as any man could wish to be. I firmly believe that

HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC AND LIVER PILLS. Saved My Life.

I hereby certify the above statement is correct in every particular.

The Telephone Company

P. E. ISLAND. PARTIES using the Telephone would find it talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

- 1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter. 2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly. 3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds (do not press too hard on the ear). 4th. It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back 10 or 15 feet from the transmitter, if you speak loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
