

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Marshall of Kingston, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 26th. The anniversary was quietly observed due to the illness of Mr. Marshall; but during the afternoon and evening neighbors and friends called to extend congratulations and pay their respect to this couple. Mrs. Marshall's sister, Mrs. Jamie Vickerson, Brooklyn, Mass., was present for the occasion.

Flowers were received from: Mr. and Mrs. Geddie MacLeod, Mrs. Thomas Beer; Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Newson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beer; Mr. and Mrs. Harbster and sisters, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Livingstone and Mr. and Mrs. Eric MacPhail presented the honored couple with a gold teapot. Other remembrances including gifts and money were received from close friends.

A representation of the members of Queen Mary L. O. B. A. assembled at the home and Mrs. Melissa Holmes made the presentation of an electric table lamp while Mrs. Neil Campbell read the following address:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Marshall: We the members of Queen Mary L. O. B. A. have assembled here this afternoon to extend to you our heartfelt congratulations on this, the occasion of your golden wedding anniversary.

We are very happy that you have been spared over the years to celebrate this special event. Not too many couples have the privilege of going on life's journey together for fifty years.

No doubt you have seen many changes and had your trials and tribulations through the years, but you have both met them with patience, courage and perseverance.

To you, Sister Marshall, we extend a special tribute for being such a faithful worker in our association, never failing to always lend a helping hand. Your good deeds and kindness in helping others out surely hasn't been forgotten.

To you, Mr. Marshall, we are sorry that you have poor health but do hope that you will be blessed with better health in the future.

We ask you to accept this gift just as a little remembrance and hope God's richest blessing will follow you in the years that lie ahead, and that you will both be spared to celebrate more anniversaries.

Signed on behalf of the members of Queen Mary L. O. B. A. The Clyde River Presbyterian W. M. S. also remembered Mr. and Mrs. Marshall by Mrs. John Gillespie presenting them with a gold Kenwood blanket while Mrs. Johnnie Beer read the following address.

Dear Mrs. Marshall: We have come to your home this evening as representatives of the members

United Baptists Bid Farewell To Pastor And Wife

It was with deep regret that the Tryon and Bonshaw pastorates of the United Baptist Church said good-bye to Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Barrass, who have ministered in those fields for the past three years.

Dr. Barrass has accepted a call to a Toronto church. Although these churches feel sorry to lose him and his family, they cannot but feel that they will be very happy in Toronto for both their daughters are living in Toronto and the move means that the family will be reunited.

Before the Barrass family left the community, many tokens of the love and respect with which the districts have come to regard them were presented to them. Miss Shirley Barrass, who came home from Toronto to be married in the Tryon church, was guest of honor at an envelope shower given her at the home of Mrs. Claude Vessey, Tryon. Dr. and Mrs. Barrass were guests of honor at a general "get-together" of all the churches of the pastorate in the Tryon church hall.

The combined Young People's group of the Tryon United Church and the Tryon Baptist Church made a presentation to Dr. Barrass for his untiring help. At this same gathering, Dr. and Mrs. Barrass were presented with a gift of money from the congregations of both the Tryon and Bonshaw churches. Mr. Eric Robinson presided at the meeting and read an address to the departing couple, which had been prepared by the church clerk, Mr. Brent Wood, and which expressed the sentiments of all gathered there. After the presentation a social hour was enjoyed, and all wished Dr. and Mrs. Barrass success and happiness in their new field of endeavor.

Soviet Guns Snuff Out Last Bits Of Freedom In Hungary

By RICHARD KASISCHKE VIENNA (AP) — The Russians used guns, pleas and threats against insurgent holdouts Monday night in an effort to snuff out the last breath of Hungary's freedom.

A new battle was reported shaping up at Dunapentele, in the Danube Valley south of Budapest, as surviving patriots appeared generally to ignore a broadcast Soviet ultimatum demanding surrender by 6 p.m. under threat of court martial. The deadline passed at 1 p.m. AST.

Remnants of the freedom fighters, decimated by the Soviet attack Sunday which put most of the country again under the Kremlin's thumb, fought on in isolated actions.

"They have stood their ground with honor against the Russian troops," said rebel radio Rakoczy. "Desperate."

But "the situation is growing desperate," it said. "Very little ammunition is left." It reported some hospitals were burning and, in a message relayed by Radio Free Europe in Munich, for help from the International Red Cross in Switzerland.

"Some Russian units marching on the capital have been encircled by us," said radio Rakoczy. "In many places they have built barricades along the road. Desperate fighting is going on."

Whereabouts of the station, perhaps a probable transmitter, was unknown to Western listeners. Rakoczy was a patriot who fought for Hungary's freedom from the Hapsburgs.

A Russian-controlled station at Pees, threatening death on the spot to any Hungarian who molested a Soviet soldier, said insurgents were still fighting late Monday for the uranium mines of Meezek, not far from the Yugoslav border.

PROMISE REFORMS Radio Budapest, under control of puppet Premier Janos Kadar after a few days of anti-Soviet freedom broadcast Hungarian dance music between official pronouncements.

The bulletins it carried sought to win over the Hungarians with promises of political and economic reforms, patterned on the popular pledges of Imre Nagy, the nationalist Communist premier the Russians deposed Sunday.

Lobstermen Are Film Subject

LONDON (CP) — A Nova Scotia quayside has been recreated in one of the largest film sets ever built in Britain.

Covering more than 18,000 square feet at the Rank Organization's Pinewood Studios, the set for "High Tide at Noon" is modelled on North West Cove, a small fishing community near Queensland, N.S.

Frame houses, a quayside store and a wooden jetty, all scale-models of their Nova Scotia counterparts, give a real - as - life appearance to the big sound stage. The sense of realism is completed by the "waterfront," a huge tank containing 550 gallons of water in which float Canadian-style fishing dories, one bearing the inscription "Lunenburg, N.S."

"We had to make the set exactly like the real thing," says art director Teddy Carrick, who built it with the aid of on-the-spot sketches and more than 200 photographs taken earlier this year while the cast was on location in Canada.

"We shot all the panoramic scenes at North West Cove, itself. So the set here had to be correct in every detail."

"High Tide at Noon," a story of Nova Scotia lobster fishermen, stars British actor Michael Craig, who once lived in Canada, and American actress Betty St. John. The cast also includes veteran Canadian actor Alexander Knox of London, Ont.

Craig, a newcomer to the British screen, went to Canada at the age of 10 and attended Upper Canada College, Toronto, before spending six years at sea as a merchant sailor. Nov. 27, he has been acting for about five years.

OIL SUPPLY "GRAVE" LONDON (AP) — Britain's oil emergency committee worked overtime Tuesday to meet the threat to the country's oil supply which Labor leader Hugh Gaitskell described as in an "extremely grave" situation.

A spokesman for the committee said: "Urgent measures are being taken to get additional supplies from the United States and Venezuela."

He refused to discuss what moves are under way.
