

FOOD RATIONING IN INDIA

Sukhan Lal, a food merchant in the Paharganj Bazaar checks the rationing card of a woman customer in New Delhi. Food rationing was begun Wednesday in the Indian capital, and is expected to be soon effective in all major cities of the country. (AP Wirephoto via cable from New Delhi)

EAST BALTIC

George Roache, Souris, is a patient in the P.E.I. Hospital, Charlottetown, due to injuries he received to his foot while playing. George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roache, Souris. The Male Quartette, Robert Rose, Harold Hunter, Kenneth MacGregor, and Wilbur Jarvis, provided special music at the P.A. Fortune United Church on Sunday morning. They were accompanied by Church organist, Mrs. Clinton Stewart.

Following the evening service at Kingsboro, a congregational hymn-sing was conducted and held in the church basement which was greatly enjoyed by all. Music was supplied by the church organist, Mrs. Clinton Stewart.

John Macdonald, North Lake was recently on business to Hamilton, Ontario. Mrs. Essie Stewart, Kingsboro visited recently with her sister, Annie Townsend, Montague.
