

The New Archbishop.

HIS CONSECRATION IN ST. MARY'S ON SUNDAY—AN IMPOSING CEREMONY AND AN IMMENSE GATHERING.

(Halifax Herald, Monday, Jan. 22.)

THE RECEPTION.

Archbishop O'Brien received a hearty welcome. At Amherst the party which left this Island was augmented by the arrival of the Right Rev. Dr. Rogers, Bishop of Chatham; Rev. Father Donnelly, P. P. of Amherst; Rev. E. F. Murphy, of Halifax, Wm. Compton, of the reception committee, His Lordship Bishop Fabre, of Montreal, and Rev. Father Salmon, of the same place. At 2.15 p. m., on Saturday the whole party left Amherst in a special car which proceeded to the regular express. At Truro His Grace was met by Bishop Cameron, of Antigonish, and the Halifax clerical and lay delegations.

All arrived in the city about 8.30, the whole journey having been of the pleasantest. His Grace at every point received the warmest welcome and on his stepping from the train at North street received quite an ovation. He was there formally welcomed to Halifax by ex-Mayor Tobin, chairman of the reception committee, and was escorted to Sir Edward Kenny's sleigh, which was in waiting. The rest of the party having entered sleighs which had been engaged for them, all started off amidst loud cheers from an immense crowd of people who had assembled in an about the station. The party drove to the Glebe House, outside of which another large crowd had assembled to see the new head of their church in this diocese, of whom they had heard so many gratifying reports.

THE CONSECRATION.

The services in connection with the consecration of the Rev. Dr. O'Brien, as Archbishop of the Diocese of Halifax, took place yesterday in St. Mary's Cathedral. The heavy rain storm which began at an early hour in the morning continued with violence throughout the forenoon, and the immense gathering of people—completely filling the spacious edifice—had to face one of the worst storms of the season in order to be present at the ceremony. It is estimated that over two thousand persons were in attendance.

THE DECORATIONS.

The Cathedral had been elaborately decorated, and those who had charge of this important work must be congratulated upon having done it thoroughly and in excellent taste. The pillars are trimmed with evergreen trained gracefully round each, with banners suspended from the top of each column. The sides of the aisles are festooned with fir, and shields, crosses and other devices are interspersed. The front of the organ gallery bears the words "Gloria in Excelsis Deo," the letters being white on a crimson ground. The decoration of the Sanctuary is especially beautiful, the work of the Rev. Father Hamilton, of Londonderry, who is, perhaps, unequalled in this particular line. Over the Sanctuary two long strings of flowers cross each other, drawn up in the centre so as to assume the shape of a canopy. The altars have evidently had much care bestowed on them.

THE SERVICE.

Precisely at the time appointed for the service to commence, eleven o'clock, the procession entered from the side chapel in the following order:—

- Thurifer.
Acolyte Sub-Deacon with Cross. Acolyte.
Assistant Master of Ceremonies.
(Father Hamilton, Londonderry.)
Clergy.
Bishop Rogers, Chatham, and Chaplain.
Bishop Cameron, Arichat, and Chaplain.
Master of Ceremonies to Archbishop Elect.
(Father Ellis.)
Chaplain for Book of Gospels.
Chaplain to assist Bishops.
(Dr. Howley, St. John's Nfld., and Father Gregory McDonald, P. E. Island.)
Bishop Sweeney, ARCHBISHOP ELECT. McIntyre, St. John.
Crozier Bearer. Mitre Bearer.
Three Book Bearers.
Master of Ceremonies.
(Father Murphy.)
Sub-Deacon of Mass, with Missal.
Very Rev. Dr. McDonald, P. E. I.
Deacon of Mass, Asst. Priest.
V. R. Mgr. Power, V. R. Canon Carmody.
Officiating Bishop.
Bishop Fabre, Montreal.
Crozier Bearer. Mitre Bearer.
Bagia Bearer. Book Bearer.

His Lordship Bishop Fabre, of Montreal, was the consecrator, the Very Rev. Canon Carmody, Garrison Chaplain, assistant priest; Very Rev. Mgr. Power, Deacon of the Mass; Very Rev. Dr. McDonald, V. G. of Georgetown, sub-deacon; Rev. E. F. Murphy, Master of Ceremonies; Rev. W. B. Hamilton, Assistant Master of Ceremonies.

The first assistant Bishop to the Archbishop elect was Bishop Sweeney, of St. John, the second being Bishop McIntyre, of Charlottetown.

The Archbishop's Chaplains were the Rev. Dr. Howley, of St. John's Nfld., and the Rev. Gregory McDonald, of Bear River, P. E. I.

The Apostolic Brief was read by the Rev. E. F. Murphy, after which the mass was said by His Lordship Bishop Fabre.

THE SERMON.

At the conclusion of the consecration ceremony His Lordship Bishop Cameron, ascended the pulpit and preached an eloquent sermon from the text: "To whom much hath been given, of him shall be much required," etc. Luke XII. 48.

His Lordship, who has not been very well for a few days past, was seriously indisposed yesterday morning, so ill indeed that at one time it was feared he would be unable to perform the important duty assigned him. This illness, did not in any way weaken His Lordship's discourse, which was delivered without manuscript and in a clear ringing voice, the immense congregation listening eagerly to the close.

THE MUSIC.

On no previous occasion at the Cathedral has so much attention been paid to the rendering of the music incidental to the service as at the consecration yesterday. The full choir was present, and beside the organ, which was admirably played by Miss Page, a portion of the band of the Prince of Wales's Own Regiment accompanied the singers. The effect of the combined efforts of vocalists and instrumentalists was magnificent. While the Celebrant was being vested for Mass, Prof. Currie sang Veni Sancte Spiritus, with flute obbligato. The Kyrie Eleison and Credo of Hayden's second mass was also sung in splendid style. As a recessional "Silver Trumpets" (march) was played by the full band, assisted by the organ, the effect being grand. To Prof. Currie, under whose direction the Cathedral choir now is, is due very great praise for the excellence of yesterday's music. The gentleman has long been recognized in musical circles as a singer of great ability, and he must now rank as a most accomplished director.

When the ceremony was over, His Grace was presented with addresses of congratulation and welcome by the Clergy of the Arch-diocese and by the laymen of Halifax. The address of the latter was accompanied with a purse of one thousand dollars.

Mr. T. A. LePage's Lecture.

It needed no particular demonstration of the fact to inform us that the "place and work of the poet" have very little interest for the mass of the people of Charlottetown; and it was not at all surprising that Mr. LePage's lecture drew but a small audience. Indeed it is questionable whether, if Tennyson himself, with all his well-earned fame, were to come among us, he would make half as much stir here as Hanlan, or O'Sullivan, or Rowell; and so Mr. LePage need not feel hurt if, on his first appearance as a lecturer, and especially when religious services were going on in several of the Churches, the hearers were few. Among them, however, were Professor Anderson, Mr. Mellish, Dr. Taylor, Judge Alley, ex-Governor Laird, Charles Palmer, Esq., Mr. William Kennedy, Mr. Newson, and nearly all the teachers of the City; and if few they were appreciative. The lecture is one of the finest compositions of the kind we ever heard. Mr. LePage read it quietly, employing none of the arts of an elocutionist; and riveted attention from the beginning to the end. After the end had been reached, Mr. LePage was warmly complimented by Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Mellish, Mr. Palmer, Mr. Laird and Professor Anderson, and was tendered a cordial vote of thanks. We shall to-morrow give readers of THE EXAMINER a careful review of the lecture.

Civic Election.

The election to-day does not excite much attention, and comparatively few votes are being polled. As we go to press, the state of the poll is:—

- Ward 1—Koughan, 91; Ball, 41.
2—Douse, 100; McDonald, 59.
3—Crabbe, 86; Campbell, 73.
4—Ladner, 145; Chappelle, 96.
5—Tanton, 183; McLean, 132.

Sad Drowning Accident.

The Halifax Herald's LaHave correspondent writes:—"The schr. 'James A. Garfield,' of Gloucester, James McKinnon, master, at La Have on the 16th inst., from St. Peter's Bank, reports the loss of six men in the N. E. gale and snowstorm of the 10th inst. These men left in their dorys on the morning of that day to haul their trawls. Shortly afterwards the gale sprang up, accompanied by a heavy snow storm, and they never regained the vessel. The names of the lost men are William Morrison, of London, Eng; John McKinnon, of P. E. Island; Edw. Brophy, of Prospect, N. S.; John Whitman, of Guysboro, N. S.; Andrew Dunn, of Gaspe, and Charles Ray, of Portland, Maine. The 'James A. Garfield' sailed from LaHave for home on the morning of the 19th inst.

A Jackson, Texas lawyer, has written asking for information of Michael Nott Anderson, who is heir to upwards of $9, 000,000, less $750,000, as heir to the estate of Mr. Cameron, of Edinburgh, Scotland. Michael Anderson was last heard of at Brockville, Ont., about five years ago; since which time he has not been heard of.

Villainous Attempt to Murder.

A FARM LABORER ATTACKS HIS EMPLOYER.

HOCHLEGA, Quebec, Jan. 19.—An imitator of Mann has turned up in Longue Pointe village in the person of one Timothy Danley alias Malloy, a pensioner, lately an employee of Nesbitt, a farmer. Nesbitt discharged and paid him off a few days ago and this morning between six and seven while Nesbitt was milking his cows he found Malloy around the stable. Nesbitt ordered him away and then proceeded with his work. While emptying the milk cans Malloy came upon him unawares and presented a pistol at his head and fired the shot taking effect in the muscles of the neck. Finding his man not dead he (Malloy) took up a shovel with which to finish his work. Fortunately for Nesbitt the shovel was a wooden one and broke at the first blow. Nesbitt then made his escape to the house followed by Malloy who was met by Mrs. Nesbitt who stood in his way armed with a heavy poker and who ordered him back at his peril. Malloy was cowed and seeing that he had failed in his attempt, jumped on a horse and fled but turned the horse loose on the public highway and proceeded on foot for Montreal. Nesbitt's other hired man gave the alarm and Malloy was arrested on the highway in Hochleaga. He is now confined in the Hochleaga police station. Nesbitt is dangerously, perhaps mortally, wounded. So close was the shot fired that Nesbitt's neck was all burned by the powder. His intention was supposed to be the murder of the whole family and robbery. Malloy was pluckily arrested by Messrs. Kydke and Greeze. He pretends ignorance and denies all knowledge of the affair. Mrs. Nesbitt, being afraid to remain at home, harnessed the horse herself and drove Mr. Nesbitt to her neighbor's, Mrs. Greeze, where they now are.

We hear that the orders for "Picturesque Canada" which are coming in from the United States far exceed the expectation of the publishers. New York City, especially, takes kindly to the work, the orders from that quarter being particularly numerous. As a work of art (if for no other reason) "Picturesque Canada" is equal to anything of the kind ever produced.

DIED.

At her residence, Lot 48, on Dec. 22, 1882, Mary, relict of the late Gregory Pippy, aged 88 years. Her end was peace.
At Rosebank, N. B., on the 8th inst., Timothy Annand, son of S. J. and Hannah Gillis, aged 3 years and 2 months.
