SWAP Student Work Abroad Program

Planning a trip to Europe this summer? Money a little tight? SWAP can arrange a job in London and other parts of Britain. Have fun and spend 3 or 4 months getting to know the place. Heather Crosbie of CUTS' Halifax office will be speaking on campus and will have all the information on SWAP and the full range of CUTS Services.

Monday, January 16 at 6:00 p.m. on the second floor of the Barn.

Winter Carnival plans snowballing

The 1984 edition of the UPEI Winter Carnival is now being planned for the week of February 1 to 4.

This year's agenda will include six days of fun and frolic that organizers hope will go down in UPEI history books as the best carnival this University has ever seen.

Events will include a Main Event starring Gilt and a hypnotist by the name of Damont who will perform in the Duffy Amphitheatre.

Also returning this year will be the notorious Campus Cabaret in the Steel Recital Hall and the Coronation Ball, being held this year at the brand-new Hilton International.

Everyone is urged to attend any or all events and get rid of those "mid-winter blues".

Anyone interested in helping out with this year's Winter Carnival is more than welcome to do so. Dates, times, places, and even more yummy events will be announced, so until party time, so long!
