POINTER FOR ADVERTISERS "The measure of a man's fortune," declared Bacon, "is in his own hands." That is so; for though it may occasionally happen that (as Shakespeare has it) "fortune brings in some boats that are not steered," yet it behooves each one of us to remember that if we would "catch Dame Fortune's golden smile," we must, as a rule, "assiduously wait upon her." Advertising in THE EXAMINER is one way of waiting upon Dame Fortune.

MAKES FLESH AND BLOOD.—When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat in fact, Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life," and has saved and cured thousands. CONCERT.—The Hall at Marshfield presented an attractive appearance last night, on the occasion of the entertainment under the auspices of the Y P S. of that place. Long before eight o'clock every available seat was filled, and chairs were brought in to fill the need. On account of Mr. Mahon's illness he was not able to attend and the chair was occupied by Rev. Mr. Spargo. An excellent programme consisting of vocal and instrumental solos, readings, etc, had been prepared, and every number was rendered to the satisfaction of the audience, as the outbursts of applause testified The soloists were all from the city, and it goes without saying that they pleased everyone. After the entertainment those who had taken part were invited to the manse, where they might refresh the inner man and women, and prepare for the drive home, as during the evening a storm had come on, and it was anything but pleasant with the roads in the condition they were. The names of those from the city who took part are Mrs. Roome, Miss Cummings, Miss D. Lewis, Prof D. J McLeod, Mr. F H. Beer, Mr. John A McLaren, M Alex Bruce, Mr. R E Johnson, Mr W Knight and Mr. W McKay About fifty drove out from town including those who took part.

FRANCE and England wouldn't be without it for the world. Canada is fast feeling the way too The great Lessive Phenix, the marvellous washing solutive. The common powders and the common ashes, which the housewifes had to use, have now fallen into the contempt which is their proper portion. Lessive Phenix is a synonym for beauty. Beauty of hands in the wash; beauty of clothes when washed, beauty of the skin when used in the bath. You use it for all kinds of washing; and then you use it for all kinds of cleaning and scouring. A boon to tired, worn woman

SOME tobaccos spurt up in the pipe while smoking, with little crackling explosions. This is caused by the addition of foreign matter to assist the combustion. When the purity of the tobacco is not tampered with and it has been properly taken care of, this combustible foreign matter is wholly unnecessary. For in that case it burns at a lower temperature than almost anything else. Nothing of this kind is seen in smoking the "Myrtle Navy" It burns with steady combustion throughout.

STOLE EMPTY CASKS.—A young man named John Ingles, who lives on Brighton Road, near Victoria, Park, appeared before His Honor yesterday to answer the charge of stealing empty casks from Carvell Bros. When asked what he had to say in answer to the charge, Ingles said he was guilty He acknowledged that he had stolen sixteen casks in all, the majority of which he had sold back to the owners. He sold one lot to Mr Rattenbury, and had some more stored about one of the wharves. His Honor gave him two months with hard labor. Another charge of breaking and entering the premises of Senator Howlan and stealing therefrom some pencils and a memorandum book, the property of the caretaker, a man named Chase, was adjourned for eight days.
