HOBBY AND HOBBYIST

The fame with which an Islander's hobby has spread is indicated in a communication received by Colonel E.W. Johnstone of Long River whose miniature reproductions of English castles and buildings has become one of the Island's leading tourist attractions. A Belgian newspaper in making a request for more information concerning the Colonel's hobby explains that they received the illustrated booklet from the Belgian Ambassador to Canada and would like to know more detail about the size of the miniature buildings etc. They intend to use a large illustrated pictorial in their publication and would be happy to have more information about the hobbyist and what prompted him to start his hobby. Colonel Johnstone has been promised a copy of the Belgian edition when it goes to press.
