

Here the designers have explored all the simplicity of colonial styling and combined it with the convenience of modern split level construction. There are no long flights of stairs in this attractive home. The partial basement, beneath the sleeping area, houses the garage, laundry extra laundry, and utility room with Living-Dining-Kitchen area on the middle (entrance) level. Upstairs are three bedrooms, with ample cupboard space plus a four piece bathroom. While not shown on the illustration, the blueprints now include a fireplace (with chimney) on the right hand end wall, and a full basement with a recreation room including an additional fireplace under the living area. Construction is frame with stone accent.

Alberton S. Man Sentenced To Two Months In PC Jail

SUMMERSIDE — An Alberton Sault man, Clarence Edward Powers, was sentenced to two months in Prince County Jail when he appeared yesterday before Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald in Prince County Court for sentencing after pleading guilty at a previous session to a charge of possession of stolen goods valued at over $50.

The item, a photograph valued at approximately $100, was sold by the accused and when asked by the magistrate what he had obtained for the article, Powers replied "a quart of liquor".

Crown Prosecutor George R. McMahon recommended a lengthy sentence for the accused after two previous criminal records were produced in court.

One of two impaired driving charges against Carl Crowder of Kensington was withdrawn and the accused pleaded guilty to the second. Kensington Town Constable Vernon Reeves, the

Campaign Hits 75 Per Cent

SUMMERSIDE — R. A. Horne, general chairman of the Prince County Hospital fund, announced yesterday 75 per cent of the objective, or $188,740 has been collected so far. Goal for the drive is $250,000. Many canvassers, especially those covering the town, have not yet reported their results.

No-Show Police Adjudges Case

In Queen's County Magistrate's Court yesterday afternoon Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, adjourned the case of Everett Roy MacMillan, Pownal until Jan. 8. Mr. MacMillan is charged with passing on a solid white line, and was represented in court by Bert Campbell. The case was adjourned when the RCMP failed to make an appearance in court. Crown Prosecutor Alan Seales called the officer in question on the telephone and he reported that the officer had forgotten he was required in court.
