AD DOROTHEAM.

Stanzas Written by W. E. Gladstone to his Little Granddaughter.

I know where there is honey in a jar,
Meet for a certain little friend of mine;
And, Dorothy, I know where daisies are
That only wait small hands to intertwine
A wreath for such a golden head as thine.

The thought that thou art coming makes all glad;
The house is bright with blossoms high
and low,
And many a little lass and little lad
Expectantly are running to and fro;
The fire within our hearts is all aglow.

We want thee, child, to share in our delight
On this high day, the holiest and best,
Because 'twas then ere youth had taken flight,
Thy grandmamma of women loveliest,
Made me of men most honored and most blest.

That naughty boy who led thee to suppose
He was the sweetest art has, I grieve to tell,
Been seen to pick the garden's choicest rose
And tiddle with it to another belle,
Who does not treat him altogether well
But mind not that, or let it teach thee
this—
To waste no love on any youthful rover
(All youths are rovers, I assure thee Miss)
No, if thou wouldst true constancy discover,
That grandpa is perfect as a lover.

So come, then playmate of my closing day,
The latest treasure life can offer me—
And with thy baby laughing make us gay,
The fresh young voice shall sing my
do ethy,
Songs that shall bid the feet of sorrow
flee.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS.

Joints and Limbs Were Swollen Three Times Their Natural Size—The Sufferer in Bed for a Year and a Half.

From the Echo, Warton, Ont.

Mrs. William Thew, who is well known in the town of Warton, was a sufferer from heart trouble and articular rheumatism for a period of fifteen years. Lately her condition has so much improved that a reporter of the Echo called upon her to ascertain to what cause the change was due. Mrs. Thew while not courting publicity, consented to give a brief statement of her case in hope that some other sufferer might be benefited. She said: "My joints were all swollen up to three times their natural size and for a year and a half I was unable to leave my bed. I secured medical treatment and the doctors told me I would never be able to walk again. I took medicine they prescribed but it failed to give any relief. I took patent medicines but they did not help me. Having noticed an advertisement in a paper for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I concluded to give them a trial and they gave me relief from the time I commenced using them about the first of January last. I have taken ten boxes. I am now able to go around without assistance and do all my housework." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of disease. They renew and build up blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is inclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.
