SUMMONS SERVED

William Manchester is author of the book "Death of a President," the publication of which Mrs. John F. Kennedy apparently tried to block Tuesday by serving a summons on Look Magazine and Harper and Row publishers in New York. Mrs. Kennedy chose Manchester to record events of the assassination "in the interest of accuracy" but later was reported disturbed by his use of some of her personal recollections in the book. Look Magazine editor-in-chief William Attwood said the magazine was going ahead with plans to serialize the book. (AP Wirephoto)

Teachers Seek Wage Increase

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto school teachers will be asking for a 25-per-cent salary increase at their next bargaining session, Barry Lewis, chairman of the Toronto board of education, predicted.

Mr. Lewis told the Association of Women Electors that teachers are becoming more organized than ever before. Salary negotiations will begin early in 1967. Mr. Lewis also predicted that the Metropolitan Toronto school board will implement a uniform salary schedule.

A letter from the North York district of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers Federation to the North York education board Monday requested a 25-per-cent across-the-board increase for secondary school teachers. Principals requested a minimum salary of $21,000 a year.

Mr. Lewis said it is frightening to think how much teacher salary increases could amount to. "Yet we must recognize that the cost of living has gone up much as 12 per cent in the past couple of years."
