With a cheery smile and a wave of her hand
She entered into an unknown land
But we think of her now as we did before
She only waits on the other shore.

Not close walled within the tomb
Rather in our father's mansion
Living in another room.

As Angels keep their watch up there,
Please God just let him know,
That we down here do not forget,
We love and miss him so.
Sadly missed and always remembered by His wife and family and his grandchildren.

Flynn Estate Goes To Wife

NEW YORK (AP)—Film star Errol Flynn left the bulk of his estate to his estranged wife, actress Patrice Wymore, his will disclosed Wednesday.

A former wife, Nora Eddington, and Flynn's 17-year-old girl friend, Beverly Aadland, immediately indicated they planned to challenge the will.

The value of the estate was not shown in the document filed for probate in surrogates court. It was listed as simply being "more than $20,000." Other reports said it was more than $100,000 but well under $1,000,000.

No mention was made in the will, drawn up in 1954, of Miss Aadland, with whom Flynn was travelling at the time of his death.

The actor died in Vancouver last Wednesday of a heart attack. He was 50.

Other bequests were made to his parents and children — two daughters by his second wife Miss Eddington and a son by his first wife, ex-actress Lili Damita.
