

Tigers Pound Cleveland; Yankees Whip Red Sox 6-1

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Detroit Tigers erupted for 11 runs in the first three innings Thursday and hung on for a 13-7 triumph over Cleveland Indians, ending a winless Briggs Stadium streak that extended through 15 games. In the other American League with a home run, double and afternoon game, New York's Gil McDougald bolstered southpaw Whitey Ford's seven-hit pitching single for a 6-1 Yankee victory over Boston at Boston's rain-drenched Fenway Park. The contest was the first half of a scheduled day-night double-header and was played in a steady drizzle because the game was postponed because of the rain.

Jim Busby smashed a grand slammer in the first inning following an error, a hit batsman and a walk. Al Rosen connected for another with two men aboard in the sixth. Ford turned the Red Sox for the third time in a row this season—all complete games. The triumph was his 10th of the season against four setbacks.
