

THE ITALIAN NEGOTIATIONS.—COURT CAUVOR, in answer to interpellations addressed to him in the Chamber of Deputies, declared that the negotiation now pending, on the subject of the affairs of Italy, imposed upon him no special reserve. He explained the moral and material advantages arising out of the treaty of peace. The Italian question has been brought before the Congress, and France and England have frankly adopted the views of Piedmont. Austria wished to consider it as non avenue, but this was rejected. The Italian question is henceforth an European one. The Minister declared, in conclusion, that the relations between Sardinia and Austria had not improved. The Piedmontese Government placed its whole reliance in the omnipotence of public opinion.

GREAT COUNTRY FOR A LAZY MAN.—DR. McBEAN, in his lecture on Nicaragua, on Monday night, drew a picture of what could be done in that country by a man who was not disposed to waste much time in labour, or to reside to live independent. The government gave him 260 acres of land, and the first necessity was a house. This want was quickly supplied by the placing of four posts uprightly in the ground, the spaces between which were filled with the common cane, which grew in abundance around, and then plastering with mud. The roof was then thatched with grass, and the house was thus completed. Little or no relation between Sardinia and Austria for all purposes of a bed and seat, and almost any kind of earthen vessel would answer to cook in.

The next care was to plant about a dozen banana or plantain trees, which needed no further care; about fifty yards of land should be planted and planted with yams, which if raised properly, would yield enormously. The common feijoua and Lima beans would grow with the yams as well as other vegetables, and all the native fruits of the country were almost indigenous.

The plantains and yams would yield more than enough for the subsistence of an entire family, and game of every variety could be shot almost from the door of the house. The climate was such, as to render little or no clothing absolutely necessary, and thus, with some monthly labor, a man can get on comfortably a year. Isn't that the country for a lazy man?—N. O. PECKUNE.

TRUMPHS OF YANKEE GENIUS.—The steamer Erickson, which sailed to-day for Liverpool, took out one of Ho's six cylinder lighting printing presses, for the London Times. It was sent out with the press on a "feeder," accompanied by a foreman. This is better than a victory on the battle-field.—N. Y. MIRROR, 10th.

A GOLD MINE IN NEW-YORK.—We have a letter from Amsterdam, Montgomery Co., giving an account of the accidental discovery by a party of children of a bed of auriferous quartz in a cave on the premises of Jonathan Balger. Some of the children broke off pieces of the gold-bearing rock, and carried them home. Next morning the father was sent out with the press on a "feeder," accompanied by a foreman. This is better than a victory on the battle-field.—N. Y. MIRROR, 10th.

THE SARDINIANS AND THEIR WARLIKE TROPHIES.—Independently of the 200 pieces of artillery, bestowed by the English Government on the Sardinian army, it had courteously presented it with the English batteries which the Sardinian artillerymen manned at the battle of the Tchernaya. The present, offered by a friendly nation, must have been joyfully received by our army. Those guns, as well as the 200 others and different articles, assigned to the Sardinians as their portion of the conquered material, which are now being embarked for Piedmont will prove a valuable token of the honorable participation of our soldiers in that campaign.—Piedmontese Gazette.

A great number of our screw gunboats will be sold by the government of the East India Company, and will be employed to root out the hordes of pirates up the creeks in the China seas. No description of vessels could be better adapted for such a service.

THE MISSING ARTICLE OF THE TREATY.—PARIS SUNDAY—April 27.—The plenipotentiaries of the Congress of Paris to-day at three o'clock, at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and proceeded to the exchange of the ratification of the Treaty of Peace.

The official document contains the articles omitted in the copy of the treaty we published last week. They are as follows:—

ARTICLE 5.
Their Majesties the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Emperor of all the Russias, the King of Sardinia, and the Sultan, grant a full and entire amnesty to those of their subjects who may have been compromised by any participation whatsoever in the events of the war in favor of the cause of the enemy. It is expressly understood, that such amnesty shall be granted to all those persons, whether the belligerent parties, who may have continued during the war to be employed in the services of one of the other belligerents.

ARTICLE 6.
Prisoners of war shall be immediately given up on either side.

ARTICLE 7.
Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, his Majesty the Emperor of Austria, his Majesty the Emperor of the French, his Majesty the King of Prussia, his Majesty the King of the Romans, his Majesty the King of Sardinia, and his Majesty the King of Sardinia, declare the Sublime Porte admitted to participate in the advantages of the public law and system (concert) of Europe. Their Majesties engage, each on his part, to respect the independence and the territorial integrity of the Ottoman Empire, and guarantee in common the strict observance of that engagement, and will, in consequence, consider any act tending to its violation as a question of general interest.

ARTICLE 8.
If there should arise between the Sublime Porte and one or more of the other signing Powers any misunderstanding which might endanger the maintenance of their relations, the Sublime Porte and each of such Powers before having recourse to the use of force, shall address to the other contracting Powers the opportunity of preventing such an extremity by means of their mediation.

A collision has occurred in the Baltic, between two steamers, the one on her voyage from Kiel, and the other on her voyage from Korsor. Both the steamers were sunk; but the passengers have been saved.

RETIREMENT OF THE FRENCH ARMY FROM THE CRIMEA.—The French army is rapidly retiring from Russian soil. Gen. Canby's division, consisting of the 10th, 57th, 61st, and 63rd Regiments, left Eupatoria and embarked on board the Warren, Jena, Dupero, Mogador, and Sirene, which soon afterwards proceeded direct for France. Only two of these vessels are steamers; the rest are sailing ships, two of the line, and one a frigate. The division left the 17th Chasseurs and its artillery behind. Kinburn has been evacuated, and is now in the hands of the Russians, and the 1st Regiment of the Line (French), which formed the garrison, has returned to the Crimea in the ships which formed the blockading squadron of the Bag and Diener. All the soldiers of the class of 1848 will be at once sent back to France as soon as the means of transport can be provided for them, but the means of our ally are not ample in proportion to the enormous amount of living and inorganic material with which he has to deal, and there is serious talk of her seeking permission to send her artillery and cavalry horse round to France all through Europe. The French have about 35,000 horses and mules in the Crimea, and, as the distance to France is about 2,500 miles, it would take such a cavalcade not less than 10 or 12 weeks to accomplish the journey. It is not quite so easy to see how they could find food on the road. The emergency of the French to get away from the Crimea generally is undeniable. As for your Englishman, he's a bit of a "stick," it's he who makes tons and pronounces, and is in no hurry to depart.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF ASTHMA! BY AN OLD LADY, ABOUT FIFTY YEARS OF AGE.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Thomas Weston, (Buck and Faversham) To supply the demand for SEEDS in every variety, warranted the growth of 1855. A further supply daily expected per Ship or Atlantic direct.
To Professor Holloway.
Sir,—Gratitude compels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit an aged patient has derived from your Ointment. My complaint was attended for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood; it was quite agony to see her suffer and live for long. I have often declared, that I would give all I possessed to have her cured; but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose. About three months ago, I thought perhaps your Pills might benefit her; all I could resolve to give her this trial, which I did; the result was surprising, by slow degrees my mother became better, and after persevering with your remedies for nine weeks, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy-five years old.
I remain, Sir,
Your obliged,
(Signed) THOMAS WESTON.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER BEING TAPPED THREE TIMES.
Copy of a Letter from John Smith, Esq., Halifax, Nova Scotia, dated the 25th August, 1854 To Professor Holloway.

I am glad to say my testimony to the value of your Pills, in cases of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torments with the distressing complaint now so happily relieved by your Pills, given by the doctors; I lived, because in appearance as a skeleton, and with so much strength in me that a walk was not too much for me. After the trial of trying your Pills, and immediately sent for a quantity and commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true to it. After using them for four weeks, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health.
I am, Sir,
Yours sincerely
(Signed) ANTHONY SMITH.

To Professor Holloway,
Sir,—I am happy to say, that your Pills have restored me to health, and suffered for six years from the most intense general debility and languor, my liver and bowels were so much deranged for these reasons, that I find many medicines bad, but they were of good to me, and I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which, and following the printed directions, I was cured, and feel every day more enabled to fill the attainment of my neighbor's acquisition, and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for the astonishing restoration of health, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

I remain, Sir, your humble servant,
