

Business Society vs. Engineers

by Mary Anne Hutchinson.

There has long been a bitter battle waged between the exemplary students of Business Administration and the somewhat grubby inhabitants of the Engineering building. A week from this Friday, on Oct. 14 during the afternoon, that battle will be continued on the football field. The Chairman of the Engineering department has accepted the challenge presented by Walter Isenor, loyal leader of the Business troops, and there remains only the task of completing the team rosters. People interested in playing touch football for the Business squad are asked to sign the list which will be posted on the bulletin board in Kelly Bldg. All able-bodied men and women are asked to sign up. Those Engineering students willing to be defeated should see Don Gillis. It should be noted that the winning team will receive two 24's of their favourite brand which they can dispose of as they see fit, courtesy of the Business Society. The final details as to exact time and location of the confrontation will be posted in Kelly Bldg next week.

We have finally managed to come up with what we consider to be a suitable crest for the Business Society jackets. The emblem, which was designed by a senior business student, Willard Horne, will be white on a black kangaroo jacket. Our best estimate from our supplier is a price of approx. $12.00 per jacket and we doubt are Business students, except Sharon, who is in third year Arts and is well known on campus for her skill on a basketball court. We are sure the last item of news about this race will be a pleasant one... all students will be admitted WITHOUT CHARGE by showing their student I.D. card at the gate. We wish them all success.

Last night at the Ch'town Driving Park the U.P.E.I. pace was run. The finishers were:

- 1st- Sharon MacLure on Storms Over
 - 2nd- Mike Gallant on Sharp Burr
 - 3rd- Kevin McCarville on Rum Julep
 - 4th- Kevin Gallant on Key Teresa
 - 5th- Scott Campbell on Lucky Daryl
- Sharon came in in 2:17

that the price will be higher. A table will be set up in Kelly next week to take orders. A deposit of at least $6.00 is required, and we hope to have delivery before Christmas. A copy of the crest will also be on hand for your viewing pleasure.

The Business Society has managed to secure one of the pubs during Fall Fest next week. We will co-sponsor the Wednesday afternoon pub with the Education Society. This means that we will receive a percentage of the profits which will be used to benefit business students this year. We emphasize the fact that this pub is open to all students, however we hope to see a sizeable turnout from the Business dept. Incidentally, for you sports freaks, there will be a telecast of one of the World Series games during the pub, and you can watch the game in comfort on the Student Union's new T.V. PLEASE BE THERE!!!!!!!

The next business society party is just around the corner, Oct. 26.

In conclusion, for any of you who didn't hear, the winner of the free course tuition was Stephen Dowling.

Watch for more B.S. news in future issues of the SUN.
