

Remember, Boys Make Men.

When you see a ragged urchin Standing wistful in the street, With torn hat and kneeless trousers, Dirty face and bare, red feet, Pass not by the child unheeding;

When the buoyant, youthful spirits Overflow in boyish freak, Chide your child in gentle accents; Do not in your anger speak.

Have you ever seen a grandire, With his eyes aglow with joy, Bring to mind some act of kindness— Something said to him a boy?

Let us try to add some pleasures To the life of every boy; For each child needs tender interest In all its sorrows and its joys;

Troubles of an Editor.

Editing a newspaper is a very nice business, says a contemporary, and those who know nothing about it consider it a very easy business. If we publish jokes, people say we are rattle-headed, and if we omit jokes, we are an old fossil.

The facts are, that the interest, the morality, the variety and usefulness of a paper depend in no small degree upon its selected matter, and a few men are capable of the position who would not be able to write many of the articles they select.

A newspaper and a newspaper editor that people don't talk about and sometimes abuse are rather poor concerns. The men and business that an editor sometimes feels it a duty to defend, at the risk of making enemies of another class, are the very first to show ingratitude.

Rich Men.

Why is Easter Not a Fixed Date?

Christmas is always on December 25th, why should not Easter be fixed with equal certainty? It is not a particular date that is observed, but a particular Sunday. How to decide upon the Sunday, gave the very early churches much trouble, and there were differences on that account, but the matter was settled at a council held at Nice, in the year 325.
