O'Leary and Vicinity

Mrs. Elva Wedlock of Knutsford and Mrs. Nelson MacWilliams of Cape Wolfe have left for a trip to Boston, Mass., and other American centers.

Mr. Atwood Dunville of O'Leary is the caretaker and the manager of the O'Leary Rink this winter and is doing a splendid piece of work.

Mr. H. A. Jelly of O'Leary and his son, Ray have left on a business trip to Montreal and Toronto. They will visit Mr. Jelly's brother at Newmarket, Ont.

—Little Miss Margaret Woodridge of O'Leary was operated on Sunday, Jan. 14, in the Prince County Hospital in Summerside for appendicitis. Her many friends wish her a complete convalescence.

—Miss Wilma Ramsay of the staff of the Prince County Hospital in Summerside was a visitor to her home in O'Leary during the week end, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ramsay.

The World Wide Guild of the Knutsford Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Avarad Harris. The roll call was answered by nine members. A fine devotional service was held. Miss Joyce MacIsaac read "The Adventures of Ella". Poems were read by Misses Jean Stetson and Lorraine MacNeill. The meeting closed by repeating the Mispah Benediction. A delicious lunch was served after the meeting.

The O'Leary road was extremely icy on Monday after the storm and Tuesday the pavement was a sheet of ice and the gravelled portion of the road can be traversed only with care. This is the most dangerous driving conditions this winter. On Monday night Jan. 15th, during the storm, the I. M. T. bus from Summerside, driven by Marne Wedlock of O'Leary, made O'Leary safely but when enroute to its destination at Tignish, went into the ditch at O'Leary Corner, three miles from the village of O'Leary near St. Luke's Anglican Church. Although shaken up, none of the passengers or the driver were really hurt. Sanding of hills was carried out on Tuesday, Jan. 16th, but the hazardous condition of the roads, caused traffic to move at a slow pace.

—A very largely attended and successful "shower" was held at the home of Mrs. William Bernard in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Turner, newly-weds. Mrs. Turner was formerly Miss Florence Pate of O'Leary. The lovely home was most appropriately decorated for the occasion. Little Miss Cynthia Kennedy ushered the guests of honor to the front of the room. She unwrapped the gifts which were presented by little Miss Karol Bernard and the accompanying verses were read by little Miss Sandra Matthews. The Wedding March was played by Mrs. Lewis Bernard. The popular young couple received many gifts, china, blankets, money etc. Music was supplied by Mrs. Watson Silliker and Mrs. Milford Jelly. A dainty lunch was served and this delightful function terminated by all wishing the guests of honor many years of happy wedded life. They will reside in Murray River where the groom is one of the drivers of the I. M. T.

—The secretary-treasurer of the West Prince Ministerial Association, Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary has announced that the fine total of seventy-five dollars and fifty cents has been sent to the Treasurer of the Protestant Orphanage in Charlottetown. This sum represents the proceeds of the Week of Prayer collections. The Week of Prayer services were held in the Alberton-Elmsdale area and also in the O'Leary area from Jan. 1 to Jan. 5, inclusive. Churches in which the services were held were: O'Leary United; O'Leary Nazarene; Knutsford Baptist; Springfield West Baptist; St. Luke's Anglican Church at O'Leary Corner; Brae United; West Devon United; Elmsdale Nazarene; Elmsdale United and in Alberton all the services were held in the Alberton United Church as it is the largest sacred edifice. Taking part were the following clergymen: Alberton: Revs. P. A. Fitzpatrick, J. B. McManon, G. B. Cunningham. Elmsdale: Revs. W. C. Wilcox, and J. M. Sheen; O'Leary: Rev. C. O. Howlett and Rev. W. G. Dickson also Rev. B. B. Colborne of Springfield West.

On Jan. 10th, Knutsford Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Reggie Adams. Fifteen members answered roll call. The meeting opened by "O Canada" and followed by the Creed in unison. The minutes were read and approved. The sum of $3.04 was taken in from the Film Projector.

The Sick Committee reported no sick calls and the School committee reported that nothing was needed; $400 was taken in from the sale of Christmas cards. It was agreed to send $5 to the T. B. League and $5 to the March of Dimes. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Albert Smallman on Feb. 15th, roll call to be answered by a special offering. The programme consisted of a reading, "Thoughts by the Way," by Mrs. Harry Adams, "Woman of Europe," by Mrs. Roy MacDowell, "A Toast," by Mrs. Thomas Harris. Delicious refreshments were served. The lunch committee for February is as follows: Mrs. Harry Adams; Mrs. Nelson Adams; Mrs. Foster Harris; Mrs. Foster Smallman. The regular meeting of the O'Leary Women's Institute was held at the school with fifteen members present and two guests. Business arising out of the minutes included a report of all outstanding bills paid. It was decided that the choice for a display at the district convention be hooked rugs and these regulations regarding them: (a) original design; (b) limit of three rugs from each Institute; (c) the rug must be owned within the school district. A report was heard from the travelling basket and it was decided that another one be started at the other end of the village. The basket is to be purchased from the funds. Members receiving the present basket were asked to turn it in so that the coin can be replaced and the verse copied for the new basket. The framing of the pictures of Princess Margaret was referred to the next meeting. It was reported that twenty-eight girls wished to be enrolled in the sewing classes. Leslie MacAulay, secretary of the school district addressed the meeting and presented the requested report of the financial standing of the school. The Institute has been of great help in the school, and it is hoped that the members of the Institute may be of further help. Claude Jelly, school trustee, asked the opinion of the meeting as to various suggested improvements. These were unanimously approved. A discussion followed regarding the safety of the front doors in case of fire. It was reported that there was a tendency towards difficulties evacuating the school, when the doors open inwards. The correspondence consisted of a letter from Miss Robin requesting the co-operation of the Institute in re-
