FAITH FOR OUR DAY
Faith can be fortified by regular reading of the Bible and constant prayer. Here are some suggestions for the use of daily Bible readings to have a faith adequate for our day:
1. Set apart a definite time each day for reading your Bible.
2. Take up your Bible with expectancy.
3. Pray for understanding.
4. Look for both comfort and challenge in the passage for the day.
5. Commit to memory any key verse which seems to speak directly to you.

NOTE: Ask at Bible House for a Daily Bible Readings List for 1955.

Lot 65 C. W. L.
The first meeting of St. Ann's sub-division of the Catholic Women's League for the new year was held Jan. 9th, 1955, with an attendance of fourteen members. The meeting opened with prayer by the Reverend Director Father McGarry. The minutes of the November meeting were read by the secretary, adopted as read and signed by the President. The treasurer then gave a very encouraging report which was also adopted as read.

"Thank you" notes for Christmas gifts received were read from Mrs. Amos Monaghan and Earl Griffin. A letter from the Convener of Social Welfare, Mrs. Emmett McQuaid, Kelly's Cross, was read and thereupon the members decided to make a collection of good used clothing for St. Vincent's Orphanage. Mrs. Amos Callaghan was appointed to look after the same. It was moved by Mrs. Linus Trainor and seconded by Mrs. Vincent McCloskey that five dollars be sent to the Sacred Heart Program.

Father McCarthy then addressed the meeting, first thanking the C. W. L. members for the useful Christmas gift he received. He spoke words of encouragement and assured the members of his whole hearted support in all their undertakings for the coming year. A little remembrance was sent to Rev. Father McCormac, the Provincial Director of the C. W. L., who is ill in the hospital. A letter on "Child Guidance" by Sister Mary Winnifred which was read at Mount Stewart Regional Conference was read to the meeting. A suggestion that religious study clubs be formed and a half hour after monthly meetings be devoted to such.

A spiritual Bouquet is to be sent to Reverend Ralph Malone who is still in the Charlottetown Hospital. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned with the "Act of Consecration" by the President.

Thoughts For Our Time

BETTER TO LIGHT LIGHT THAN CURSE DARKNESS

It is not the least mystery of Christianity that God has put such powers for good or evil in the hands of each man born, who can cause the eternal salvation or everlasting loss of his own soul and the souls of others—his family and his children, his associates.

No doubt God could have planned things otherwise. But He did not. Let us, then, look at things as they are. The salvation of our own souls and the souls of others as in our hands. St. Paul says "I fill up in my flesh what is wanting to the sufferings of Christ." Now Christ, by His death, redeemed the whole human race completely. But He has chosen to let the application of the fruits of the Redemption be made through the efforts and sufferings of His followers. As Pope Pius says, in his encyclical on the Mystical Body, "deep mystery this, subject of inexhaustible meditation: that the salvation of many depends on the prayers and voluntary penances which the members of the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ offer for this intention."

Christ has called His followers the salt of the earth and the light of the world. If the salt is not spread and the light not lit, the world will be insipid and dark.

Let us assume you want to carry out your God-given task. What can you do? Is it sufficient for you to live your own Christian life and keep your conscience clear from serious sin against God's laws? No doubt if you do that you will do a great deal. But it is not enough. And it is not enough because all around you are men and women who do not know Christ and who are ignorant of the elementary truths of revelation.

Need Courage
Let us suppose you have sufficient knowledge. An ordinarily well-informed Christian has. We have assumed the desire to spread it. What further is necessary? One thing—courage. It takes fortitude to speak of God in a pagan environment. The Apostles were afraid even of their own people. What gave them courage? The sacrament of confirmation (strengthening) on Pentecost. Those who are confirmed are commissioned, according to their state in life, to bring Christ to those who really want Him and yet do not know Him.

We must remember, too, that courage is greatly strengthened by exercise. The big battle is making a beginning. It is hard to dive into the water the first time. It is difficult to make one's first speech. But the rest is easy, or at least much less difficult.

Are there any particular ways in which to influence one's environment? One manner certainly is to enter those fields of endeavor which of their very nature mould the minds of men—education government, the labor-management field, social work, writing books, magazine or newspaper articles, scripts for television, radio, or the movies.

But, short of this, anyone has enough ordinary contacts to furnish a lifetime of apostolic activity. There are many people who love or respect you and yet do not know what makes you what you are and love for Him. There are many occasions given you to make an approach—questions asked, situations provided. What is lacking? Courage. How can it be aroused? By praying for the fortitude our confirmation provides for us. And by meditating on the fact that if we do not do our job, it will not be done.

All Can Help
Are you alarmed by a decrease in church attendance and in family and private prayer in the last century? By the impurity paraded in modern movies, plays, musicals, advertising books, magazines and newspapers? By the breakup of families by unfaithful divorce and drunkenness? By the increase in juvenile delinquency and wholesale crime reported every day in the newspapers? Do you believe that we are all in part responsible for it? That we can all do something about it? That we all are commanded to do something about it?

It is easy to complain about the present situation, and yet not do what we can to better it. But it is better to light one light than to curse the darkness. It is amazing what one person can do. We have all met individuals whose dedication to a life of self-sacrifice in order to make the world better has amazed us, then fired us with enthusiasm and imitation. We can do the same for others.

Will the world be better or poorer for our having been in it? Or will it be just about the same? In other words, are we mediocre and lukewarm? You say there are many such? But have they the knowledge and opportunity you have? Deep mystery, this...

Strange But True

By F. H. MacArthur
The first man in the world to file a property claim on the moon is Harold Rothman of Phoenix, Arizona. And strange but true, the 100,000 acre claim on the surface of the lamp of night was accepted by the Maricopa County recorder's office, in Phoenix.

The following little story shows how money can grow, when given a chance. In 1844 Frederick Sheffield of Middleton, Conn., opened a savings account with $8. Eight months later he added $18 to his account. He never put another shakedown in the bank nor did he make any withdrawals. Through the years the $28 continued to earn interest.

Today, a little more than 110 years later, the Sheffield account has mushroomed to $3,077.05. H. B. Smith, present bank manager says it's the oldest bank account in the United States.

The original bank book is now in the hands of a great-grandson of the man who made that $8 deposit back in 1844. He is a New York City lawyer, named Fred W. Sheffield.

Isn't it amazing how interest will pile up over the years. In this case it averaged 4.58 per cent.

There is no explanation why Sheffield never claimed the money in his lifetime.

The okapi. What a strange name for an animal! The history of the discovery of this strange creature dates back only a few years, and the credit for bringing it to light goes to Sir Harry Johnston who was special Commissioner in Uganda and Naturalist of some note.

Of course, the pygmies who lived in that part of the world were acquainted with the animal whose zebra-like stripes appear only on the rump and legs. They called it okapi for this name was latinized, and the odd creature became known to the scientific world as okapia johnstoni.

When one hears anyone say "you can't take it with you," we know that he meant money. That's very true. We can't take it with us and one has to be an expert at dodging collectors in order to hold onto a little of it while we remain here.

"Country folk pay about as much for government as they do for sin," reports a statistician. It is doubted whether either is worth the price.

KINGSTON W. I.
The January meeting of Kingston W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Whitefield Yeo. Meeting opened by repeating Yeo, followed by Creed. Roll call was answered by 11 members and one visitor. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed.

Correspondence was read: A letter from Orphanage; one from Mrs. Wilkie on health and welfare. Mrs. Tyrus Holmes is to get sewing from Red Cross. Seven members subscribed for Institute News. Mrs. Green reported $83.54 on hand.

New committees appointed are: School, Mrs. Yeo; Mrs. Green; Lunch, Mrs. Edgar Newton and Miss Macdonald; Programme, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Stewart; Colwill. Collection was 80 cents; friendship fund 30 cents. Readings were given by Mrs. Bert Willis and Mrs. Green. Next meeting will be at Mrs. Bert Willis; roll call—exchange of Valentines.

After which lunch was served by hostesses and committee and social hour spent.

Revenue Dept. Loses Appeal
OTTAWA, (CP)—The income tax appeal board has ruled that a cheque mailed before the end of a year—even if not cashed that year—is an expenditure for the year for income tax purposes.

The board gave this judgment in overruling a revenue department ruling against Walter I. Sheper of Montreal, who had claimed a 1951 tax deduction for $34 in cheques for medical bills mailed to doctors Famous Trichologist Will Demonstrate How To Grow Thicker Hair - - - And Guarantees It!

DEMONSTRATION TO BE HELD HERE
This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Sunday and Monday ONLY, January 16 and January 17.

These private individual demonstrations will be held in the Charlottetown Hotel on Sunday and Monday ONLY, January 16 and January 17, 12 noon to 9 p.m.

In an interview here today, Mr. Keele, internationally famous trichologist and Director of the Keele Hair and Scalp Specialists, Halifax, December 31, said: "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so called cure-all could correct all the disorders," Keele explained.

GUARANTEED
"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offers a guarantee." Keele said.

Once a person avails himself to the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee. "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned."

HOPELESS CASES DISCOURAGED
First the trichologist is quick to tell hopeless cases that they can not be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin, or colorless, the Keele treatment can perform wonders.

A complete, private examination is given by a trichologist to determine the condition of his scalp and cause for his hair trouble.

FREE EXAMINATIONS
This examination is very thorough and highly technical, it on Dec. 31, 1951.

Since the cheques were not cashed until 1952, the department claimed they did not constitute 1951 expenses.

However, the appeal board ruled otherwise and cited a Post Office Act section saying mailed matter becomes the property of the addressee as soon as it is mailed.
