her own accord. Wouldn't you think he would take enough interest in his own flesh and blood to try to find out the truth in the matter? NEIGHBOR

ANSWER: I certainly should, but the callous indifference of so many men toward their children after they marry a second time is one of the curious and, inexplicable vagaries of human nature with which we are all familiar.

All of us have seen men who were devoted fathers as long as their first wives were alive, but when the wife died and the man remarried apparently all of his affection for his children vanished into thin air. Why men do this, I do not know, unless it is because they are afraid of their new wives and would rather be unkind and unjust to their children than have a fight with their wives.

Certainly any man who lets a little 18-year-old girl be put out of his house, or even go of her own accord, without finding out what faults she has committed that justified her stepmother in putting her out, or what treatment had been accorded her that made her so unhappy at home she could not stay there any longer, is failing in his most sacred obligation, which is to guide and care for the child he brought into the world.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a girl of 19. Going to marry a young man of 24. I only like to see him every other night so I can have all my other time to myself, but he insists on seeing me every night, afternoon and evening and even in the morning. He doesn't like to dance, I love it. He insists on our going to live with his parents. I don't want to do it. I really don't want to be tied down and am so undecided I don't know what to do. Is this true love or not? UNDECIDED

ANSWER: Decidedly not. If you were really in love with the young man, you wouldn't dread his visits. He couldn't come often enough to suit you. And you wouldn't think of marriage as tying you down. You would want to be tied down to your husband and home. All that is the matter with you is that you are too young to marry.

DOROTHY DIX cannot personally reply to readers, but will answer letters of general interest through her column.

Parkdale Brownies Presentation

Parents and members of the W.L. including the President, Mrs. Compton, the Guide Committee, Mrs. Joyce Chandler, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. P. P. P. were present to see the Brownies receive many badges on Tuesday afternoon. It was such a happy meeting with all the little Brownies smiling and smiling the true Brownie smile. Commissioner Mrs. Dumont presented the badges assisted by the Field Secretary and each Brownie was congratulated especially those who achieved the highest award of all, that precious Golden Hand. Golden Handers were, Dianne Dixon, Fay Hickox, Joyce Stewart, and Brenda McKay. Another big event was the presentation of warrants to Brown Owl, Mrs. Helen Vessey and Tawny Owl, Mrs. Marie McKeown. I was especially pleased to see these two very fine leaders receive their warrants. They are sincere and absolutely tops in their work with the girls of Parkdale and may they continue long in furthering Brownie work in Parkdale. Prof. Badges for signalling, thrift, writers, collectors and minstrel were presented to Dianne Dixon, Fay Hickox while Brenda McKay received Minstrel and Writers. Joyeann Stewart and Writers. Kniters also Collectors. Golden Bar was received by Marlene Gregory, Penny Warren, Carol Hogan, Gwen O'Brien, Carole McKay, Alberta Murphy, Jeannette Condy, Brenda Coles, Patsy Oatway, Marilyn Rice, Florence Gormley. Two little Twentees were enrolled, Marilyn Rice and Carole McKay. This was quite a number of badges for a pack all at one time and Mrs. Dumont said how proud she was to be their Commissioner. A lovely tea was served by the Guide Committee and Browns Prayers and Taps closed the meeting.

Thanks

I wish to thank all Box holders on R. R. 3 who kindly remembered me with Christmas Gifts and wish them all a Happy New Year. Earl McCarville.

Card Of Thanks

Mrs. Joseph Gaudet and Family wish to express their thanks to all those who were so kind to them during their recent sad bereavement; also to those who sent Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets and Messages of Sympathy.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. George S. Ryan wish to gratefully acknowledge, and extend their deep appreciation, to the many dear friends who were so kind and attentive to Mrs. Ryan during her long illness and at her death. Time cannot blot out the many, many acts of kindness as well as the numerous offers of assistance received from friends, fraternal societies, church organizations, the Rector and parish of St. Paul's Church all through the lengthy period. Now that she has gone to be in God's Care, please accept our most grateful thanks for the means taken to lighten the burden for us during the time of her illness and death. May God grant guidance and direction to you all, so that you may enjoy the full pleasure of His Grace and Spirit.

MRS. CHARLES MARTIN

There passed away at her home in Caledonia on January 11th, Mrs. Margaret Martin, widow of the late Charles Martin, at the advanced age of ninety-six years. The deceased (nee Margaret MacPherson, Upper Montague), after her marriage to Charles Martin, moved to Caledonia where she spent the rest of her life, loved and respected by a host of friends and relatives. She leaves to mourn her passing two daughters, Annie and Sadie, and one son, Donald. She was predeceased by three children. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from the Caledonia Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. S. Hales. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Abide With Me", and "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus". The pall-bearers were Messrs. George MacLean, Alex. R. MacDonald, Alex. Munroe, Neil MacLean, Alan Cameron, and Dan MacPherson. Interment was in the Caledonia cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

JOSEPH GAUDET The residents of Hope River and its surrounding districts were greatly saddened when they heard of the sudden passing of Mr. Joseph Gaudet on Christmas Day, at the age of 65 years. The deceased had attended Midnight Mass and also the service on Christmas morning and appeared in his usual good health. After his supper he lay on the couch thinking to pass a quiet Yuletide evening with his family, but the Angel of Death was then hovering over him for in a short time his wife noticed he was not his usual self and immediately summoned his pastor, the Rev. E. Dalton, who administered the last rites of the Catholic Church. Dr. Schapira was also called but the deceased was beyond medical aid.

Mr. Joseph Gaudet was a native of English, but for many years had resided in Hope River. He was caretaker of St. Ann's Church and the parishioners will miss his hearty greetings and genial smile. He was a devout and faithful member of the Catholic Church. He was always foremost in any movement for the betterment of the community, of a kind and loving nature and at all times ready to give a helping hand. The deceased was never blessed with children of his own, but through his great love for little ones he adopted three children, who, with his wife, the former Rosaline Dolron, are left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and kind father. The children are Mrs. Arthur Leger (Dorothy), River Hebert, N. S.; Joseph and Bernadette at home. Left to mourn are also two sisters and three brothers. Mrs. George Bernard (Rose) Catherine, Peter, Hector and Benjamin, all of Lawrence, Mass.

IN MEMORIAM

His funeral held on December 28th was largely attended showing the high esteem the deceased was held. Rev. E. Dalton celebrated Requiem High Mass and also officiated at the grave. The pall-bearers were: Joseph E. Dolron, Edward Dolron, Ivan Dolron, Arthur Leger, Urbain Dolron and Alban Peters.

Mrs. Guy Russell, Moore's Mills, N.B., 1950 winner at St. Stephen Fair, uses Fleischmann's Yeast exclusively.

Her Baking Wins Prizes For 26 Years

As you can see, winning prizes for home baking is an old story with Mrs. Guy Russell, of Moore's Mills, N.B. Her collection of prize-winning tags from the St. Stephen Fair goes back to 1924! She can give good reasons for her success, too. "I have baked bread as many as four times in a week," says Mrs. Russell. "But it isn't just experience or baking skill that makes you a prize winner. First you have to have the finest ingredients. For rolls and bread my choice is Fleischmann's Yeast. With Fleischmann's I'm sure of just rising and fine results." That's just what they are all say! Prize-winning cooks throughout the Maritimes depend on Fleischmann's Yeast.

NEW MONT ROSA EVERBEARING RUNNERLESS DWARF BUSH STRAWBERRY

Fruits from seed the first year: easily grown. Bush form, about one foot high. No runners. Hardy perennial. Bears abundantly from early summer till killing frost. Has an intense luscious flavor and aroma like that of wild strawberry; rich and juicy. Neat compact bushy growth makes it highly ornamental as well as valuable in vegetable, fruit or flower garden, borders, etc. A showy pot plant too. Though smaller than commercial strawberries Mont Rosa is the largest fruiting of any variety we know from seed, surpassing the popular solonchaker and similar types. Its unique bush form and exquisite flavor place it in a class by itself for every home garden. Seed supply is limited. Order early. (Pkt. 25c) (3 pkts. 50c) postpaid.
