Drugs are expensive. Sometimes they are more expensive than need be. Sometimes they are not so reliable as they ought to be. There was a time when the prices of drugs went up—too high altogether. It is not the case now. The Apothecary Hall changed that some time ago. You can get prescriptions from pure and proper prices—no fancy profits. You can get all my reliable special medicines; they've been tried and found to be good.

The price of the main thing will be found right in every case.

FOURTH OF JULY—This is the "Fourth of July," a great day in the neighboring republic.

POSTPONED—Loyal Crusaders picnic has been postponed until Monday next. Same hour and place.

SALVATION ARMY.—Don't forget to come to the Salvation Army Barracks tonight to hear Essigo Miller give an address on the "Scotch Covenanters". Cake and ice cream will be served after the meeting.

COST OF THE PLEBISCITE.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier states that the cost of the prohibition plebiscite up to June 23, 1899, was $192,541, and that about $1,000 additional would, it was estimated, meet all outstanding liabilities.

FORT AUGUSTUS TEA.—The tea at Fort Augustus on the 13th July promises to be a great success. For the information of those in Charlottetown who intend to be present it may be stated that teams will be provided to convey persons from the boat to the grounds.

SALVATION ARMY.—Essigo Miller will deliver an address on the Scotch Covenanters on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the barracks. The Ensign will be dressed in Highland costume and will sing Scotch songs. Scotchmen will be particularly interested in this meeting. Ice cream and cake will be served after the meeting.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.—The dwelling house of Mr. Russel McEwen, on the Schurman road, near Summerside, was struck by lightning on Thursday night and burned to the ground with all its contents. ESTEEMED EXCHANGES

Mail and Empire: "When Mr. Tarte left for England he made the announcement, through his paper, that during his absence the Government would propose no new projects and enter upon no new policy on any subject whatever. The only matter that was to be decided independently is the administration of the patronage. This duty it seems, has been placed in the hands of Mr. Fielding, whose long experience with the spoils is an assurance that the children's bread will not go to the dogs. The departure of Mr. Tarte is like the farewell of an emperor, who, before leaving on a journey, has carefully limited the authority of his subordinate officials."

When a man owns a blooded horse he is always careful of its health. He looks after its diet and is particular that their feeling shall be regular and right. While he is doing this it is as likely as not that he himself is suffering from some disease or disorder. When the trouble gets so bad that he cannot work, he will begin to give himself the care he gave the horse at the start. Good pure, rich, red blood is the best insurance against disease of any kind. Almost all diseases come from impure or impoverished blood. Keep the blood pure and strong and disease can find no foothold. That is the principle upon which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery works. It cleanses, purifies and enriches the blood, puts and keeps the whole body in perfect order; makes appetite good, digestion strong, assimilation perfect. It brings ruddy, virile health. It builds up solid, wholesome flesh (not fat) when, from any cause, reduced below the healthy standard.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and receive free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The words of praise bestowed upon Hood's Sarsaparilla by those who have taken it prove the merit of the medicine.

The King of Portugal contemplates, it is said, coming to England in order to thank Queen Victoria for the recent visit of the British fleet to Lisbon.
