

CHURCHES TOMORROW

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

S. PETER'S CATHEDRAL Anglican Rochford Square The Rev. G. E. Moffatt, M.A., B.D., Incumbent. Organist and Choir Director Miss Susanne Brenton, Lic. Music. 8:00 a.m.—Holy Communion 11:00 a.m.—Choral Eucharist. 7:00 p.m.—Evening and sermon. Week day services at usual time. Everybody Welcome.

S. PAUL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH

The Parish Church Established 1769 by Royal Foundation.

The Reverend J. T. Ibbott, Rector Mr. Paul Chidmore — Organist

8:30—Holy Communion. 10:00—Sunday School. 11:00—Sacrament of Holy Communion.

7:00—Evening Prayer and Sermon. Subject: "The Glory of Jesus".

8:15—"Fellowship Hour" (in the Parish Hall). A welcome is extended to all.

Sunday, Oct. 12th: Harvest Thanksgiving Services.

PRESBYTERIAN

THE KIRK OF S. JAMES

The Reverend T. H. B. Somers, M.A., S.T.M. Minister. Miss E. Millan MacKenzie, M.A., F.M.C.M., Organist and Director of the Choir.

10 A.M.—Church School 11 A.M.—The Sacrament of Holy Communion

11 A.M.—Morning Worship and Communion. Anthem: "Jesu, Word of God Incarnate" (Gounod).

Christians of all branches of the Church are welcome to receive the Sacrament with us.

5 P.M.—Vespers and Devotional Study: "A Visit to the Land of our Lord".

Choir Anthem: "Brother James' Air" arr. Jacob.

Visitors Cordially Welcome

ZION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Prince and Grafton Streets Reverend G. Carlyle Webster, Minister

Organist and Choir Director Mr. Frank Jonnston, A.T.C.L.

MORNING WORSHIP

11 A.M.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. "This do in remembrance of Me."

Anthem: "Let Us Break Bread Together" (Leslie Bell).

EVENING WORSHIP

7 P.M.—Theme: "What is Man's Greatest Need?"

Anthem: "I Will Feed My Flock" (Stainer); "Beside Still Waters" (Hamblen).

The Church School meets at ten o'clock in the morning.

"The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

You are cordially invited to worship with us.

GOSPEL HALL

Upper Prince Street

Order of meetings for Lord's Day

Sunday School 10:00 A.M. Breaking of Bread 11:00 A.M. Gospel Meeting 7:30 P.M.

"Ye Must Be Born Again" (John 3-7).

"The Coming of the Lord Draweth Nigh" (James 5-3)

ESSO OIL BURNERS

NOW ON EASY TERMS WITH ESSO PURCHASE OIL CONTRACT ASSURED.

Palmer Electric 86 Fitzroy St. - Ch'town

MacLeod & Greene 21 Montague Phone 25

E. E. MacNeill 78 Russell St. - Summerside

TAYLOR'S DIAMOND VALUES

Wedding Duette of 14-K gold. Engagement Ring has single large stone. Set $85.00

G. H. TAYLOR JEWELLERS

ANNOUNCEMENT

DR. HAROLD P. STEWART Physician and Surgeon has opened an office at 224 QUEEN ST., CHARLOTTETOWN

Phone: Office 2430 2-4 p.m. Residence 2430-2 6-8 p.m. and by appointment

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

COOK'S for Perfect Pictures.

SUNTEE'S ANNIVERSARY SALE ends tonight.

MILK FOR HEALTH — Milk for Beauty. Milk for Strength.

ZENITH—Radionic Hearing Aids $85.00. Batteries, accessories. Toombs Music Store.

BATTERY AND ELECTRIC RADIOS, Batteries. Bryenton and MacKay.

RUMMAGE SALE at Trinity Church today at 2. Sponsored by the Bambi Group.

SEE ADVERTISEMENT Re Sale Farm with valuable lumber at Valleyfield.

CHESTERFIELD. In rich wine and green velour. Special low price. Toombs Music Store.

"UP SHE GOES" is a show for the entire family. See it at Parkdale Hall, October 20-28.

MacDONALD RADIO SERVICE Radio repairing. Amplifiers and sound systems. Disc and tape recording. 180 Kent St. Phone 1207.

FLIGHTS DAILY except Sunday to New Glasgow and Halifax. Phone Maritime Central Airways 2061 or 504.

SINGING LESSONS—Have your voiced placed properly. Mr. and Mrs. Raulf Raymond will resume teaching. Phone 1175. 101 Upper Prince Street.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the P. E. I. Curling Association, will be held in Charlottetown at 7.30 P. M., on Wednesday, October 8th. This is a very important meeting. All Curlers are urged to be present. J. F. McLeod, Secretary.

TRY our vitamin rich, energy producing breads. Home style white and whole wheats; also Sesame, Vienna, corrugated, raisin and crown loaves. Where? At Stewart Bakeries of course.

SERVICES for Sunday, October 5th, 1952. St. John's Church, Grafton. 11:00 A. M. Morning Prayer. St. Thomas' Church, Long Creek. 8:00 P. M. Evening Prayer. St. Elizabeth's Church, Springfield. 7:30 P. M. Annual Service of Thanksgiving for Harvest. Rev. George R. F. Ebsorff, Rector.

United PENTECOSTAL CHURCH 37 Elm Avenue Rev. Quincy Stairs, Pastor. Phone 2542-J.

Services 10:00 a.m.—Sunday School 11:00 a.m.—Worship and Praise 6:30 p.m.—Prayer 7:00 p.m.—Evangelistic Meeting. Everyone is Welcome "The Church That's Different".

The Salvation Army Great George Street "Home of Evangelism" Sr. Captain & Mrs. Les Titcomb Corps Officers.

Sunday 7:00 A.M.—Prayer Meeting 10:15 A.M.—Hospital Open Air Meeting 11:00 A.M.—Family Worship. Topic: "Going Deep With God" 2:30 P.M.—Sunday School. (Join the 100 Club) 6:00 P.M.—Young People's Own. 6:30—Open Air Meeting 7:00 P.M.—Salvation Meeting (Topic): "Paint Job or Saint Job?"

MAKE THEIR OWN CAPE TOWN — (CP) — To meet the water shortage when traveling long stretches of dry country, South Africa's state-owned railways are spending more than $9,000,000 on steam locomotives with water-condensing tenders.

BI BIBLE — HOUSE L E

NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT AT ALL TIMES. A fine selection of Bibles, Testaments, Portions, etc. are on display here. Priced 65c to $25.00. All the best makes.

Religious Books, Translations, Motions, Hymn Books, Prayer Books, Children's Books, Cards, Catechisms, Sunday School Supplies, are in stock with a large array to choose from.

Hours Open—1 to 5:00 daily, except Wednesday, 10 to 12.

BIBLE HOUSE 100 Fitzroy Street, Charlottetown. Phone 2781.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my dear sister, Mrs. Inez Dalley, who passed away October 3rd, 1951.

We do not forget her, we loved her too dearly. Nor her memory to fade from our lives like a dream. Our lips need not speak, when our hearts mourn sincerely, For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

Lovingly Remembered by Blanche, Bloue and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Franklin Brown, who passed away October 4th, 1950.

In a graveyard softly sleeping, Close beside a country road, Lies the one we loved so dearly, Gone from us to his abode.

Fondly Remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of VERNON CAMPBELL who was accidentally killed in Montreal, October 5th, 1951.

Ever Remembered by John and Blanche.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my Father, Walter E. Whitlock, who passed away October 4th, 1927. And also my Mother Hannah J., who died April 25th, 1943.

Days and years pass swiftly by, But love and memories never die.

Ever Remembered by their Daughter Mae and Family.

IN MEMORIAM Word has been received in this city of the death of Sidney C. Hayden of Vancouver, B. C. formerly of Vernon River, P. E. I. Mr. Hayden died in hospital following a year's illness. Surviving are his wife and son, Cuthbert. Also the following sisters: Mary B. of Belmont, Mass., Lottie E. Exeter, N. H., Stella, (Mrs. A. D. MacLennan) Charlottetown, Addie (Mrs. F. J. Chapell) Charlottetown, Helen (Mrs. T. F. McKinley) Sydney, N. S. Burial took place in Vancouver.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Joseph Vernon Campbell, Clermont, P. E. I., who was accidentally killed October 5th, 1951.

A Naval hero of war past. Lost we forget.

Ever Remembered by Sister Glad, Russel and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my Father, Walter E. Whitlock, who passed away October 4th, 1927. And also my Mother Hannah J., who died April 25th, 1943.

Days and years pass swiftly by, But love and memories never die.

Ever Remembered by their Daughter Mae and Family.

ANNOUNCEMENT DR. HAROLD P. STEWART Physician and Surgeon has opened an office at 224 QUEEN ST., CHARLOTTETOWN

Phone: Office 2430 2-4 p.m. Residence 2430-2 6-8 p.m. and by appointment

Literature And Life

By BOOKMAN

TOO LATE

Browning has three little poems called Pisgah Sights—the suggestion for the name came from the Old Testament scene when Moses climbed to the top of Nebo's lonely mountain to view the Promised Land. They deal with life and death. The first two represent the author at the end of his life looking at it from a hill. It lies out there and a mixed enough thing it is. "Now I see all of it," he says. "I see all of it, only I'm dying."

The last line is suggestive and pathetic. Now at the end he sees what it is but it is too late. In the second Pisgah Sight he says that if he were to live his life over again, he would be only a learner; he would not try to reform the world, but do the best he could.

The third Pisgah Sight is about a lady who died very suddenly and set his mind working. It is his In Memoriam in honour of a Mrs. Smith, and deals with immortality.

The line, "Only I'm dying," suggested this article. It occurs, as I have said, in the first poem and is illustrated in human experience. Take the school-boy. He begins normally at the age of five or six to attend school, and for a while it is very interesting, but when he reaches his teens perhaps he wishes to get out and go to work to earn money which is so much needed these days. He leaves school and finds a job; the years slip past and quickly when perchance he realizes that he left too soon, but it is too late now. From the vantage ground of his years he looks at life. He is now harnessed up with the industrial machine. "Now I see all of it, only I'm dying"—that is a chance gone beyond recall.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest these — it might have been. Carlyle realized this after his wife died. They had been married forty years and he said she had walked with him for that length of time life's stony road. He must have been a hard man to live with and keep in good humour. He had the Scot's reserve and never told her that he loved her till it was too late. He saw all of it, only he was dying—a part of his life had gone. He said that his home was gaunt and lonesome. She died very suddenly in 1866 and he lived on till 1881. He stood on his Pisgah and saw then what he had lost but it was too late.

This is often illustrated in life. How often are plans laid and death comes and interrupts. We have the Grammarian's Funeral by this same writer where he deals with this, a favourite subject of his.

"Oh, such a life as he resolved to live, When he had learned it, When he had gathered all books had to give. That before living had learned how to live, What's time? Leave now for dogs and apes...man has forever."

There is a verse in the Book of Wisdom which has much comfort in it; it is "he that has been made perfect in a short time hath fulfilled a long time." This has been a puzzle for a long time; why the good die young often and those whose lives are dry as summer dust live on. . . .

Milton deals with this in his Lycidas, where he writes about his friend of much promise—Edward King—who was drowned and was such a loss to the church, when hungry sheep looked up and were not fed." He blamed the "abhorred shears" of the Furies. There were three Fates: one made the thread of life, Clotho; Lachesis measured it, and Atropos cut it. It was she who piled the abhorred shears to the life of young King. But there is something left, "the praise."

This was said of another who died early.

"Thy leaf is perished in the green, And, while we breathe beneath the sun, The world which credits what is done, Is cold to all that might have been."

In how many cases in life are these words true—"Now I see all of it, and what would I not like to make of it, only I'm dying." But we believe that is not the end. Milton says that the abhorred shears take away the life but not the praise. The effect lives on as the writer of the epistle to the Hebrews says of one, "He being dead yet speaketh."

THE HALIFAX Symphony Orchestra opens the Prince of Wales College Concert Series Monday evening, October 6 at 8:30. Tickets may be secured at door or by phoning 2800.

ENGAGEMENT. — Mr. Percy W. Robbins of Morell, wishes to announce the engagement of his daughter Grace Lorraine to David Ernest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pratt, St. Peter's. Marriage to take place October 23rd, at 2.30 P. M. in Marie United Church.

STEWART BAKERIES SPECIAL. Fresh Orange Cake, light and velvety with orange through the batter and butter icing. Take one home and have a perfect ending for a perfect meal.

NOTICE. — Because of the funeral service on Sunday afternoon for the late Major Otto Campbell, regular Sunday services at Winsloe South and Highfield will be cancelled. Sunday School as usual at Winsloe South Church at 10:30 A.M.

AT HOME. — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McMillan, Cornwall, will be at home to their friends, on October 9th, afternoon and evening, on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

ST. PETER'S BAY PASTORAL CHARGE. —The United Church of Canada. Sunday, October 5th. Thanksgiving Services, Marie Sunday School 10 A.M. Service 11 A.M. St. Peter's Sunday School 11 A.M. Service 2 P. M. Greenwich, Sunday School 11 A.M. Service 7:30 P. M. Rev. Kenneth McLeod, Minister

DIES IN VANCOUVER — Word has been received in this city of the death of Sidney C. Hayden of Vancouver, B. C. formerly of Vernon River, P. E. I. Mr. Hayden died in hospital following a year's illness. Surviving are his wife and son, Cuthbert. Also the following sisters: Mary B. of Belmont, Mass., Lottie E. Exeter, N. H., Stella, (Mrs. A. D. MacLennan) Charlottetown, Addie (Mrs. F. J. Chapell) Charlottetown, Helen (Mrs. T. F. McKinley) Sydney, N. S. Burial took place in Vancouver.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my dear sister, Mrs. Inez Dalley, who passed away October 3rd, 1951.

We do not forget her, we loved her too dearly. Nor her memory to fade from our lives like a dream. Our lips need not speak, when our hearts mourn sincerely, For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

Lovingly Remembered by Blanche, Bloue and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Franklin Brown, who passed away October 4th, 1950.

In a graveyard softly sleeping, Close beside a country road, Lies the one we loved so dearly, Gone from us to his abode.

Fondly Remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of VERNON CAMPBELL who was accidentally killed in Montreal, October 5th, 1951.

Ever Remembered by John and Blanche.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my Father, Walter E. Whitlock, who passed away October 4th, 1927. And also my Mother Hannah J., who died April 25th, 1943.

Days and years pass swiftly by, But love and memories never die.

Ever Remembered by their Daughter Mae and Family.

ANNOUNCEMENT DR. HAROLD P. STEWART Physician and Surgeon has opened an office at 224 QUEEN ST., CHARLOTTETOWN

Phone: Office 2430 2-4 p.m. Residence 2430-2 6-8 p.m. and by appointment

Literature And Life

By BOOKMAN

TOO LATE

Browning has three little poems called Pisgah Sights—the suggestion for the name came from the Old Testament scene when Moses climbed to the top of Nebo's lonely mountain to view the Promised Land. They deal with life and death. The first two represent the author at the end of his life looking at it from a hill. It lies out there and a mixed enough thing it is. "Now I see all of it," he says. "I see all of it, only I'm dying."

The last line is suggestive and pathetic. Now at the end he sees what it is but it is too late. In the second Pisgah Sight he says that if he were to live his life over again, he would be only a learner; he would not try to reform the world, but do the best he could.

The third Pisgah Sight is about a lady who died very suddenly and set his mind working. It is his In Memoriam in honour of a Mrs. Smith, and deals with immortality.

The line, "Only I'm dying," suggested this article. It occurs, as I have said, in the first poem and is illustrated in human experience. Take the school-boy. He begins normally at the age of five or six to attend school, and for a while it is very interesting, but when he reaches his teens perhaps he wishes to get out and go to work to earn money which is so much needed these days. He leaves school and finds a job; the years slip past and quickly when perchance he realizes that he left too soon, but it is too late now. From the vantage ground of his years he looks at life. He is now harnessed up with the industrial machine. "Now I see all of it, only I'm dying"—that is a chance gone beyond recall.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest these — it might have been. Carlyle realized this after his wife died. They had been married forty years and he said she had walked with him for that length of time life's stony road. He must have been a hard man to live with and keep in good humour. He had the Scot's reserve and never told her that he loved her till it was too late. He saw all of it, only he was dying—a part of his life had gone. He said that his home was gaunt and lonesome. She died very suddenly in 1866 and he lived on till 1881. He stood on his Pisgah and saw then what he had lost but it was too late.

This is often illustrated in life. How often are plans laid and death comes and interrupts. We have the Grammarian's Funeral by this same writer where he deals with this, a favourite subject of his.

"Oh, such a life as he resolved to live, When he had learned it, When he had gathered all books had to give. That before living had learned how to live, What's time? Leave now for dogs and apes...man has forever."

There is a verse in the Book of Wisdom which has much comfort in it; it is "he that has been made perfect in a short time hath fulfilled a long time." This has been a puzzle for a long time; why the good die young often and those whose lives are dry as summer dust live on. . . .

Milton deals with this in his Lycidas, where he writes about his friend of much promise—Edward King—who was drowned and was such a loss to the church, when hungry sheep looked up and were not fed." He blamed the "abhorred shears" of the Furies. There were three Fates: one made the thread of life, Clotho; Lachesis measured it, and Atropos cut it. It was she who piled the abhorred shears to the life of young King. But there is something left, "the praise."

This was said of another who died early.

"Thy leaf is perished in the green, And, while we breathe beneath the sun, The world which credits what is done, Is cold to all that might have been."

In how many cases in life are these words true—"Now I see all of it, and what would I not like to make of it, only I'm dying." But we believe that is not the end. Milton says that the abhorred shears take away the life but not the praise. The effect lives on as the writer of the epistle to the Hebrews says of one, "He being dead yet speaketh."

THE HALIFAX Symphony Orchestra opens the Prince of Wales College Concert Series Monday evening, October 6 at 8:30. Tickets may be secured at door or by phoning 2800.

ENGAGEMENT. — Mr. Percy W. Robbins of Morell, wishes to announce the engagement of his daughter Grace Lorraine to David Ernest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pratt, St. Peter's. Marriage to take place October 23rd, at 2.30 P. M. in Marie United Church.

STEWART BAKERIES SPECIAL. Fresh Orange Cake, light and velvety with orange through the batter and butter icing. Take one home and have a perfect ending for a perfect meal.

NOTICE. — Because of the funeral service on Sunday afternoon for the late Major Otto Campbell, regular Sunday services at Winsloe South and Highfield will be cancelled. Sunday School as usual at Winsloe South Church at 10:30 A.M.

AT HOME. — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McMillan, Cornwall, will be at home to their friends, on October 9th, afternoon and evening, on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

ST. PETER'S BAY PASTORAL CHARGE. —The United Church of Canada. Sunday, October 5th. Thanksgiving Services, Marie Sunday School 10 A.M. Service 11 A.M. St. Peter's Sunday School 11 A.M. Service 2 P. M. Greenwich, Sunday School 11 A.M. Service 7:30 P. M. Rev. Kenneth McLeod, Minister

DIES IN VANCOUVER — Word has been received in this city of the death of Sidney C. Hayden of Vancouver, B. C. formerly of Vernon River, P. E. I. Mr. Hayden died in hospital following a year's illness. Surviving are his wife and son, Cuthbert. Also the following sisters: Mary B. of Belmont, Mass., Lottie E. Exeter, N. H., Stella, (Mrs. A. D. MacLennan) Charlottetown, Addie (Mrs. F. J. Chapell) Charlottetown, Helen (Mrs. T. F. McKinley) Sydney, N. S. Burial took place in Vancouver.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my dear sister, Mrs. Inez Dalley, who passed away October 3rd, 1951.

We do not forget her, we loved her too dearly. Nor her memory to fade from our lives like a dream. Our lips need not speak, when our hearts mourn sincerely, For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

Lovingly Remembered by Blanche, Bloue and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Franklin Brown, who passed away October 4th, 1950.

In a graveyard softly sleeping, Close beside a country road, Lies the one we loved so dearly, Gone from us to his abode.

Fondly Remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of VERNON CAMPBELL who was accidentally killed in Montreal, October 5th, 1951.

Ever Remembered by John and Blanche.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my Father, Walter E. Whitlock, who passed away October 4th, 1927. And also my Mother Hannah J., who died April 25th, 1943.

Days and years pass swiftly by, But love and memories never die.

Ever Remembered by their Daughter Mae and Family.

ANNOUNCEMENT DR. HAROLD P. STEWART Physician and Surgeon has opened an office at 224 QUEEN ST., CHARLOTTETOWN

Phone: Office 2430 2-4 p.m. Residence 2430-2 6-8 p.m. and by appointment

Literature And Life

By BOOKMAN

TOO LATE

Browning has three little poems called Pisgah Sights—the suggestion for the name came from the Old Testament scene when Moses climbed to the top of Nebo's lonely mountain to view the Promised Land. They deal with life and death. The first two represent the author at the end of his life looking at it from a hill. It lies out there and a mixed enough thing it is. "Now I see all of it," he says. "I see all of it, only I'm dying."

The last line is suggestive and pathetic. Now at the end he sees what it is but it is too late. In the second Pisgah Sight he says that if he were to live his life over again, he would be only a learner; he would not try to reform the world, but do the best he could.

The third Pisgah Sight is about a lady who died very suddenly and set his mind working. It is his In Memoriam in honour of a Mrs. Smith, and deals with immortality.

The line, "Only I'm dying," suggested this article. It occurs, as I have said, in the first poem and is illustrated in human experience. Take the school-boy. He begins normally at the age of five or six to attend school, and for a while it is very interesting, but when he reaches his teens perhaps he wishes to get out and go to work to earn money which is so much needed these days. He leaves school and finds a job; the years slip past and quickly when perchance he realizes that he left too soon, but it is too late now. From the vantage ground of his years he looks at life. He is now harnessed up with the industrial machine. "Now I see all of it, only I'm dying"—that is a chance gone beyond recall.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest these — it might have been. Carlyle realized this after his wife died. They had been married forty years and he said she had walked with him for that length of time life's stony road. He must have been a hard man to live with and keep in good humour. He had the Scot's reserve and never told her that he loved her till it was too late. He saw all of it, only he was dying—a part of his life had gone. He said that his home was gaunt and lonesome. She died very suddenly in 1866 and he lived on till 1881. He stood on his Pisgah and