NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market came close to topping the mid- February recovery peak Tuesday when steel company indictments brought gloom to Wall Street.

Stocks halted a vigorous rally and retreated irregularly.

It was less than a year ago that the same federal grand jury had indicted steel companies on similar charges—price fixing—and that was part of the dismal pattern accompanying the steep slide which climaxed on "black Monday."

It was a deadly parallel. The advancing steels turned tail and declined. Youngstown Sheet dropped 2 points. U.S. Steel, one of the indicted companies, was second most active stock, down ⅝ at 46⅛ on 75,500 shares. Also indicted, Bethlehem was ninth most active and fell ½ to 30¼.

The Dow Jones industrial average declined 1.59 to 684.27. At noon this average was up 2.76 at 688.62—just below the Feb. 18 closing high of 688.96.

Volume swelled to 4,470,000 shares from Monday's 3,980,000 and was the largest since Feb. 18 when 4,700,000 shares changed hands.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped .5 at 259.3.

Chrysler, which had been up more than a point in early dealings, repeated its role as most active stock, taking a net loss of ⅞ at 96⅛ on 103,800 shares.

Among Canadian issues traded, Aluminium Ltd. rose ⅜ while Walker Gooderham dropped ⅞ and McIntyre Porcupine ¾. Dropping ½ each were International Nickel and Hudson Bay Mining.

American Exchange prices also were irregularly lower. Volume was 1,000,000 shares compared with 1,040,000 Monday. Preston gained ⅛. Jupiter Corp. was ¼ lower and Brazilian Traction ⅛.
