"OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS."—The parishioners of the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, have decided to supplement the national discussion of his Kipling title by holding a grand tea on the 5th August, the Feast of our Lady of the Snows. Kipling drew his inspiration from Catholic liturgy, he says, and those who go to Alberton, the beautiful western capital, on the 5th, will draw inspiration for the rest of their lives. Trains, bands, everything, go!

CLOSING WORDS.
(Summerside Journal.)

To-morrow is the day of battle, and a few hours will show whether the electors are tired of the most autocratic, the most extravagant government that was ever in power in this province, whether they are tired of debt and deficit and taxation, or whether they are willing, by again electing Mr. Peters and his obedient followers, to fasten forever upon Prince Edward Island the heavy burden of debt and the ceaseless grind of taxation, whose ponderous wheels will then, like Tennyson's brook, "flow on forever." It remains now but to record your votes, and if you have the best interests of your country at heart, if you want to stop the rolling up of the provincial debt, if you want to see no more deficits, if you want taxation reduced and kept down, if you want the reckless and extravagant misuse of the public revenues to cease, and if you want the most tyrannical and autocratic one-man government that ever disgraced any province of Canada, to give way to a "government of the people and by the people and for the people," then you will go to the polls and cast your votes for the Hon. Daniel Gordon and the very able men who have been called to his assistance. For the vital interests and the fair fame of this province, discharge to-day, as though the entire result depends upon your own individual vote, the sacred duty imposed upon you by the constitution, as your conscience tells you you should, and let no reprehensible influences, no matter how tempting they may be, lead you to do otherwise.

Does anyone doubt that a change is needed?

CONSERVATIVE RALLY

A grand meeting was held last night in the schoolhouse at Ennysvale. The audience was very large, and the keenest interest was taken in the proceedings. Daniel G. McDonald was called to the chair. The first speaker was Mr. W. S. Stewart, and he was followed by Mr. J. T. Mellish. The addresses of both gentlemen were most favorably received and warmly applauded.

Mr. Thomas Doyle gave a slashing speech. He thought the Government candidates showed the white feather in not coming to the meeting or sending someone to represent them.

Mr. John Bradley and Mr. John J. Bradley also delivered stirring addresses, and frequently brought down the house.

The meeting was a most successful one. The best of order prevailed, and the feeling was decidedly in favor of the Conservative party.
