Island Trade Fair Response Is Good

Upwards of 50 Prince Edward Island firms have indicated their interest in exhibiting at the Provincial trade fair, which will be sponsored by the Charlottetown Kinsmen Club at the Coliseum September 13-15, it was learned from Kenneth Jenkins, chairman of the club's trade fair committee.

Invitations have been sent to buyers in many parts of Canada and the United States in an effort to make it as profitable and worthwhile as possible for the Island firms that decide to exhibit, Mr. Jenkins said.

The club is also considering the idea of a huge float parade to add to the color of the event. Invitations will be sent to firms participating in the Gold Cup and Saucer parade in August, he explained. "We feel that this will not injure the Gold Cup and Saucer parade and it would help our project," Mr. Jenkins said.

The club has received many inquiries from mainland firms that wish to exhibit, but the main purpose of the fair is to help Island firms expand their markets, and as large a representation of P.E.I. firms as possible is desirable, it was explained.
