

Buyer meets seller with Guardian Want Ads. Dial 8506 ask for classified ad taker, for quick results.

The Guardian

Variable cloudiness with snowflurries, little change in temperature; southwest winds 15. Low-high at Ch'town 15-23.

"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

CHARLOTTETOWN CANADA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1958

NOT MORE THAN FIVE CENTS

12 PAGES

Authorized as Second Class Mail by the Post Office Department, Ottawa

Far-Reaching Public Works Program For The Province

Million And Half To Be Spent On Ch'town Airport

OTTAWA, Special)— a far-reaching program of public works for Prince Edward Island totalling $5,700,000 over the next few years has been authorized by treasury board, it was learned here Tuesday from top-ranking officers of the Departments of Public Works and Transport.

U. N. Tosses Tunisian Issue To U. S.-U. K.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—The United Nations Security Council Tuesday tossed the Tunisian-French dispute into the hands of the United States and Britain after hearing the two countries declare they have affirmative proposals for a solution.

Gov't. Announces Move To Use More Canadian Coal

OTTAWA (CP)—The cabinet decided Tuesday to give Canadian coal a 20-per cent competitive advantage over imported coal in purchases for government buildings and installations.

Labor Unions Urge Utmost Effort To Aid Employment

OTTAWA (CP)—Unemployment has hit its highest point since the 1930s, government figures showed Tuesday.

Pilot Of Lost M. C. A. Aircraft Described "Very Excellent"

MONTREAL (CP)—Captain Norman Ramsay, chief pilot aboard the Maritime Central Airways DC-4 which crashed last Aug. 11, was described Tuesday as a "very excellent captain."

Report Sir Winston Churchill Indisposed; Is Kept In Bed

NICE, France (CP)—Sir Winston Churchill is ill in bed and his personal physician, Lord Moran, will fly here from London today to see him.

Potato Market Strengthens After Michigan Demand

The following report has been issued by the Potato Marketing Board and the Potato Dealers' Association.

Wave Of Anti-Egyptian Feeling Erupts In Khartoum

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP)—A wave of anti-Egyptian feeling erupted in this capital Tuesday following reports Cairo has sent armed men into disputed border territory.

Red Chinese To Leave No. Korea

TOKYO (Wednesday) (AP)—Red China Premier Chou En-lai and North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung said today Red Chinese troops will withdraw from North Korea by the end of this year.

Hospital Grants To Be Increased

EDMONTON (CP)—Federal-provincial grants for hospital construction in Alberta will be increased to $2,000 a bed from the present $1,500, Health Minister Ross announced Tuesday.

Retains Pancake Racing Title

LIBERAL, Kan. (AP)—The training in Olney, England, retained their grip on the international pancake racing title Tuesday.

Minister Says "Very Pleased"

Interviewed last evening, Hon. J. Angus MacLean, Minister of Fisheries, said he was very pleased that these grants had been approved by the Treasury Board.

Nehru Condemns Tunisian Attack

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said Tuesday the French aerial bombing of a Tunisian border village was "shocking beyond belief."

Chrysler Sends Workers Home

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corporation sent 7,100 workers home Tuesday from two Detroit plants as a production-standards dispute erupted anew.

Have Makings Of Top Force, Magistrate Tells City Police

You have the makings of a good force as it has been my privilege to see in thirty years. If you come up to your possibilities, you may be the best Magistrate K. M. Martin told members of the Charlottetown Police Force here last night.

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

U. S. Planning More Powerful Rocket Engines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Air Force told Congress Tuesday it is working on rocket engines to produce as much as 1,300,000 pounds of thrust that might send day propel vehicles into outer space.

Crew Abandons Sinking Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The U.S. Coast Guard reported Tuesday night that all 27 crew members had abandoned the sinking Italian freighter Bonitas in the Atlantic and an American ship was attempting to pick them up.

Sees Dispute Not Serious

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Sidney Smith said Tuesday first reports received here indicate the frontier dispute between Egypt and the Sudan is "not very serious."

Warns Canada May Be Educational Slum Soon

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Canada will soon become "an educational slum" unless drastic steps are taken to improve the country's educational system, Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside said Monday night.

More Money For Education And Municipalities In N. B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—Increased educational facilities, more money for municipalities and participation in the national hospital insurance plan by Jan. 1, 1959, are the aims of legislation to be introduced by the Progressive Conservative government in the 1958 session of the New Brunswick legislature.

RAPS SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Keenleyside criticized the admission of "permanent juveniles" who go to college for social purposes, fun, fame or money and are "their best to turn college into country clubs for underdeveloped adolescents."

THE STICK MARKS THE SITE

A small dead tree branch in the centre of a snow covered field in St. Raphael, was the centre of interest yesterday afternoon for officials of Imperial Oil Co., Ltd. on a one day visit here from their head office in Toronto.

THE STICK MARKS THE SITE

A small dead tree branch in the centre of a snow covered field in St. Raphael, was the centre of interest yesterday afternoon for officials of Imperial Oil Co., Ltd. on a one day visit here from their head office in Toronto.