Proverbs from the French.

Do not defer till to-morrow what you can do to-day

He is a fool that spends more money than his receipts.

Life does not consist in breathing, but in action.

Confidence furnishes more to conversation than wit or talent.

When men grow old they become more foolish and more wise.

Bodily labor relieves mental fatigue, and this forms the happiness of the poor.

Every man complains of his memory, but no man complains of his judgement.

Men who have little business are great talkers. The less one speaks the more one thinks.

It requires a greater share of virtue to sustain a situation of prosperity than one of adversity.

There are people of merit who are disgusting, and there are others who please with all their defects.

Hearts may be attracted by assumed qualities, but the affections are fixed only by those which are real.

Merit is often a merit to success, for the reason that it ever produces two bad effects—envy and fear.

True courage is shown by doings, without witnesses, that which a man is capable of doing before the world.

A man who is always well satisfied with himself is seldom so with others, and others are as little pleased with him.

What makes persons discontented with their own condition is the absurd idea which they form of the happiness of others.

There is not in the world so difficult a task as that of getting a great name.

The Great French Remedy, Dr LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhœa or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagnia, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

—GOLD MEDAL PARIS 1878—

MONTREAL, May 14, 1883.

Dr. Bennet, Halifax.

DEAR DOCTOR,—Just a few lines as promised by me. I am more than pleased with the "Liver Pad" I got from you when in Charlottetown, and can conscientiously say that it is the best thing I ever saw or heard of. It has done for me what all kinds of medicine and different physicians could not do for me—i. e., removed a very nasty body eruption, which had given me a great deal of annoyance for more than two years; and, more than that, I have not been troubled with a single headache since I have used it. Before wearing the Pad I was troubled with severe headaches continually; and that very objectionable feeling of sluggishness and dullness has entirely left me—in fact I am a new man, to what I was before wearing it. I am truly thankful to you for what you have done for me, and I hope that you may be long spared to the benefit of the public

Believe me,
Yours sincerely,
FRANK ELLIOTT.
