Rev. Mr. Meikle Married.

The Methodist Church at Granville Ferry, N. S., was filled with a large and fashionable audience, on Tuesday morning, to witness the nuptials of the Rev. Wm. Meikle, the evangelist, and Miss Mary Anderson, daughter of Capt. D. Anderson, formerly of Pictou. The pulpit and organ were tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers, a dove surmounting the whole, making a very pretty picture. At 11.30 the bridal party arrived. The groom was supported by Rev. Mr. Langille, of Hampton, N. B., and the bride by Miss Jessie Meikle, of New Glasgow. James E. Shafner gave the bride away. Rev. J. M. Fisher performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ackman, of Bridgetown. After partaking of a collation at the residence of the bride's mother, the happy couple took the steamer Secret, en route for New York. The many friends of the Rev. gentleman in Charlottetown, extend their heartiest congratulations.

The Texas Horror.

Further particulars of the disaster at Sabine Pass and Johnson's Bayou are being received. Innumerable touching and heartrending incidents are related by survivors. One house, containing fourteen colored people, was seen to go down with a crash, every one of whom was lost. Incidents are related of husbands lashing wives and children to floating wrecks and then seeing them killed by heavy logs driving against them. A young woman in a nude state was found roaming around the prairie five miles from Sabine. She was demented, and could not tell her own name. When the Government tug Penrose rescued Sabine it found Columbus Marten rowing around the Delta looking for the bodies of his family. He said: "Myself, wife, and three children were clinging to a floating roof. It was gradually breaking to pieces. One of the little ones went and then another. I was holding the youngest, little Pearl. Soon my wife said, 'Good-bye, husband, I am going.' I could not reach her. The piece she was on broke off, and she sank before my eyes. I held on to little Pearl some time longer. She said 'Papa, I'm tired; won't you walk with me?' I told her I couldn't. Then the piece I was on was crumbling to pieces. I told the little one to kiss me. She put both her little arms around my neck, gave a big squeeze, and just then a wave dashed us off and I saw her no more. Great God, why didn't I go down too? He was pressed to go on board the Penrose, but refused, saying: 'Here among these lagoons are the bodies of my wife and children, and here will I stop until I can find them.' No tongue can tell how the people have suffered during the past few days. It is feared the list of the drowned at Bayou Johnson will be swelled to one hundred or more, thus making the total number of victims of the hurricane fully two hundred. The destitution of the survivors, of whom there are over a thousand around Johnson's and Ratford's, is described as something awful.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.)

More Fishery Captures.

ST. ANDREW'S Oct. 20. The Dominion cruiser Gen. Middleton arrived here on Tuesday afternoon. That night a number of the fishermen were torching off St. Andrew's harbor, and notwithstanding that the Middleton was anchored in the harbor, some of them were bold enough to enter, and with flaring torches prosecute fishing as though to challenge the right of her commander to interfere with or stop their illegal work. The result was that a boat put off from the Middleton and captured ten fishing boats. All admit that Capt. McLean performed his duty in the most considerate manner.

LATER.

By order of Deputy Minister of Marine Tilton, Capt. McLean has released the fishing boats, warning them that this was the last act of leniency.

Excitement in Halifax.

HALIFAX, Oct. 20. The whole topic of conversation is the refusal of Canon Carmody to bury a soldier who died of suffocation from drink, against the express command of Lord Russell. Arrangements were made yesterday for his burial, but as he had not received the last rites of the Church, and the priest believing that "No drunkard shall inherit the Kingdom of Heaven," refused to bury the man in consecrated ground. To-day the Garrison Chaplain read the Church of England service but under protest. The priest cannot be court-martialed but will be dismissed, and the archbishop will refer the matter to the war office.

IS A GOOD TIME TO BUY Silver-Plated Ware.

Prices are Likely to Go Up.

The following is contained in a letter just received by us from a manufacturer: "There is a regular boom in trade. Cannot send travellers out, have to keep them home to help to get out orders. Everyone crazy about goods. The whole west is in a ferment and prices are going to be higher, as it is utterly impossible to make the goods required."

The above state of the trade is in a great measure due to the fine exhibits of Silver Ware made at the Colonial Exhibition, in London and the consequent popularity and demand for Canadian Goods. We have a splendid show of Sugar, Butter and Cream Dishes, Cups and Mugs, Ice Pitchers, Pickle Dishes (colored and plain), Castors, Napkin Rings, Spoons, and all kinds of goods.

But the facts are: He buys for cash only, therefore buy from 15 to 25 per cent less than many houses in the trade, and can afford to sell even less than those who pretend to give those Fabulous Discounts.
