

"On with the dance" can never surely be the whole duty of man.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

Public opinion is not what people think but what they express.

Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

Annual Subscription Delivered $4.00
By Mail Canada and U. S. $4.50

Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents
Morning Guardian, Founded 1857

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, MONDAY, JULY 13, 1936

10 PAGES

PACT IS BARRIER TO HAPSBURG RESTORATION

Salvation Army Leaders Tendered Civic Welcome

Commissioner McMillan Addressed Meeting In Theatre Yesterday — Inspiring Messages Delivered At All Army Services.

Commissioner John McMillan, Toronto, head of the Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda and Alaska, arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday and was tendered a civic welcome. Mayor P. W. Turner, supported by several of the city councillors spoke words of welcome at an open air meeting held in Queen Square. Commissioner McMillan spoke at a meeting at the Prince Edward Theatre. His Honour Lieutenant Governor George D. DeBlols who presided gave a short address. Hon. B. W. LePage extended a welcome on behalf of the Premier. Several other prominent citizens occupied positions on the platform.

COMING EVENTS

- Hope River—ice cream festival, etc. at Hope River Saturday, July 18th. L-6029
- Palmer Road Picnic Wednesday, August 19th. The greatest outing of the season. L-5900-7-10-31
- Re-serve July 22 for Baptist United Church Tea at Pinette. L-6048-7-13-21
- Dr. LaCourriere, dentist, will be in Georgetown July 13th until the 20th. L-6048-7-13-11
- If not fine Monday evening, Wiltshire Festival will be held Tuesday, 14th. L-6038-7-13-11
- Dance in Millview Hall Thursday, July 16th, in aid of Millview Women's Institute. L-6055
- Ice Cream Festival Spring-on School Thursday July 16th. If not fine Friday. Proceeds for school. L-5967-7-13-11
- Reserve Wednesday July 15th for Tea at West Covehead United Church. If not fine Thursday. L-6019-7-11-41
- Come and see "The Girl From Brittany" in the Tryon Bap. Hall, July 15th. Good specialties. L-5831-7-11-13
- Club leading hogs and lambs at Uigs. Tuesday afternoon, July 14. Please list stock with secretary. L-6045-7-13-11
- Gospel tent at North River. Meetings nightly (except Saturday). Everybody welcome. No collections. L-6056
- St. Andrews Picnic Wednesday, July 15th. Supper 4 o'clock. The P. E. I. Highlanders Black Watch Band in attendance. Dancing 8 1/2 night. L-5825-7-6-8-11
- The annual meeting of the West River Rural Telephone Company will be held at Long Creek Hall Tuesday, 14th, at 8 o'clock. L-6052
- Dance in Oddfellows Hall, Montague, Wednesday, July 15th, night of Montague Horse Races. Sid Elliot and his orchestra. Admission 35 cents. L-6049-7-13-21
- Loading live hogs at Kensington Thursday morning, July 16th. Nicholson Bros. loading at Hunter River same date. H. S. McEwen and Oliver Campbell. L-6060
- Livestock Marketing Board loading this week as follows: Tuesday afternoon, Uigs; Wednesday forenoon, Hunter River, and Wednesday afternoon, Borden Line at Albany. L-6058
- Come to festival and dance at Oyster Bed Wednesday, July 15, in Amos Gallant's field. Proceeds for spinal support for Harold Gallant. Rain spoiled festival previously advertised. L-6053
- We supply upwards of 4,000 farmers with a marketing service that means more money for their livestock. We expect at least one out of five to attend our annual meeting. You are no. five. Please attend. L-6058

ORANGEMEN OBSERVE 12TH OF JULY

Island Lodges Hold Annual Church Parades.

A picnic, attended by Orangemen and members of the Ladies' Benevolent Assn., held at Westmorland Saturday marked the celebration by members of the Provincial lodges of the "Glorious 12th."

Addresses were made by Provincial Grand Master T. J. Inman of Bedouin, who presided, and other local lodge heads. Pipers provided Scottish music. A program of sports was cancelled as there were not sufficient entries.

Yesterday members of lodges of different centres in the Province held their annual church parades. In Charlottetown the members of Boyne Lodge, the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association and the Black Preceptory attended the evening service at St. Paul's Church where the sermon was preached by the Rev. H. D. Raymond.

The parade formed up at the Lodge rooms on Richmond Street and headed by the Highland Band proceeded by way of Richmond, Queen, Grafton and Church streets to the Church. Mr. Lambrose Spencer and Mr. James Ford were the marshals. After the service the procession returned and marched by Church, Grafton, Prince, Kent, Queen and Richmond streets to the Lodge rooms.

In Summerside members of the Orange Order attended the morning service in the Presbyterian Church. At Kingston yesterday afternoon members of King William and Queen Mary Lodges attended divine service and were addressed by Rev. Dr. Geinge.

Address by Rev. Mr. Raymond

"This religion which is ours" was the subject of the address delivered by Rev. Mr. Raymond last evening.

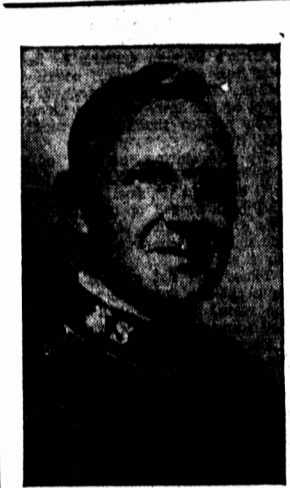

One of the beautiful prayers of the prayerbook asks that those who are admitted into the fellowship of the church should be men who are contrary to their profession and do those things which are agreeable to the same, the speaker said. The opinion was expressed that many people do not stop to ask themselves whence their religion came. Religion is the response of the human heart to the universal urge which seeks for God. "Our religion finds for us the Creator, God, who is holy, kindly, and gentle, yet Almighty," Rev. Mr. Raymond declared.

"We find him revealing himself through many channels till we come to the climax of this revelation in Jesus Christ," he continued. The fellowship of Christian religion is the great family of those who look to Him for salvation.

The book of the Acts of the Apostles is the story of the beginnings of the Christian Church. It reveals the apostolic band, scattered by persecution, going everywhere preaching the Gospel. Lack of communication lines meant the building up of differences of opinion.

His Honour The Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island, Government House, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

Salvation Army Leaders

COMMR. JOHN McMILLAN OF TORONTO

MRS. JOHN McMILLAN

Torrid Weather For Orange Parade

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, July 12.—Ten thousand men, women and children of Toronto's Orange Associations marched yesterday in the hottest Twelfth of July parade ever held here and thousands of spectators braved oven-like streets to view the traditional turnout.

The Orange forces assembled in Queen's Park, where the parade formed, marched past city hall where a wreath was deposited at the cenotaph in honor of the Orange brethren who had died in the Great War, and continued to exhibition park.

There, perspiring thousands listened to six equally perspiring speakers who urged Orangemen to combat separate schools and bilingual teaching.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn was the target for most of their shafts but George McCombe, Grand Master Ontario west, also took a verbal shot at G. Howard Ferguson, former Conservative Premier of Ontario, for alleged "favors" to bilingual schools.

William J. Stewart, C. B. E., former Mayor of Toronto, felt the Orangemen had been "betrayed."

"We are not the tools or adjunct of any party but we have been badly used by our own people," he said. He declared for a "purging" from the Orange order of "busy-footers and politicians."

Liner Yarmouth In Collision

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) BOSTON, July 12.—The Eastern Steamship liner Yarmouth and the freighter Losmar of the Calmar Line collided in a dense fog today in Boston harbor but 200 passengers of both ships escaped injury.

Steel hull plates of the Yarmouth were ripped open above the water line, leaving a gash 12 feet long and about three feet wide.

The impact tore a hole in the Losmar, below the water line. The city's harbor police boats sped to the scene but their services were not required.

The passenger ship was coming in from Yarmouth, N. S. The freighter was loaded with lumber. Captain Frank Crosby of the Yarmouth flashed a radio alarm to the company's headquarters here and all available ambulances were rushed to the waterfront, as a precautionary measure.

Canada Will Lift Sanctions Against Italy

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, July 12.—In conformity with League of Nations recommendations, Canada will lift economic sanctions against Italy next Wednesday. Three orders-in-council imposing the trade barriers were repealed at a cabinet session last week, to take effect July 15.

The effect of sanctions lifting will be to remove all restrictions against Canadian-Italian trade. Goods arriving in Canada before Wednesday will be subject to the embargo but after that date will be free from it.

The League coordination committee on July 6 adopted a resolution proposing that all countries should remove sanctions against Italy on July 15. Canadian delegates to the League supported the resolution.

Sanctions were applied against Italy by means of the League's council which will disappear next Wednesday.

The first placed an embargo upon the exportation of munitions to Italy. The second prohibited the importation into Canada of certain key commodities to Italy, and the extension of credit to Italy.

The third revised the second in certain particulars, permitting admission of newspapers, periodicals, music, maps and hydrographic charts and enabling the importation of goods, the price of which had been wholly paid to the Italian exporter on or before October 19, 1935.

Sudden Death Of Mrs. Murray MacLaren

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) SAINT JOHN, N. B., July 12.—(CP)—Mrs. Murray MacLaren, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, died at Government House late tonight from a heart attack.

Death came with shocking suddenness. Mrs. MacLaren returned only yesterday with her husband and a daughter, Margaret, from a trip to the British Isles.

Mrs. MacLaren was a Dame of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem and held the British war medal for services overseas under the Canadian Red Cross Society and the St. John Ambulance Corps. She was president of the Girl Guide Association of New Brunswick.

In addition to Dr. MacLaren two sons and daughters survive. They are Nicholas, Ian Murray MacLaren, Toronto, David Alastair Murray MacLaren, Montreal, Mrs. George Hooper, Ottawa, and Margaret, Saint John.

CRITICS SEE BLUM GOVT. WEAKENING

Discord Apparent Between Communists and Moderate Radical-Socialists.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) PARIS, July 12.—Critics of Premier Leon Blum's leftist government said tonight its parliamentary foundation shows signs of cracking. Nevertheless, they predicted it would last at least until September.

Some Rightists, such as Col. Francois de la Rocque, leader of the transforme Croix de Feu, said they were out to defend France against a Communist dictatorship.

Leaders of the government forces in the People's Front were just as loudly proclaiming their defence on the country against "Fascists."

Former Premier Andre Tardieu, Rightist critic of both crowds since his retirement from the Chamber of Deputies, said the "real danger" was another attempt at a national union cabinet of the moderately Leftist Radical-Socialist, the centre and the Rightist parties.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Government organs sought to minimize signs of discord among Blum's supporters, apparent mainly between the Communists and the Moderate Radical-Socialists.

Press Hails Austro-German Accord

Austrian Political Refugees Greet Re-establishment Of Friendly Relations With Germany.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) ROME, July 12.—Informed political sources tonight predicted four-power collaboration in all major problems of Europe—between Germany, Austria, Italy and Hungary—would be the first result of the Austro-German accord.

Some of them also said Premier Benito Mussolini was studying a revival of the pact between these nations, with the addition of Russia and Poland.

However, some of the Prince's friends said he was urging immediate restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty because "the Austro-German accord makes the enthronement of Otto absolutely essential to preserve Austrian identity and culture."

Chancellor Schuschnigg, in a brief address last night, outlined the broad principles of the new accord, leaving details of such matters as tourist relations and political amnesty to be worked out later.

More books and newspapers will be permitted to cross the frontier both ways, and it was expected the scheduled lifting of the 1000-mark visa requirement for Germans entering Austria and the granting of amnesties to Austrian political refugees now in Germany would be undertaken gradually.

Under the agreement, Germany recognizes Austrian sovereignty. Austria acknowledges itself a member of the Rome pact signed by Austria, Italy and Hungary.

By Alvin J. Steinkopf, Associated Press Foreign Staff (By Guardian's Special Wire) VIENNA, July 12.—A torrent of enthusiastic press comment and rejoicing in the families of thousands of Austrian political refugees tonight greeted the reestablishment of friendly relations with Germany.

The success of the negotiations was made public in a joint communication issued last night by the Austrian and German governments which summarized the main points of the agreement.

Even some of the troublesome Austrian Nazis, whose terrorism and agitation have worried the government for years, seemed to be delighted by the accord.

They conceded the new Austro-German accord was less than an "Anschluss," or actual union but they believed the Nazi ideology would gradually gain a foothold in Austria.

On the other side of the political picture, Jews, Legitimists and determined opponents of the accord were bitterly disappointed. Some leaders of these factions predicted eventual trouble as the German influence in Austria increased.

The Legitimists pointed out the new agreement presented no technical obstacle to making the Archduke Otto emperor, for Germany pledged itself not to interfere with Austrian internal affairs.

Actually, however, with thousands of Germans again crossing the border and the aggressive German influence given a freer hand, Legitimists were greatly increased, the leaders contended.

"It is ridiculous to hope this new friendship can help restoration," said Baron Hans von Zesener, legal adviser to the 23-year-old Hapsburg.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the home this afternoon, a public service was held in Trinity United Church where Rev. Harold A. Frame delivered the funeral address. The spacious church was filled to capacity.

Among those in the lengthy procession to Riverside Cemetery where burial took place were: Col. the Honorable Gordon S. Harrington, former Premier of Nova Scotia; Mr. Justice Doull of the Supreme Court, mayors and councillors of Pictou municipalities, provincial newspapermen, former business associates.

The Canadian Press was represented by A. D. Merkel Atlantic Superintendent.

Funeral Of J. W. H. Sutherland Held

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 12.—Tongue in cheek, officials of the Federal Writers' Project announced that the New Brunswick unit had found this enlightening bit of news in the Brunswick Gazette of June 18, 1935:

"SALEM, May 26—A very singular event has lately taken place at MacLachlan. A gentleman there visited a lady by way of courtship five evenings—they were married, and madam five days after marriage became the mother of five daught'rs, who were all born alive and like to do well; and in five days after birth of the daughters, the mother rode five miles to meeting."

After a short service at the