Paths.

The path that leads to a Loaf of Bread
Winds through she Swamps of Toil,
And the path that leads to a Suit of Clothes
Goes through a flowerless soil;
And the paths that lead to the Loaf of Bread
And the Suit of Clothes are hard to tread.

And the path that leads to a Honse of Your Own
Climbs over the bowldered hills,
And the path that leads to a Bank Account
Is swept by the blast that kills;
But the men who start in the paths to-day
In the Lazy Hills may go astray.

In the Lazy Hills are trees of shade
By the dreamy Brooks of Slcep,
And the rollicking River of Pleasure laughs
And gambols down the steep;
But when the blasts sf the winter come
The brooks and the river are frozen dumb.

Then woe to those in the Lazy Hills
When the blasts of winter moan,
Who strayed from the path to a Bank Account
And the path to a House of Their Own;
These paths are hard in the summer heat,
But in winter they lead to a snug retreat

Belgium and Germany.

It is reported that King Leopold has signed a treaty with Germany securing to the Germans forts on the Meuse as a basis of operations in case of a war with France. The report is probably correct. Commenting upon it, the Montreal Gazette says that King Leopold may remember, though he was not then on the throne, that in 1867 the late Emperor of the French plotted the seizure of Belgium. He proposed to Prince Bismarck that, if the Prussian government assisted him in conquering Luxembourg and Belgium, he would recognize the Prussian annexations of 1866 and aid in bringing about the absorption in the new confederation of the South German States. Prince Bismarck was too wily to commit himself to any promise of the kind. He foresaw that before long Prussia would be strong enough to obtain the confirmation of all her conquests, and he trusted to his own tact and to his destiny to bring in the South German states. Before long the wisdom of his silence was made manifest, when it was revealed that Napoleon had been at the same time treating with the King of Holland for the purchase of Luxembourg, with whose garrison he intended to overawe both Belgium and the Rhine provinces. Unfortunately for Napoleon, King William, who was in constant terror of offending Prussia, made known Napoleon's communication to the German ambassador at the Hague from Berlin, and the upshot was a note to the powers and the settlement of the Luxembourg question in such a way as to make France's schemes fruitless ever after. The scandal and subsequent defeat greatly injured Napoleon's prestige, and was the first stage in the decline of the second empire. Three years later his ambition to rectify France's frontier entailed the loss of Alsace-Lorraine. Belgium has not forgotten the timely service that Germany then rendered. Teutonic Holland has not ceased to fear occupation by the Germans, while the French-speaking Belgians dread annexation to France.

Practical Kindness.

It is generally agreed, says The Week, that practical kindness is a better way of bridging over the gulf by which classes are separated than the propagation of new theories about socialism or the extinction of poverty. As the admirable Vicar of Wakefield said, he "was ever of opinion that the honest man who married and brought up a large family did more service than he who remained single and only talked of population"; so we think that those who actually go among the poor and the weak and guide and strengthen them, are much better and kinder friends than those who teach them to be discontented with their position, but do nothing to lighten their burdens. Happily, there are some everywhere who are choosing the better part. From England, for example, we hear of a daughter of the late Archbishop Tait, who has taken up her abode in a poor part of the great city of which her father was for a good many years bishop, and is living plainly among the poor, that she may help them as one of themselves. It is a long way from the capital of England to the great western city of Chicago; but humanity and Christian love are the same everywhere, and a beautiful illustration of this principle comes to us also from Chicago. It appears that a poor family in that city, deserted by the father, had been greatly helped by the daughter of a judge. She provided them with food and raiment, and found a situation for two of the older girls in a tailor's shop. Keeping her eye upon her proteges, she found that work and confinement were beginning to tell upon one of the girls. A change of air was thought quite essential for her recovery; but her master would let her go only on the condition that she got a substitute, or lose her place. The judge's daughter told her to go and she would find a substitute, which she did in her own person. For two weeks she labored in the tailor's shop, leaving her home at six o'clock in the morning and returning at seven in the evening. Such examples must be contagious. And yet it is not necessarily these special acts that are required, but the spirit that produces them. Many a pope has washed the feet of beggars without thereby manifesting the meekness and gentleness of Him who washed the feet of His disciples. It is the spirit of humanity—it is the pure, human, brotherly love that we want; and when that abounds, agitators will find that their occupation is gone.

Dyspepticure—Is not a palliative, but a cure; it first relieves, then controls, and finally entirely subdues the irritation and inflammation of the stomach that causes indigestion and dyspepsia.

K D. C. for the Stomach.

Local and Other Items.

A SNUG SUM.—The snug sum of $500 was realized at the English Church tea held at Alberton on the 5th inst. And the attendance wasn't very large, either.

CAPTURED.—The St. John papers report that the sneak thief who stole a package containing $120 from C. & E. Everett's hat store a few days ago was caught at Vanceboro, across the line, and restored $110 of the money.

A MISSING SCHOONER.—The Summerside Agriculturist says: The schooner Richard Thompson, commanded by Joseph O. Green, of this town, which left Pictou on Monday morning last, 4th inst., for Suumerside, with a load of coal, has not since been heard from, up to the time of going to press, and grave fears are entertained regarding the safety of the vessel and crew. Monday night, it will be remembered, was the occasion of a heavy thunder storm.

THEY MUST NOT SMOKE.—A London despatch says: General Booth, of the Salvation Army, not content with forcing his officers below the rank of captain to marry, has just issued the most stringent edict against smoking, in which he denounces the habit as wasteful, dirty and injurious, and purely inexcusable. It is absolutely forbidden, and the General orders that henceforth no member of the army who smokes shall receive any promotion, and that sergeants, bandsmen, secretaries, etc., must abandon the practice or cease to hold office in the corps.

Y. M. C. A.—A New Glasgow despatch of the 8th says: The 23rd annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of the Maritime Provinces is the largest yet held. Of the 35 Associations, 23 are in Nova Scotia, 10 in New Brunswick, and 2 in P. E. Island. Very encouraging reports were presented from every section. A Lunenburg philanthropist offers to erect a $4,000 building there for the Association at his own expense. Halifax reported a princly legacy from the late John P. Mott. New Glasgow will erect a new building, and Moncton is putting up a $30,000 structure. Good work has been done by the travelling secretary, and it was decided to re-appoint E. W. Yorston at a salary of $1,500. Halifax guaranteed $400, St. John $200, Moncton $100, Amherst and Truro $80 each. The personal pledges amounted to $100.

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT.—The business, hitherto carried on by the Dominion Illustrated Publishing Company (limited) has been purchased and will be continued by the Sabiston Lithographic and Publishing company, of which Mr. Richard White is president and Mr. Alex. Sabiston is Managing-Director. It is hoped to add to the interest and value of the paper, both from a pictorial and literary standpoint, and to extend and improve the business in its various departments. The business will be carried on in the meantime at the old premises, 73 St. James Street, Montreal, under the management of Mr. J. P. Edwards, to whom all communications in connection with the accounts due the old company and new should be addressed.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. apl18'90dyeodwkyly

Horse Notes.

The programme of races on the Charlottetown Driving Park on October 1st and 2nd next, is a splendid one, and the purses for the six events aggregate $1,050. The following are the races to take place on the dates named: Wednesday, October 1st, Three-minute-class, purse $150; 2.37 class purse $200; and three-year-old class, purse $100. Thursday, October 2nd, 2.45 class, purse $150; stallion race, purse $300, and a handsome cup to the winner; and running race, purse $150.

At Buffalo, N. Y., on the 8th, Belle Hamlin and Sunol were sent to beat 2.15. The former made the quarter in 33½. the half in 1.06, the three-quarters in 1.40 and the mile in 2.14¼. Sunol made the quarter in 33¾, the half in 1.05½, three-quarters in 1.38½, and the mile 2.11¼. The three-quarters was a second slower than the California record, but the wind on the stretch made a difference in time of a second. This with the condition of the track made Sunol's performance more than equal to her best time.

Not a Friendly Act!

A Washington despatch reports the prohibition of the sealing by the United States consul at Vancouver of cars containing goods direct from China and Japan. In other words, the Canadian Pacific Company will no longer be permitted to receive freight from China and Japan for direct importation into the United States in bond. That trade is said to be a very considerable portion of their direct trade with the United States. The change which is contemplated is to issue a new regulation, which shall be instruction to the consular agent stationed at Vancouver and to all consular agents in British Columbia, forbidding them to accept for sealing and bonding into the United States any merchandise except that which is the product of the Dominion of Canada, or which shall be of the United States origin in course of transshipment through the Dominion in bond. This, it is understood, will sericusly cripple the Canadian Pacific as to one important feature of its commerce. It will effectually stop its acting as common carrier for China and Japan trade direct to the United States and will compel it to cease accepting the consignments of tea from China and silk from China and Japan to the United Sttes ports.
