

SHAKESPEARIAN COMPANY COMING

This is the opening scene of "King Lear" which will be presented Tuesday evening at the Queen Charlotte High School Auditorium. "As You Like It" will be presented Monday afternoon for High School and College students of Charlottetown and Monday evening for the public.

The Earle Grey Shakespeare Festival Company is on a 5-week tour and has been playing in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia since Oct. 2. Their P.E.I. engagement is sponsored by the Island Shrine Club for the second year.

The company, which travels by chartered bus, has been enthusiastically received by school and adult audiences throughout its tour.

S.S. Rally Day Held In Church

On Sunday morning, October 20th, the Presbyterian Sunday school held their Rally Day Service in the church, with quiet music played by Mrs. Percy MacPherson. Call to worship by Mr. Dunlop, pastor of Church. Prayer of invocation by Alma Hart, followed by hymn "All people that on earth do dwell". Scripture reading by Alton Ellis. Prayer of confession by Annie Easter, followed by hymn "Praise The Lord".

Worship was conducted by the president, Mrs. F. J. Carpenter, assisted by Mrs. Kerr who read the Old Testament lesson, Mrs. Myrl Matthews who read the New Testament lesson and Mrs. Norman Oliver who led in prayer.

Special music included a quartette, "Wonderful Peace" by Misses Lorraine Campbell and Evelyn Carpenter, Garth Wilkie and Dean Carpenter, and choir selection, "Praise The Lord."

The offering was received by Mrs. Sergeant Metherall and Mrs. F. J. White.

Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Andrew Jardine of Freetown. She laid before her hearers a challenge to take greater interest in younger groups of the W.M.S. and also stressed the need for more young people to give their lives in full time service to the church as ministers and deaconesses.

Welcome Given To New Bride

A large number of friends of Norboro and other communities gathered at their home to wait on Mr. and Mrs. Donald Glover in honor of their recent marriage and to welcome Mrs. Glover, the former Arline Larter to the district.

An address was read by Mr. Alton Harding and a couch, a chair and a magazine rack were presented to the newlyweds on behalf of friends and neighbors. Assisting in making the presentation were Messrs. Lloyd Sharpe, Carl Stewart and I. Webster.

A feature of the evening was the showing of the slides of the wedding, by Arnold MacCaull. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

Given 30-Day Jail Sentence

SUMMERSIDE — A Tignish man convicted of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail in Magistrate's Court here Monday evening. It was the accused's second offence.

Three witnesses were heard in the case of a Toronto man, formerly of Days Corner, charged with the theft of a safe and $60 from the store of J. P. Gaudet of Richmond on the night of September 7th. The case was further adjourned to October 20th.

The witnesses were Mrs. Edmond MacLeod of Days Corner; Norman J. Cameron, who found the safe about a week ago on the Allen Road, and Constable Bowles of the Summerside Detachment of the R.C.M.P.

J. Watson MacNaught, Q. C., is defence counsel. D. O. Stewart, Q. C., is crown prosecutor.

Presbyterian Thankoffering Is Held At Alberton

ALBERTON—Alberton Presbyterian W.M.S. held a Thankoffering service in the Church Sunday evening. The church was attractively decorated with autumn foliage and flowers.

Worship was conducted by the president, Mrs. F. J. Carpenter, assisted by Mrs. Kerr who read the Old Testament lesson, Mrs. Myrl Matthews who read the New Testament lesson and Mrs. Norman Oliver who led in prayer.

Special music included a quartette, "Wonderful Peace" by Misses Lorraine Campbell and Evelyn Carpenter, Garth Wilkie and Dean Carpenter, and choir selection, "Praise The Lord."

The offering was received by Mrs. Sergeant Metherall and Mrs. F. J. White.

Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Andrew Jardine of Freetown. She laid before her hearers a challenge to take greater interest in younger groups of the W.M.S. and also stressed the need for more young people to give their lives in full time service to the church as ministers and deaconesses.

R.C.A.F. Division Of C.W.L. Meets

SUMMERSIDE — The regular monthly meeting of the R.C.A.F. sub-division of the Catholic Women's League was held on Monday, October 13th, in the chapel room with the president, Mrs. C. A. Vivian in the chair. Reverend Father J.W. MacGillivray opened the meeting with the League Prayer.

The treasurer's report read by Mrs. J. A. Sampson showed a satisfactory bank balance.

Reports were received from the following conveners: Membership, Mrs. A. Sawyer; Entertainment, Mrs. M. Rocheleau; Press, Mrs. J. M. Forestell.

Due to the absence of the convener, Mrs. G. Duquette, a report of the recent rummage sale was not tabled.

Arrangements are underway to procure a film to be shown at the Station theatre in November.

A motion was passed to hold a tea and bazaar in February. Mrs. E. A. Ryan will be in charge of the fish pond, etc., Mrs. M. DeCoste, knitting and fancy work and Mrs. M. Rocheleau, serving.

Mrs. E. A. Ryan and Mrs. J. A. Chabat, volunteered to visit hospital patients for the coming month.

In his remarks to the meeting, the spiritual director mentioned the great loss suffered by the church in the death of Pope Pius XII and urged all members to pray for both the repose of his soul and Divine guidance for those responsible for the election of the new pope. Father

MacGillivray also suggested that the library at the rear of the chapel be enlarged so that books of an interesting and educational nature would be available to members of the parish.

Rev. L.S. Wolfres Speaker At WMS Thankoffering

MONTAGUE — The Women's Missionary Society Thankoffering service was held on Sunday evening at Montague United Church. Rev. Leonard S. Wolfres of Murray Harbor was guest speaker.

His address, Mr. Wolfres gave the highlights of home mission work in his native province of Newfoundland. He told many interesting stories of his work there. He spoke of the great work done by the W.M.S., mentioning particularly the boxes of clothing

Bride-To-Be Tendered Shower

ALBERTON — Mrs. John C. Profit, Miss Jane Profit, Mrs. Frank McNeill and Miss Dorothy McNeill entertained at the Profit residence, Alberton, in honor of Miss Frances Larter whose marriage will take place later this week.

Pink and white were featured in the decorations. Miss Bessie sent to places where it is needed. The Valleyfield ladies quartet consisting of Mrs. W. A. Bruce, Mrs. Preston Pearson, Mrs. Lloyd Fraser and Miss Catherine MacDonald sang "The Beautiful Land".

Mrs. Arnold Wightman sang an anthem "Make A Joyful Noise", also "How Great Thou Art" with Dr. A. E. Ings taking the solo part. Mrs. L.A. Johnston presided at the organ.

Rayner brought in an attractively decorated umbrella filled with gifts. These were opened by the bride-to-be and arranged by Miss Janet Profit. The verses were read by Lorraine Campbell.

All joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow," and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Mrs. E. E. Larter was pianist.
