

Dorothea Hanafin, fifteen-year-old daughter of "Red" Hanafin, piloted Lee Overton to a win at the Metropolitan Driving Club races held in Brighton, Mass., a few days ago.

Jane Azoff, 1.59 1/2 left yesterday with caretaker Austin Tierney in charge for Turo, N.S., where she races in the Free For All tomorrow, July 1st.

Other workouts at the Charlottetown track were Peter Pin in 2:22. Peter is being taken considerable training in the briny and it has evidently done him good as everyone who watched him work thought he was a very fine gaited trotter.

Aaron L. 2:10 1/4 and Direct L. 2:13 1/2 in the stable of Joey O'Brien, both raced miles around 2:18 and came through the stretch very fast. They race at Alberton tomorrow.

Jimmie Power's candidates, Miss Victoria, paced a comfortable mile in 2:19 and Joe Volo, a four-year-old, in 2:28. Clarence Schurman let Lusty Frisco out a few links and he completed the mile in 2:16, which is his best effort this year.

Our New Brunswick correspondent gives us some particulars as to how the horses are training in his vicinity. Danie McNeill, who is training the trotter Peter McKinnon 2:12 1/4, has worked him around 1:20. He seems exceptionally good this year.

Earle Avery paid a visit to Houlton, Maine, June 19th and saw the new free-for-aller from Ohio, Dr. F. 1.59 1/4 work a mile in 2:12 free legged. Earle said that he is old friend G. Light over. They will be racing at Houlton, Maine, July 4th and at Woodstock the next week.

Tomorrow's Harry O'Brien's big day at Alberton and other news. There is no doubt that his four races will be among the best ever held over that track.

Grand O'Brien's regulations now require that horses in their warm-up miles wear their nose caps and numbers and that they be in racing colors. No doubt there is good reason for the regulations.

Kensington race meet follows Alberton with July 1st as date. Messrs. Myron McArthur and George Bocking, the managers, have a very attractive program, a

Rain Halts Tennis Play At Montreal

MONTREAL, June 29—(CP)—The weather caught up with the Quebec Provincial Tennis Championships today, a heavy shower late in the afternoon forcing postponement of some matches, delaying others more than two hours.

But before the rain, which had fallen lightly during most of the afternoon, became too heavy for play, Eleanor Young of Vancouver and Mrs. Rene Boite of Montreal qualified for the finals of the women's singles and the semi-final bracket of the men's doubles was filled.

The doubles semi-finals, halted after a set in both matches, were carried over until tomorrow, but when the sky cleared second round play resumed in the rain.

The favored combinations, Bill Pedlar and Phil Pearson of Toronto, and Laird Watt and Gordie MacNeil of Montreal, were leading by a set when the men's doubles was stopped.

After play had followed service in the first 12 games, Watt and MacNeil broke through Bill Pigott of Hamilton, Ont., in the 13th, and went on to win the opening set against the University of Toronto ace and his team-mate Bruce Hall of Toronto, 6-4.

After play had followed service in the first 12 games, Watt and MacNeil broke through Bill Pigott of Hamilton, Ont., in the 13th, and went on to win the opening set against the University of Toronto ace and his team-mate Bruce Hall of Toronto, 6-4.

The women's singles were the feature matches of the day and both ran according to form. Young defeated Mrs. A. R. Porter of Montreal, 6-2, 6-3, while Mrs. Boite eliminated Mrs. A. K. Austin of Montreal, 8-6, 8-6.

Charlie Ballard says that the Truro track is one nice outfit, track, stables and grand stands. He doubts their race meeting July 1st will draw a whopper of a crowd as it will be the first appearance of the community owned Silmcoe Harvester 2.04 1/2 in competition.

Steen Purves, who raced Royal Hanover 2.04 1/2 last season for Matt McAdam, Giac Bay, completed his year in the sulky by winning 1939 stakes out. Steen Purves has a cool head and a very strong pair of arms and few men can get along with a bad actor better than the same Steen. He has been in the fastest mile stepped in Cape Breton so far this season.

They are experimenting with a barrier system for starting trotters and pacers. It is quite a complicated affair but seems to have worked well the first few times it was tried. No doubt if something fool-proof in the barrier line can be worked out it will be a great improvement over the present method of starting.

North Sydney race track will open up the season July 1st with a free-for-all trot and pace in which Ben White, 2.08 1/2, Royal Hanover 2.04 1/2, Rainey G. Henley 2.06, The Viking 2.08 1/2, and Dermot 2.04 1/2 will compete. There will also be a 2:24 trot and pace that has been advertised to have a good season in Cape Breton; interest in baseball had faded considerably which will be for the benefit of the harness horse sport.

One of the winners at Canfield, Ohio, a week ago was Single Stine, by Single G. 1.58 1/4. He headed a good field in the last of time of 2:06 1/4. There are a lot of good sons and daughters of the old warrior racing this year and they seem to be the kind that don't easily give up the battle, in that way resembling their sire.

Rosalind, 1.56 1/2, world's champion trotting mare, is again in training in Ben White's stable with a view of making another assault on her own record. She recently worked a mile over the Lexington, Kentucky, track in 2:05 1/4, last half in .00 1/4, last quarter in 29 1/2 seconds.

The two-year-old Queen Victoria, sister of two former world's champions, worked a mile in 2:09 1/4 which is a very impressive performance and stamps her as likely to follow in the footsteps of her brother and sister, Proctor (3) 1.59 1/4 and The Marchioness (3) 1.59 1/4.

One of the rules that will be strictly enforced on the Grand Circuit this season is that no person, except the judges, timers, starter, clerk of the course and an announcer, will be permitted in the judges' or starter's stand under any circumstances while racing is in progress. This rule has been pretty faithfully carried out at the Charlottetown Driving Park track. Other local tracks would be wise in adopting it as the presence of those other than the officials in the stand sometimes leads to regrettable happenings.

It is "Charles" Guernsey—not "Henry" Guernsey, who has the fine foil by Calumet Budlong out of a Leocopia mare that is being greatly admired by members of the Charlottetown Driving Park, where it is housed.

Louis - Pastor Return Bout And Nova - Galento Clash Are Mooted For September

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, June 29—The heavyweight fashion parade, momentarily in the off-season after Joe Louis' four-round technical knockout over Tony Galento, was made ready for fall showing today with details virtually completed for two September bouts.

The Associated Press learned that these two bouts, looking towards a meeting between the victors next spring, would be:— 1. Champion Louis in Detroit against Bob Pastor, the former New York University footballer who went 10 rounds running away with the Brown Bomber two years ago.

2. Galento against the only other outstanding challenger of the moment, California Lou Nova, either in Philadelphia or New York.

Arrangements of these bouts, which would find the already talked-of rematch of the Louis-Galento blood-and-thunder thriller of last night coming off probably next June if both get by, featured a day full of fistie developments, that included:—

1. Louis, his only mark from Tony's left-hand shots a deep bluish bruise under the right eye, revealed that he went into the ring last night with the intention of letting the fight go about 10 rounds and changing his mind when he was floored in the third session.

2. Joe Jacobs, Galento's manager, disclosed that Tony wasn't as serious about his training for Louis as his manager had made out. "Why," Jacobs said, "he was out almost every night till one or two o'clock, and he smoked cigars and drank beer the same as always."

3. Revelation by the fists of Galento and Max Schmeling (two years ago) that the Brown Bomber's chin is vulnerable, caused just about every fight manager to hurl a challenge at the champion. Even Joe spoke his piece on behalf of a return go to Tommy Farr, who lasted 15 rounds with Louis. Promoter Mike Jacobs turned thumbs down on this one, since it involved holding the fight in London. Another challenge came from Melio Bettina, recognized in New York State as light heavyweight champion.

4. Promoter Jacobs announced gross receipts from the crowd of 34,852, plus $50,000 from radio and motion picture rights, brought the total gross proceeds from last night's fight to $333,302.88, from which, after federal and state taxes were deducted, Louis collected $114,322.87, thus bringing his total ring earnings over the $1,500,000 mark. Galento's "cut" was $50,020.63.

5. Referee Arthur Donovan, who has been the third man in the ring in all Louis' fights here, decided he had never officiated at a "hotter" fight and after being nearly strangled on the ropes finally was "piled-driver" one of the most punishing and dangerous holds in the press.

Larry Kasaboski, rapidly becoming a local favorite to wrestling fans, scored his second victory over rough-tough K. O. Conley in the other bout on the card, again being awarded the bout during the third fall after the pair had split the first two. As was the case in the main event this match was full of action and all manner of tricks. After 11 minutes and 5 seconds of wrestling Conley won the first fall with a body press.

Both wrestlers frequently took to boxing during the fall and the frequent use of the ropes for several times particularly on Conley in order to make him quit his illegal tactics.

Kasaboski made quick work of the opponent as he won the second fall in four minutes and thirty seconds, a kangaroo hop and body press doing the trick. The pair had wrestled for over ten minutes in the deciding fall before Conley again was disqualified for fouling along the ropes. Kasaboski was taking much punishment when the sudden ending occurred. Conley immediately after the bout was ordered to use force corner nursing his jaw, the result of two well-timed punches delivered with all of Hughes' 200 pounds behind them.

The "Mystery Man" entered the ring last night at 190 pounds with Hagan tipping the beam at 191; in the semi-final K-caboski weighed 193 to Conley's 195.

Smith Still Attraction Of Tournament WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 29—Five seeded players—Henry Wilfred (Bunny) Austin, No. 1, Great Britain, Bobby Riggs, United States, No. 2, Ferenc Puncoc, Yugoslavia, No. 3, Henner Henkel, Germany, No. 4, and Elwood Cooke, United States, No. 5—came through today to the last 16 in Wimbledon's international singles tennis championships.

But the main attraction continued to be Gene Smith, big, beaming Californian teacher of English, who made his debut on the centre court by beating Franz Celniker, Bohemia, 6-3, 6-2, 5-7, 1-6, 6-1 in a two-hour battle.

Riggs scamped through against Camille Mallory of New Zealand, 6-6, 11-9, 6-2, and Cooke thrashed G. Littleton, Rogers, the Irish giant, 7-5, 6-1, 6-4.

Smith isn't likely to win this tournament but he's having a lot of fun on his sight-seeing tour and probably will win one more match before Ferenc Puncoc, the Yugoslavian who is seeded fourth, gets him in the quarter-finals.

The longer the tournament goes the more it looks as if Riggs, Cooke or Henkel will win. Riggs potentially is the best in the field, but against Amfroy he again bogged around, mis-hitting the easiest sort of shots.

Celniker is well off form. He labored through two sets against J. Drobný of Bohemia and Moravia and won them, 7-5, 9-7, and after that Drobný retired. To date Bobby Henner hasn't looked good enough to get past the quarter-finals.

Hagan Loses Match To 'Mystery Man'

Wrestling's "Mystery Man", making his first appearance before a Charlottetown audience, last night proved too rough and rugged for Jack Hagan of Louisiana, being awarded the main bout of the Sporting Club's card after the two men had wrestled 37 minutes and 55 seconds of their 60-minute time limit match.

A piledriver hold followed by a body press left Hagan lying helpless on the floor and the loser was unable to return for the second fall, suffering a severe injury to his neck that still had him in pain half an hour after the end of the bout.

But the two put on a bristling scrap the 37 minutes it lasted. It started out in tame enough fashion with the two sticking strictly to wrestling and the fans saw a variety of holds that both hurt and mystified. But shortly after the 25-minute mark had passed things began to heat up in quick order. Punching, gouging and the frequent use of the ropes for evident strangling purposes all came into play and although Hagan fought back gamely he was no match for the superbly built "Mystery Man."

In the last five minutes referee Len Hughes was hurried from the ring by the winner and had to use his fists to get back in; meanwhile Hagan was taking terrific punishment and after being nearly strangled on the ropes finally was "piled-driver" one of the most punishing and dangerous holds in the press.

Larry Kasaboski, rapidly becoming a local favorite to wrestling fans, scored his second victory over rough-tough K. O. McAleer Hurls Two-hitter As Anchors Defeat Stars To Take Over Second Place

Bill Ryan's wendend Anchors last night took over second place in the City Baseball League as they defeated the Eastern Stars 8-4 in a scheduled game called at the end of the seventh inning.

With their portside ace Lefty McAleer hurling two hit ball, and one of the blows being of the scratchiest variety, Anchors after counting three times in the first of the third throw away their lead as they allowed the Stars to score two runs in the fourth and two more in the sixth result of disastrous errors. But in the first of the seventh Anchors pushed across a brace of tallies of their own on two hits and a balk to cop the verdict, the Stars being retired in order in their last turn at the plate.

Errors played a big part in all the scoring with the Anchors getting the only earned runs of the encounter. For the first two innings Stars pulled themselves out of bad holes with steady baseball in the pinches but in the third after an error and a passed ball man had two on the sacks Jack Gallant tripped to drive in the two runners scoring himself as the lone left fielder threw wild to home plate.

Four successive errors with two out in the last of the fourth gave the Stars two runs and two additional errors in the sixth plus two successive singles gave them the lead; but it proved short-lived as Anchors came through in the seventh with the tying and winning tallies.

Lefty McAleer just missed a no-hitter by a shade. For five innings Stars failed to get a semblance of a hit but in the sixth one out and two on Power was credited with a safe look on his slow roller to third base with Bolger the next batter connecting for a clean single to left field, "Alkie" McCormack, making his first start was found for seven safeties during the game as he whiffed nine hitters at the plate.
