Mr. Earl Toombs of York spent a pleasant visit with his relatives and friends in this vicinity.

The many friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. E. E. McKay is still ill and are anxious to see her about.

Mr. Earl Houston was a visitor to Mayfield on Thursday, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Houston.

Little Linda Orr returned home on Sunday after being with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Whitlock the last three weeks.

The boys say they wouldn't have missed seeing the Barbara Ann Show for anything, and stated Barbara's beauty even surpassed that of her picture. Quite a number attended from here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McDonald are spending a few days at the home of their son Elmer, while he and Mrs. McDonald and little daughter are enjoying a visit in Saint John.

Friends and relatives were saddened to hear of the passing of Louis D. Warren of Ottawa and to his sorrowing widow and his son Lloyd, sincere sympathy is offered.

The Andrew sisters enjoyed having their little friend Nancy McMillan with them for the weekend. She returned home on Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McMillan.

Mrs. Murray Orr had a pleasant surprise on Saturday evening when she received a telephone call from her sister Marion who is in Toronto. Mrs. Orr states she could hear her just as distinctly as if she were by her side.

Little Nellie Andrew spent a happy birthday on Sunday. During the afternoon a number of friends called to offer their good wishes on her 10th birthday. A buffet lunch was enjoyed by all, as well as the pretty cake which was adorned with blue and yellow candles and served with ice cream.

Once again the terrible hazard of fire struck this vicinity, and destroyed the lovely farm home and barn with a lot of its contents of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lowther on the evening of February 23. Mr. Lowther was home alone at the time. Mrs. Lowther who was ill and their little daughter were at the home of her parents. The night being stormy, neighbours did not notice it until Mr. Lowther, after removing some of the furniture went to a neighbour's, who telephoned others, who only arrived too late to be of service. They think the fire must have started from the kitchen pipe which led up to a bedroom. This big loss is only partially covered by insurance.

The ladies of New Glasgow local churches met in the United Church on Friday, February 24, it being the World Day of Prayer. The presidents of the two missionary societies, namely, Mrs. Herbert Stevenson of the Christian Church and Miss Elsie Laird of the United Church, capably presided over this beautiful program. A number of members offered prayer. Miss Doris Andrew sang, "God Will Take Care of You." Offering was received by Avonna McAusland and Doris Andrew. Mrs. C. S. Dingwell addressed the meeting taking as her theme, "What Your Money Does." Avonna McAusland, Doris and Nellie Andrew, members of the Mission Band sang sweetly, "Around the Throne of God in Heaven." Hymns sung during the service were "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "Fight the Good Fight," "The National Anthem," "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" and "The Day Thou Gavest." The benediction brought the service to a close. Mrs. B. Andrew was organist.

CORNWALL NOTES

A school holiday last week gave the children the opportunity of skating and hockey practice in the outdoor rink on the beautiful winter day.

Through the kindness of Hazen Howard the hockey school team was conveyed to Long Creek on Tuesday evening. The Long Creek team won by the score of 4-2.

The pupils of Cornwall School were glad to welcome Eugene Donahue back to school after an absence of several weeks through illness.

Harrison Horne visited his native village on Saturday after an absence of several years; many remember him as the courteous clerk in Mr. Hazen Howard's general store.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Heber Horne for the March meeting, and a pleasant and instructive evening was enjoyed. The York Point members served a delicious lunch and a social hour followed.

The Sunday Service in Cornwall was in the form of a Sacred Concert and the regular choir contributed Anthems and a solo by Dorothy MacDonald and Mrs. Charman. Guest artists were Mrs. Clarence Murchison, Shirley MacDonald, Mr.
