Neglected the First Warnings of an Overburdened Stomach.

Dyspepsia Seized Him in its Vice-like Clutch--Took Warning Too Late--Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Would Have Saved Him.

"It's a great mistake," said the man on the stool at the lunch counter to his neighbor. "It's a great mistake to let the lesser symptoms of Dyspepsia, like Headaches, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Foul Breath and Wind in the Stomach run on, and think they will cure themselves. Those symptoms mean that the stomach is tired and cannot digest the food into blood. Consequently the blood being poor, cannot strengthen and renew the stomach."

"Then you've got to give the stomach a rest some way, eh?" said his friend.

"Exactly. Now, Smith, my old partner, used to be that way. Didn't think it mattered much if he had a bilious headache or heartburn after eating. Let it grow on him--ended up with Chronic Dyspepsia. Then when he found he had that, he started to starve himself, because eating hurt him. Got as thin as a rake and as bloodless as a screen door. First think he knew consumption had him. Died last spring."

"Is it true that Dyspepsia causes consumption?" "Why, it's a generally acknowledged medical fact," said the first speaker. Now, what I advised Smith to do, though he never would take my advice on private matters, was to take Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are the only sensible cure for Dyspepsia. You see, they digest the food for the stomach, which thus gets a chance to recuperate. They're a good thing--being for any man to take after meals because then you can eat what you like best without fear of consequences."

GERMAN METHODS.

A despatch to the London Daily News from Berlin quotes from private letters from German soldiers in China confirming the reports of the severity of the German methods there. One writer tells of sixteen prisoners being tied together by their queues and driven to Peking by troops. They were flogged until the blood flowed from their bodies. Afterwards, eight were compelled to dig graves for themselves, after which they were shot. Another soldier says: "What is going on here during the war is impossible for me to describe, for such murdering and slaughtering is awful. The reason is that the Chinese are outside of international law, so none is taken prisoner. All are shot, or, to save cartridges, stabbed. Sunday afternoon we had to stab seventy-four prisoners with the bayonet. They had shot one of our patrol, whereupon the whole battalion was called out to pursue them, and seventy-four were captured. It was cruel, and cannot be described as it really happened. I hope it will not go on much longer, otherwise one will forget whether one was ever a human being."

EIGHTEEN MONTHS' PAIN.

ENDED EFFECTUAL AND PERMANENTLY BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Central Waterville, N. B., Nov. 5.—These dull and damp days of November are terribly here on the Kidneys. Not one person in a hundred escapes. Backache, pains in the loins, Lumbago, and similar Kidney troubles are as plentiful as fallen leaves.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only sure and certain cure for kidney complaints. They never fail to cure.

In proof of this, read what Mr. F. W. Harris, of this place says: "After having suffered for eighteen months, with kidney disease, being unable to work, most of the time, and having grown worse while taking other medicines, I used three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, which effected a complete and permanent cure."
