NOTES OF THE WARSHIPS

Proceedings at the Park and Music in the Gardens

Five hundred and sixty sailors, artillerymen and marines, from Her Majesty's ships Crescent, Indefatigable and Proserpine held the fort at Victoria Park this morning. They marched out at nine o'clock and returned to the ships at eleven. They were put through various evolutions before Admiral Bedford and their commanders. Our citizens always enjoy watching the jolly jacks what ever they may be doing, and those present at the Park this morning were delighted with the celerity and precision with which they went through the various movements. A lawn tennis match was played on Victoria Park yesterday afternoon by a ship's team and a team from the Charlottetown club. The home team won, the score being 58 to 41. Tea was provided. The informal dance at Government House last night was greatly enjoyed by the goodly company of ladies and gentlemen present. Music was furnished by the ship's band. This afternoon a number of ladies and gentlemen of the city were entertained on board the different ships. The Crescent's band played in the gardens yesterday afternoon, to the delight of a large number of citizens. The warships leave this afternoon for Sydney.
